DO YOU REALIZE WHAT CONDITIONS ARE NEAR EAST?

Have you ever been hungry—convinced, desperately, for want of food? Chances are you have not. Few of us have been, as a matter of fact, for have we ever seen any one in that direful condition known as starving, although we talk a good deal about poverty and starvation "at our very doors," etc. It is as unknown to us, in its actual horror and misery, as the Plague or the Black Death, and the word's actual meaning does not take hold of us the way it should. When we read that "hundreds of thousands of children are starving in Armenia," we seem to think of it as just "another drive," and we wonder what we ought to give, and what our neighbors are giving. But "hundreds of thousands of starving children in Armenia" does not mean merely "just another drive," which we can ill-afford to assist! It means that numerous groups of human beings, little children in all respects like your own, are suffering horrible tortures and dying like flies in the oldest Christian country in the world. It means a tremendous pool of suffering which the civilized world must dry up at all costs, and as soon as possible. For the "starving Armenians" is not a slogan or a catch phrase; they are a horrible fact, becoming less and less numerous, more appealing to the conscience of the rest of the world, which is permitting them to die.

The burden of their sorrow and suffering should be upon the soul of the world, which, reduced to its ultimate division, is your soul and mine. If we fail to save them,—we who are blessed with the means of their salvation,—upon our heads must lie the guilt of their destruction. How much have you given to Near East Relief? How much are you going to give? Can you afford to refuse their appeal? Think it over, and act at once!

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett.
Wednesday afternoon Dr. W. W. P. Holt, our M. D., brought into the Sunnyside hotel, George A. Hollenbeck to remain for a few days while he is being treated for blood poisoning. The doctor was called by telephone that morning to go to Mr. Hollenbeck's, near McLeod and when he reached the place found Mr. Hollenbeck suffering with his right hand and on examination found that his hand was in a very bad condition, so after lancing it and giving it proper attention brought him out here, and at the present writing the hand although very painful, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Louis Martin of Trail also came in that Wednesday evening to spend the night. He had an assortment of furs that he had captured the past winter and took them to Medford, sold them to one of the Medford buyers at what he considered a good price, returned to the Sunnyside for the night and went up home the next day on the stage.

Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy, our assistant postmistress and telephone operator slipped off from her many friends about a week ago and went over to Weed to visit one of our old school teachers, Mr. J. C. Barnard and wife, who is now living in that city in the employ of the Weed Lumber Co., returning Wednesday afternoon, and reports having had one of the most enjoyable visits of the season.

Lester Smith of Butte Falls, who has been attending the state university, came out on the stage from Medford and went out to the Ed Gordon ranch to visit his sister, Mrs. Gordon, Thursday.

Wm. Perry and wife who have been in Medford and Jacksonville for several days attending court, as Mr. Perry was one of the jurors for the term, returned Thursday to their home.

Thomas D. Singleton, one of our retired farmers, was in town Thursday. There were quite a number of our farmers, dairymen and chicken raisers in town Thursday and the two trucks of the Jackson County and the Independence creameries arrived here quite early so as to meet the early comers on their way up the country and several of them were here ready with their eggs and cream to meet them. Among them was Mrs. Walter Meyer and while here she reported that she had brought off one incubator of chicks but that the incubator proved to have a leak in it and the result was that the eggs did not hatch well, although she had ninety little chicks almost large enough to fry, and another batch that will hatch the last of this week, about yesterday or today, Saturday. The trucks seem to be loaded both ways, as they bring out almost anything that is wanted by the farmers, even to wire fencing and furniture, grain or millrun, hogs and hides—a very great convenience.

C. E. Bellows and wife came in and were at the Sunnyside for dinner. They were accompanied by John B. Bechan of the Jackson County Cow Testing association. Mr. Bechan has been visiting the various dairies in this section and testing the cows for the owners.

James E. Perry of Riddle was here Thursday night. Mr. Perry remained until after dinner Friday and while here went out to look over some of the agate fields. He was looking for large clear, preferably white, agates but could not find what he wanted.

Mrs. S. J. Hessler of Lake creek, was in town Friday and went on up home in the stage.

Perry Foster of Lake Creek, who had been to Jacksonville on business returned Friday and spent the night with us.

John Foster of Lake creek, came in Friday evening and went on to Medford the same night. Just a short time before supper Friday evening the representatives of the Butte Falls basketball team came in for supper, consisting of Glen Albert, Ernest Albert, Orbia Albert, Esten Ahlstrom, Theodore Fredenburg, Wilson O'Brian and Prof. H. P. Jewett, principal of the Butte Falls high school, and after eating supper they loaded into two cars with Harry Lewis to drive one and Jud Edsall the other, Mrs. Howlet and daughter Hattie in with Jud, and went to Central Point to play against the Central Point basketball team. Jud and Mrs. Howlet went on to Medford to see the show at the Page. The result of the game was the score stood 41 to 12 in favor of Butte Falls. On the return trip Jud came by Central Point and picked up the Butte Falls players and brought them out here for the rest of the night. They came out on a little car on the track, returning this Saturday morning in the same way, feeling quite jubilant over their victory.

Miss Mildred Tucker of Brownsboro, came out on the Lake creek stage this morning and went up to Butte Falls on the stage.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Howell of Boise, Idaho, uncle and aunt of Mr. H. J. Devaney, our banker, came in yesterday to visit Mr. Devaney and family and the McDonald family, relatives, who came in from Idaho last fall.

Guy Prunett, one of our farmers, and Clarence Cox of Marysville, Calif., is here visiting relatives and also visit his mother, Mrs. Wm. Smith who owns a small farm between Medford and Central Point.

John Zimmerly who at one time owned the Farmers hotel, came in yesterday and was on the streets this morning.

Ralph Peyton of Peyton, passed thru town today on his way to Medford.

Thomas Singleton, Jr., drove in this morning to do some trading with our merchants.

Wm. Von der Hellen, one of the contractors on the Crater Lake highway, came in from the camp and reports that all of the old snow was gone, that they had about a dozen men at work and that as soon as the weather settles they expect to put on a full force and finish up the job.
