HAMBURG TODAY ONLY MONUMENT TO A DEAD GLORY

WASHINGTON—Hamburg today may be described as an imposing monument to the dead glories of the German merchant marine, according to Consul Francis R. Stewart, who was detailed by the American commission in Berlin to investigate conditions for that body. A report from Mr. Stewart detailing the results of his inquiry has just reached the department of commerce. 14*

"A short trip through the harbor quickly discloses what a grave yard the port has become," the consul reported. "Tugs and lighters are tied up here and there, apparently forgotten. One small cruiser rests, deserted, alongside a pier; electric cranes are motionless on unused docks; floating elevators and docks are moored in rows, probably in readiness for delivery to the allies. 14*

"The giant Bismarck (56,000-ton Hamburg-American liner) floats at a fitting-outrier without a sign of life on board and from a launch no new work could be seen in any of the big shipyards. Tied up to another pier in the outer harbor is the former Atlantic record-holder, the steamship Deutschland, relic of the war, painted a deep black over all with spots of white showing here and there where passing craft have scraped her sides, a grim reminder of the glories once held by the German merchant fleets." 14*

Regular service is being maintained with Holland, England and North America, and lines were about to start service for Spain and South America, but the "free part" is apparently dead, Mr. Stewart reported. 14*

EDEN PRECINCT

Frank P. Farrell, candidate for the republican nomination for district attorney, was calling on old friends in the vicinity of Phoenix Wednesday. Mr. Farrell is a young man of sterling worth and has grown to manhood in our midst. We think him worthy of the office he seeks. 14*

(Noah Chandler, J. E. Roberts and C. Carey attended the meeting of the Woodmen of the World in Medford Wednesday evening from the Phoenix lodge. 14*

Phoenix is to have another industry in the way of a saw mill. The building will occupy the old site where the spray dope factory formerly stood. Logs will come from Anderson creek and Gold Hill, and perhaps some from above Ashland. 14*

J. M. Rader sold a carload of fat beef cattle Tuesday. These were the finest cattle sold in this part of the valley. But the price is not all that it should be, when the price of feed is taken into consideration. Altho I did not ask the exact figures obtained for this bunch. 14*

Work is steadily progressing at the Trigonion oil well, so Mr. Hunter of Fern valley, informs your correspondent. But no one knows just the exact depth at this writing as those at the well are not supposed to answer any questions there. 14*

A great many of our citizens attended the theatre in Medford Tuesday evening. Kolb and Dill was the attraction. 14*

Mrs. Noah Chandler of North Talent, was visiting at the home of Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Joshua Patterson of North Talent Wednesday. 14*

Miss Vivian Stancliff is home for the Easter vacation from St. Mary's 14*

LATEST NEWS OF THE STATE

EUGENE, Ore., April 5.—Retail clerks to the number of 152 have signed resolutions asking merchants to close at 5 o'clock instead of at 6 p. m. As yet, after a week's agitation, drygoods houses have not agreed on a closing hour. Grocers, instead of opening at 7 o'clock, have agreed to open at 8 o'clock and close at 6 p. m. 14*

EUGENE, Ore., April 5.—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dwyer of Silettes, Lane county, were three made grandparents during the last week in March. One day they received the announcement of the birth of a girl to their daughter, Mrs. Glen Cooper of Curd, Ore., the next day of the birth of a boy to their daughter, Mrs. W. M. Cox of College place, Wash., and the next of the birth of a girl to their daughter, Mrs. Vivian Davre of Reedsport, Ore. 14*

SALEM, Ore., April 5.—Isaac Baumbach and Helmut Otto, 16 and 18 years old respectively, were arrested by Salem police officers when they arrived here early today on a northbound Southern Pacific train, on information from Lodi, Cal., where they are wanted for burglary. The advices were received from the father of Baumbach. The boys confessed, according to Chief of Police Welsh that they entered the home of Leonard Sibel and stole $150. They had about $111 when arrested. 14*

SEATTLE BANDIT MURDERS PAL AND ALSO POLICEMAN

SEATTLE, April 5.—One Seattle officer, Deputy Sheriff Robert C. Scott and one alleged automobile bandit, Elmer Cady, were dead here today as the result of shooting early yesterday. A third bandit known only as "Blackie" was a fugitive, wanted on a charge of killing his brother robber. Scott was killed by the hold-up men when he and other officers attempted to halt a hold-up in the Rainier valley residence section of the city. After killing Scott the robbers commandeered an automobile and made its owner, Earl M. Eba drive at a sixty-mile clip toward the heart of the city. On the way Eba reported, "Blackie" killed Cady and robbed him of his loot. "Blackie" left the car at a downtown corner after ordering Eba to drive Cady to a hospital. 14*

EDINBURGH, Scotland, April 5.—Rufus Fleming, American consul here is dead. He was 67 years old. 14*

EUGENE, Ore., April 5.—The second trial of Martin A. Clark, once convicted of murder in the second degree on the charge of murdering Charles L. Taylor at McKenzie bridge July 25, 1919, was resumed here today. Clark was granted a new trial by Judge G. M. Skipworth on the grounds that the verdict was not justified by the evidence. 14*

BISHOP HUGHES PASSES AWAY

Hughes comes as a decided shock to the people of Southern Oregon, where he was a great favorite and a frequent visitor. His last public appearance was at the Lincoln club banquet at the Hotel Medford in February. At that time he delivered a tribute to Abraham Lincoln, generally regarded as the finest tribute to the great emancipator ever heard in this part of the state. 14*

Rev. J. Randolph Sasnett, pastor of the First Methodist church, a close friend of Bishop Hughes, received the first word of his death by wire yesterday. It was first reported he dropped dead in the pulpit Sunday morning. 14*

"Bishop Hughes," said Mr. Sasnett "was elected bishop of the Portland area including Oregon and Washington, west of the mountains, four years ago this May. He has done more in that short time to put the district upon an efficiency basis than any man the church has ever had. He literally worked himself to death, maintaining a schedule most demanding upon his strength, nervous and physical. When here in February he was far from well and had to rest before he could attend the banquet. In his death the church loses a faithful servant and the nation a loyal and splendid citizen." 14*

"SKIN THE CAT"
But if you won't exercise vigorously you must take "Cascarets."

There is nothing like bending exercises, taking long walks, or chopping wood to keep the liver and bowels active, but most folks take their exercise in an easy chair. Such folk need Cascarets, else they suffer from sick headache, sour, acid stomach, indigestion, colds and are miserable. But don't stay bilious or constipated. Feel splendid always by taking Cascarets occasionally. They act without gripping or inconvenience. They never sicken you like Calomel, Salts, Oil, or nasty, harsh Pills. They cost so little too—Cascarets work while you sleep.
