

POSEN CHANGES ITS NAME AND ALSO MANNERS

POZNAN, Poland, April 27.—Poznan, which for more than a hundred years under German rule, was known as Posen, is undergoing many alterations as a result of the outcome of the war and the peace conference which gave Poznan back to Poland. Just recently, the task of changing the name of every street in town from German to Polish was completed, the task having been worked out by a commission which began its duties soon after Poznan became a city of the new republic.

One of the principal thoroughfares which had been known as Berliner strasse has been renamed the street of "December twenty-seventh," this being what is considered the very first day of the Germans in Poznan. A great square in the center of the city which, since 1793, excepting an eight-year interval after Prussia's defeat by Napoleon (that being the year the Germans came to Poznan) had been called Wilhelm platz, is known as Liberty Place. And a great statue of Frederick III which stood for years in Wilhelm platz, long ago disappeared, having been torn down by Polish residents of Poznan during the night of December 27, 1918, when there were riots and much street fighting between German and Polish subjects, the upshot of the demonstrations convincing German officials that it would be useless to end or further to continue Poznan in so-called German territory. The soldiers began withdrawing that night. Gradually since the German residents have been leaving. Many of them were born in Poznan or vicinity.

Within the past fourteen months it is estimated that approximately 27,000 Germans have departed from Poznan, most of them being officials who held government positions under the German regime, and their families and officers of the German army. Poznan city officials estimate that about 37,000 persons have moved to Poznan in that time, the majority of these having come from Congress Poland.

Poznan today is a city of about 170,000 inhabitants and considered by Germany prior to the outbreak of the war as the strongest fortified city on its western frontier. All the old forts, redoubts and batteries built by the Germans still stand.

When the Germans were in control Polish classes in the schools were forbidden. German is spoken so generally in Poznan, however, that even under the white and scarlet flag of the new republic it is taught in a certain number of schools.

DIME COUNTERFEITER PORTLAND IS INDICTED

PORTLAND, Ore., April 27.—Operations of an embryonic and unsuccessful counterfeiter, who specialized in the manufacture of lead dimes, were brought to light yesterday when the federal grand jury returned an indictment against Isaac Wirmala, who is accused in several separate counts of counterfeiting coins and of passing them on local merchants.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Veatch, who handled the case before the grand jury, Wirmala has made a complete confession. A home-made cement die in which the "queer" coins were manufactured was located in the shack in which he lived near Oswego.

For Colds, Catarrh or Influenza

Do you feel weak and unequal to the work ahead of you? Do you still cough a little, or does your nose bother you? Are you fatigued? Is your blood thin and watery? Better put your body into shape. Build strong!

An old, reliable blood-maker and herbal tonic made from wild roots and barks, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This "nature remedy" comes in tablet or liquid form. It will build up your body and protect you from disease germs which lurk everywhere. One of the active ingredients of this temperance alterative and tonic is wild cherry bark with stillingia, which is so good for the lungs and for coughs; also Oregon grape root, blood root, stone root, Queen's root, all skillfully combined in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbal extracts in the "Discovery" aid in blood-making and are best for scrofula. By improving the blood they fortify the body against an attack of grip or colds.

Catarrh should be treated, first, as a blood disease, with this alterative. Then, in addition, the nose should be washed daily with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Send 10c for trial pkg. of Medical Discovery Tablets or Catarrh Tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW LOGGING CAMP IS ESTABLISHED IN BUTTE FALLS DIST.

BUTTE FALLS, April 27.—Another logging camp, has started up near Gippert's, and the foreman was trying to get a cook up here, but failed to find any. I guess they find men pretty scarce, as quite a few of the men left for other camps, that started earlier in the season, not thinking there would be work so near home, but perhaps they will gradually wander back as work increases.

Mr. W. Bael went to the valley Wednesday, feeling quite poorly. He is under the doctor's care now.

H. D. Mills and Ira Tongate returned Wednesday from Medford.

Mrs. Julia Doubleday left for Medford one day last week.

