W.C.T.U. MEETING WILL BE HELD IN ASHLAND, APR. 29

ASHLAND, April 16.—A free parliament is slated to take place in this city on Thursday, April 29. This preliminary notice is given out well in advance so that all may study their respective parts and be in readiness to champion their respective views. The scene will be the Presbyterian church, though the gathering will not be a denominational one, and it is to be hoped that none will remain away simply because the rally is held within the walls of a sacred edifice. Not only all denominations, from a religious point of view are invited, but also secular organizations and political parties it is hoped will be represented. Moreover, the call is an urgent one to both men and women. No partisanship will be displayed, and absolute fair play will govern either casual debate or prepared argument. This free parliament invites the attention of every citizen and all parties and creeds are urged to participate, and it is proposed to conduct it along lines to such a logical conclusion as will afford an ideal symposium of religious, educational, social and political opinion, freely expressed to such an extent as will reflect the best sentiment both theoretical and practical. This gathering will not be exclusively an Ashland community affair, but includes Jackson county in its scope as to attendance and influence.

The foregoing refers to the mid-year meeting of the Jackson County Women's Christian Temperance Union, a gathering which will legalize the 36th anniversary of the organization's history as applied to this county. The convention will be called to order at 10 a. m., routine business matters to follow the devotional hour. Remember, the date is Thursday, April 29, and sessions will be held in the Presbyterian church this city. In the afternoon political candidates, regardless of party affiliation will be invited to "rise up in meeting" and testify to the faith, which is in them, such testimony to begin at 2:30 o'clock, and it is taken for granted that the expressions from the witness panel must necessarily be brief and to the point. About a dozen district and county officers are to be nominated at the coming primaries, and up to date, the "Heaven-born ratio of fifteen-to-one" applies numerically to candidates for these positions between republicans and democrats respectively. In order that none of these may feel slighted, the invitation list is extended specifically to them all as follows: Joint representative, W. H. Gore; county representatives, E. V. Carter, Ben Sheldon; district attorney, G. M. Roberts, H. A. Canaday, Frank Farrell, Rawles Moore; sheriff, C. E. Terrell, J. B. Wimer; school superintendent, Miss Susanne Homes, G. W. Godward, A. J. Hanby; clerk, Chauncey Florey; assessor, J. B. Coleman; treasurer, A. C. Walker; surveyor, Frank Rhodes; commissioner, A. E. Kinney, Court Hall. Even the candidate for county coroner, John Perl, is not omitted from the invitation list, although this does not imply that the interesting sessions of the W. C. T. U. will in any wise partake of the nature of a coroner's inquest. The lone democrat, provided he puts in an appearance, will be given just as respectful and attentive hearing as his republican opponents, for the W. C. T. U. knows no party lines.

The great organization stands for the highest ideals in the business and social life, also for religious, intellectual and moral uplift, coupled with a steadfast advocacy in behalf of the best educational advantage, temperance also being a cardinal principle. It demands the highest standards in private, as well as public life. With it patriotism and prohibition are synonymous terms. Hence, in these filling positions of public trust, it exacts a measure of faithfulness and efficiency commensurate with the responsibilities involved as between the official and private citizen, and does not consider it presumptuous to require a declaration of principles in regard to policies as applying not only to a technical enforcement of the law, but also as to the sincerity of purpose and energy with which such problems shall be dealt with. A formal program of this anniversary gathering will be issued in due season. In the meantime, the registration books for the primary election will close April 20, and all who

THREE FACES EAST BIG MELODRAMA PAGE APRIL 21ST

Anthony Paul Kelly's melodrama "Three Faces East" will be staged for the first time in this city at the Page theatre Wednesday night, April 21.

Playgoers who delight in works involving mysteries or in war dramas dealing with the machinations of spies, should welcome the announcement, for Mr. Kelly's creation is so dexterously contrived that it not only holds spectators in suspense as to the identity of the masquerading spy, but contains such a stirring episode as a Zeppelin raid on London. Produced in New York a year ago last August, the piece kindled so much interest that it remained there several months.

The action in "Three Faces East" begins in Berlin, where the head of the German espionage system sends a young woman to London to obtain information regarding British military plans. The later scenes are laid in the British capital and illustrate a battle of wits between English and German secret service agents. Numerous persons are suspected of being engaged in trafficking with the enemy, and onlookers are kept guessing as to whether or not this or that one is the real spy. Not until the denouement is the identity of the culprit disclosed with surprising effect.

Interest in the developments of the action is heightened by the admirable manner in which the play has been staged by Messrs. Cohan & Harris. Among the principals in the cast are Violet Heming, Merion Grey, Charles Harbury, Frank Westerton, William Jeffrey, Frank Sheridan, Otto Niemeyer, Herbert Evans and Maurice Freeman.

vote at such election on May 21, must register before the aforesaid date in April.

"He says I'm a good skate" —Chesterfield

A REAL pal—that's Chesterfield. Look at its record. Three million smokers—less than five years on the market! Two words explain it—"They Satisfy."

Our expert buyers in the Orient select for Chesterfields only the finest grade of the four choicest varieties of Turkish tobacco. To these are added the best of mild but full-bodied Domestic leaf.

But, in the end, it's the blend that makes Chesterfields "satisfy." And the blend—our private formula—cannot be copied.

You are a Stockholder in the greatest business in the world

YOU are going to do an act this month whose influence will carry around the world.

It will seem a simple thing to you—merely making a gift in the Interchurch World Campaign.

But in Church hospitals all over the country sick people will be made happier, for part of your gift will go to them.

In scores of children's homes supported by the Church more children will have a chance.

In China where there is one doctor to every 400,000 people (America has one to every 712) the Church's medical forces will be strengthened and encouraged.

Babies who might have died

In India where a third of the babies die before their second year, the lives of babies will be saved.

Church schools and colleges will share your gift [half of America's 450,000 students in institutions of higher grade are in Church Institutions].

In preachers' homes where preachers' wives have patched and darned and wetted their work with their tears, life will be happier and better. [80% of the preachers now are paid less than $20 a week.]

These are some of the things your money will do. And this is What your money will not do

It will not put two Churches where only one should be. The Movement means thirty denominations pledged to prevent duplication and waste.

It will not be spent in useless overhead. At least a million dollars will be saved by the merging of thirty campaigns into one united effort.

Your life will be at work in every land

Whether you are a Church member, or whether you merely contribute, you will put your life to work—through the Church—in every corner of the World. And long after your life is over its influence will survive and serve.

These are the terms in which to think of the Church.

We have thought too long about it in terms of little things. Let us get a picture this month of its world-wide sweep. Let us stop thinking of ourselves as givers of pennies.

We are fellow-workers with Almighty God—stockholders in the greatest business in the world.
