

WILLOW SPRINGS

Sam Anderson has traded his Ford for a new Chevrolet. He and his family spent Sunday with friends in Phoenix and Medford.

About ten days ago the little daughter of Lew Smith swallowed a large-headed pin an inch and a half long. Dr. Sweeney has taken several X-ray pictures and now thinks that the child will recover without an operation.

About five o'clock last Wednesday morning the barn on Mrs. Effie Caster's place burned to the ground. It was a big loss, as Mrs. Caster's car was entirely burned and a large ear belonging to relatives, was badly damaged. A large quantity of canned fruit and other goods stored there was a complete loss.

Cleo Young, who has been suffering with a slight attack of the measles is greatly improved and will soon be able to be in school again.

Mrs. Wm. Thompson entertained at luncheon Friday, Mrs. Bartlett Dodge of Medford, Mrs. Theodore Fish of Phoenix and Mrs. Fish's house guest, Mrs. Frederick Stoddard of Oakland, Cal.

A number of poultry men in this vicinity are putting their eggs in cold storage, during the low price of eggs and the high cost of feed, so as to break even.

Miss Evelyn Heffl has been quite ill with pink-eye, but is improving.

PROSPECT

Mr. G. F. Hollenback and family spent Sunday at the Bert Hignbotham home.

The Prospect school has enlarged by the admittance of two new pupils, Marie and Morris Smallhausen.

Mr. Bradley of California, a power plant man, has been here on business.

There was a community dance at the Prospect dance hall Tuesday evening. Everyone reported having had a good time.

Mr. Chester Davis spent Sunday afternoon at Bert Hignbotham's.

Sunday the power plant played volleyball against Prospect. Prospect won 5 to 3.

Contractors Brown and von der Hellen have established their road camp at the Graham ditch 3 miles above here and are intending to clear and finish grading the Prospect end of contact before the summer travel commences. This, together with the assurance of road sprinklers to lay the punice dust, promises much better roads for the coming tourist season.

The power possessed by the new government explosive, T. N. T., as regards to noise making qualities and stump-removing features is being demonstrated to the satisfaction of all in this vicinity by Louis Martin.