We are having some nice sunny days now and the gardens and grass are making up for lost time.

Allice Tongate and babies returned Tuesday after an extended visit at Brownsboro, and Eagle Point.

We can hear the motors humming again, and see cars coming up from the valley, which looks good to the citizens. The roads will be worked this week and smoothed down again.

Only four weeks more of school. The graduating class this year is Glenn Albert, Norma Stewart, Wilson O'Brian and Theodore Fredenburg. Commencement exercises May 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Berrian motored out to Medford Saturday to do some trading and visit Mr. Berrian's mother.

Mrs. Ben Edmondson and family went up to their ranch Sunday after visiting relatives in town for a week or more.

J. Gippert phoned up to the Falls this evening for men and teams to finish putting in his wheat, as the season has been so wet he didn't get his grain in as soon as he expected to, and now he is rushing it in before it gets too dry.

Picnic parties were the main feature this Sunday as the woods are in full bloom, and the sunshine so enchanting.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Among the items I omitted to write up for the readers of the Medford Mall Tribune last Wednesday was that A. S. Bliton, the motor reader for the California-Oregon Power company had made his regular rounds and was inquiring for the residence of certain parties who had been added to the list of those who were patronizing the power company.

J. A. Wells of Medford, was also a caller at the Sunnyside and so was Nick Young our ex-road supervisor.

W. E. Hammel, one of our leading farmers and a genuine good roads enthusiast was a business caller and while here did not fail to speak encouragingly of the great project to have our country roads materially improved, i. e., to have us vote to bond the county for a half million and have the state give equally as much and then the general government appropriate equally as much to build roads outside of the main thoroughfares. Our experience out in this part of the county, where the roads have been so very bad that the contractor had to hire two sets of men with pack horses to carry the mail over a road that has been used for over fifty years, it seems as if almost every one who is at all interested in the subject will vote for the bonds.

Mrs. Fred McPherson of Portland, has come down to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Nichols.

Mrs. George Brown and her neighbor Mrs. Hechner of Brownsboro, were also business callers.

A. H. Dougherty, traveling salesman, was here and spent Tuesday and Wednesday nights. On account of the condition of the roads in the outlying districts he had to change his plans and postpone his visit in those neighborhoods.

J. L. Hovey, the foreman on the Allvesta orchard was a business caller Wednesday and so was John Rader, L. K. Haak and Shirts Allen, and wife of Wellen and Mrs. Allen's brother, Ed Hensley, also of Wellen.

Fred Neill who has been of duty as carer of the Geo. Loosely cattle for a few days, returned to his room at the Sunnyside Thursday evening.

J. H. Tyrrell and his grandson Loren Farlow of Lake creek, passed thru here Thursday morning on their way up to Mr. Tyrrell's Lost Creek ranch. It will be remembered that Mr. Tyrrell sold his ranch of 320 acres to the Tacoma Metal company on account of the manganese mines located there and at the close of the war, when the demand for the ore stopped that the company turned the place back to him again and now he has two homes, one in Medford and one on Lake creek and he has his hands full caring for both places.

J. H. Shaw of Aberdeen, Wash., who stopped here last week to look for agates started for his home via Portland, Thursday. And Planey Leabo who has been working in a lumber mill in Blt, started for Medford the same day.

Wm. Belle of Butte Falls, was brought to the Sunnyside and remained two nights under the care of Dr. Holt, has been moved across the street where his wife and daughter are caring for him. He has had a severe stroke of paralysis but is improving.

John B. Wimer, one of the candidates on the republican ticket for the nomination for sheriff, was here Thursday for dinner and so was R. L. Burtrick and son R. L. Jr. Also Geo. D. King of Seattle. They all took dinner at the Sunnyside Thursday.

Sherman Wooley, wife and her father, John Smith, Ed Spencer and Harry Smith took supper together at the Sunnyside Thursday evening. Prof. R. E. Marts, our school supervisor, was also here and spent the night.

