There was a rather heavy frost this morning for a short period, but it came too late to do any damage as the minimum temperature, 28 1/2, was reached at 6 a. m. There was no smudging. Another light to heavy frost is predicted for tomorrow morning. It was alternately clear and cloudy all thru last night but between 5 and 5:30 this morning it cleared up and the temperature began falling until 28 1/2 degrees was reached.

The Maxwell car of M. S. Centers of Medford caught fire about 7 a. m. Wednesday when he was on his way to Jacksonville and was totally destroyed. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is presumed it was due to a leak in gasoline. The first Mr. Centers knew of the impending disaster was when he saw smoke coming up from the body of the car. He stopped at once and left the car, and stood helplessly while the auto burned, as he had no fire extinguisher. The car, which was a year old was fully insured.
