Ye Smudge Pot

The discovery of Red plots to overthrow the government and kill officials on May day, indicates that a few more Bolsheviki lovers ought to be appointed flight away to important federal positions.

The Elks band was OK, except for the stray streaks of whitewash in Herb Alford's goatee.

The administration's deal with Carranza for the overthrow of Huerta is just another "open covenant openly arrived at."

It would be interesting to have High Johnson lose California next Tues. (which he is not apt to), just to hear him rave about something worse than "The Crime of Shantung."

The latest thing in autos is the "Michigan Automobile." The manufacturers will have to combat the suspicion that the machine is an old friend in disguise.

F. C. K. calls our attention to a traveling salesman by the name of Petersen O'Brien, who seems to be a Scotchman from Italy.

Citizens wearing straw hats before the official date, intend to wear them out before they are forced to eat 'em.

Dock Keene, who busted his arm on a farm implement last fall, was rapped a severe lick on the shin Thura, by a Fresno scraper, and is walking lame. Everything is not as hopeless as the Oregon System, as Dock now knows. What he needs is Painless Farming.

The general public escaped the drive mania, only to run into the special week enthusiasm. There will soon be a week for everything man wears or bites a hole in.

Every Oregon county can have a big timber deal some time but Jackson county. It is always shy of stove wood and apple boxes.

Tribune's Daily Health Hint

Eyes are wonderful things. Don't let quacks monkey with them. Many headaches come from eyes, especially in young people. There are so many things that can all an eye, that it is the source of all manner of troubles.

The front of the eye is more bulging than the rest of the ball. If this bulging is regular the result is a distorted image on the retina. This is called "astigmatism" and is the cause of most headaches, for the view is blurred. People with astigmatism are usually sure they can see "just fine" because if we know nothing better, what we have is good enough for us.

WANTED,—A LEADER

THE GREAT need in the country today is leadership. The United States resembles a gigantic ocean liner without a rudder, in a tumultuous sea.

Take the high cost of living for example. One man says stop exports, another says stop buying, and a third wear overalls, a fourth increase production, a fifth jail profiteers, a sixth adopt government ownership, and so on and so forth, until the people completely confused, do nothing but to go in the line of least resistance and wait for something to turn up.

Whether we approve or disapprove of Wilson, there is no denying that in our greatest crisis, he was a genuine leader, and piloted the ship of state with a firm and beneficent hand.

It is not a pleasant picture, nor a cheering prospect. The only hope is a storm will not break until the elections are over.

THE FAVORITE SON MANIA.

THERE should be a law against favorite sons. Voting for a man for any public office because of his residence is utter nonsense. There should be only one consideration and that is the candidate's qualifications for the particular job.

Rippling Rhymes

FREE AIR

THE AIR we breathe is cheaper than anything there is; custodian or keeper, can't say, "The price has riz!" We hear no far-fetched wheezes from profiteering gents, explaining that the breezes have gone up fifty cents.

corrected by an optician for it is a simple and every day trouble, and not a matter of the individual. Reading glasses are what we need then.

Don't neglect sore eyes. Because you had them when you were young is no reason why the children should risk their sight with them. Sore eyes are dangerous and lead to blindness. Have them cured.