Joseph Geppert, the Butte Falls road supervisor, was in town Friday morning and went up home on the Butte Falls stage.

M. A. Simon of Wellen, was a business caller Friday and so was A. C. Spence, the Brownsboro road supervisor.

J. C. Pendleton, one of the deputy assessors was here Friday.

Henry Meyer and son Auburn of Lake creek, came out and went on to Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shutte of Derby drove out Friday.

One of the Johnson brothers who bought the P. W. Haley farm here was a business caller Friday.

Charles Horton of Klamath Falls, and Harley Dunn of Ashland, two cattle buyers were here for dinner Friday.

J. M. King and Sam Courtney were here for dinner Friday and Sam is stopping at the Sunnyside while he is painting H. G. Brown's house.

Frank Swingle and son of Ashland called this morning on business.

They were on their way up the creek. There was a jolly crowd went thru here this morning on their way up the creek to have a picnic dinner. The company was composed of Elmer Vips, Miss Barr, Miss Kingsley, Lewis Clark, Richard Singler, Glen Leach, Ruth Grover, Dorothea Newman, Frank Buchter, Katherine Lindley, Josephine Hartzell, C. Reynolds, Helen Holt of Eagle Point, and Edith Lumaden. The freshmen and sophomore classes of the Medford high school as they drove thru town some of them spied your correspondent and stopped and about the first request was to give them a write-up in the Mall Tribune, and the result was that they soon gave me their names. They were surely bent on having a good time and appeared to be as happy as "clams at high tide."

J. Wattenburg and daughter Miss Evelyn were shopping here this Saturday morning.

P. W. Haley of Central Point, R. M. Conley of Butte Falls, Wm. Jones, one of the forest rangers, Perl Davis and J. G. Davis of Medford, were here for dinner today. The two Davises are hauling lumber from Medford to Brownsboro for Ralph Tucker. He is building a large barn. He is one of the dairy men of that section.

Increased cost of materials, machinery and labor and increased profits for new dealers were assigned as reasons for the advance. Advertising rates also are increased.

POTATOES LEAD IN PRICE INCREASE

WASHINGTON, April 28.—A comparison of the average prices received March 1, 1914 and March 1, 1920 by producers in the United States of eight important agricultural products made by the bureau of crop estimates of the department of agriculture, shows the following increases: Cotton, 200 percent; wheat, 173 percent; corn, 116 percent; potatoes, 244 percent; hay, 91 percent; eggs, 96 percent; butter, 115 percent; wool, 231 percent.

A WORLD REBUILT

By the Golden Rule
not by the Rule of Gold

WHAT ARE the most precious elements in American Life?

Respect for the home? Jesus found women slaves; He made them companions. Down through the ages His Church has been the champion of women's rights and aspirations.

Respect for the man who works? It was the Carpenter of Nazareth who gave labor its great charter. "You are sons of God," He said. In that sentence Democracy was born.

Respect for property? Modern business is credit; and credit is character. All that makes property safe in the world is bound up in the reverence for law that religion breeds.

Respect for education? Who gave America her colleges? They were founded by Christian ministers, almost all of them.

On these great essentials must we build a better America, and a better world. And every one of them rests on the foundations of the Christian Church.

Thirty denominations of that Church are uniting now in a simultaneous campaign.

They are uniting because the task before the Church is too great for any one denomination; because there must be no duplication of effort; no waste.

They have had the courage to survey the whole task, and to ask for a budget large enough to sustain (1) the work abroad, (2) the work at home including the Church's part in the huge task of Americanization, (3) the colleges and (4) hospitals supported by the Churches, (5) the religious training of the young, and to provide (6) a living wage for the Church's ministers.

The appeal is to every lover of America, to you whether you are inside the Church or out. The rebuilding of the world is a spiritual task. Faith must be the cornerstone on which the new foundations are laid true; the measuring rod by which the builders build must be the Golden Rule.

Give when the call comes to you—give with your heart as well as your pocket-book
