

LOCAL ACTIVITY IN REAL ESTATE MIXES FAMILIES

Because of the fast selling and changing of hands of real estate in Medford for some time past there have been strange mix-ups. Every house sold means two or three or more removals and as many families discommoded. Here is one of the latest removal cycles of interest.

H. A. Fredenburg traded his dwelling at West Tenth and South Newtown streets for J. A. Moffat's dwelling and grocery building on West Jackson street. This put it up to W. L. Lewis who with his family had been living in the Fredenburg house to find a new home, and after looking around for a while without success for another house to rent, he purchased a home on West Jackson street from the Medford Realty company in which Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Bailey reside.

The Bailey's desiring to rent another house for fear that it might also be sold over their heads, went two doors away on West Jackson and bought from the Medford Realty company the home in which Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jerome reside.

Now all the families are happy except Mr. and Mrs. Jerome, who are looking for another place to rent or buy, and are doubly embarrassed because Mrs. Jerome, who is a member of the high school faculty, has a number of good teaching offers under consideration, one or two of which are not far from Medford.

None of the families mentioned above can move into their newly purchased homes until the Jeromes make the first move.

CONVINCED OF DEFEAT.

41,000 men in the non-recognized associations and that elections for a grand lodge would be held in November.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Striking railroad workers in the New York district appealed directly to the railroad managers today for restoration to duty and settlement of the strike "in the public interest."

NEW YORK, April 23.—Members of the so-called "outlaw" railroad workers union, still on strike in New York and Jersey City waited today for the "next move" in the struggle, which their leader, E. A. McHugh, declared must come from the railroad managers.

More than 5000 men are out and voted yesterday, according to McHugh, to remain out until the railroad labor board had acted on demands for a general wage increase. This may take several months.

H. H. Managers Active
The railroad managers met McHugh's challenge for a "next move" by redoubling their efforts to hire new men and reiterating their determination to take strikers back only as new employees with loss of their seniority rights.

Movements of freight continued to improve today according to J. J. Mantell, spokesman for the managers and he predicted that the strike would have "burned itself out" by the end of the week.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—After voting yesterday afternoon to go back to work, the striking yardmen of the district revoked the vote, and announced that action would be suspended until today.

CLEVELAND, April 23.—Five hundred striking members of the Cleveland Yardmen's association, at a meeting here this afternoon voted to go to jail in preference to returning to work. Frank J. O'Rourke, president of the association had notified the men that department of justice agents had notified him that unless the strikers returned to work by tomorrow morning the leaders would be arrested.

"Spite Bride" at Liberty.
"The Spite Bride," starring Olive Thomas, comes to the Liberty theatre today for two days' run. It has snap, dash and zest; a human picture of human people presented in a human way. And Olive Thomas was never better in her life. She is the essence of youth—youth at its finest—with its simplicity, grace, charm and wisdom.
