

Sure Death to Corns

"Geta-It" Makes 'Em Lose Their Grip and Lift Off Painlessly.

The first thing "Geta-It" does when it lands on a corn or callus is to snuff out the pain. Then it shrivels the corn or callus and loosens it.

"Geta-It" Spells "Geta-It" for Corns. Soon, it is almost ready to fall off. You help it just a little by lifting it off 'twixt thumb and finger. You don't even feel it, because there is no hurt left in it. Millions have proved it the cleanest, surest, safest and most pleasant method. "Geta-It," the never failing, guaranteed money-back corn remover costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

NO FROST DAMAGE REPORTED TABLE ROCK TERRITORY

TABLE ROCK, April 29.—Altho many of our orchardists lighted their smudge pots during the first part of the week there seems to have been scarcely any damage done in orchards where smudging was not done. J. C. Pendleton finished assessing in this district last week.

Friday was hot day in Table Rock, three truck loads going out to join the Farm Bureau shipments.

The announcement of Victor Bursell's candidacy for county commissioner meets the general approval of voters in this section.

Miss Krumboltz of Los Angeles, visited for a few days at the Lydard home last week.

Several Table Rockers have invested in oil stock so we may awake some morning to find that we have millionaire neighbors.

Those from here who attended the high school play at Central Point, Thursday night were highly pleased with the clean, snappy comedy which afforded an evening of choice entertainment.

Several from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. James at Ashland Sunday afternoon.

The Farm Bureau is asking farmers to specify the number of grain sacks they will need for next harvest. This is a move in the right direction and we should lose no time in getting our orders in so that those in charge can do the buying before sacks get any higher.

Owing to the high price of sugar some of our farmers will plant sugar cane this season and hope in this way to reduce the h. C. L.

Mr. McKay of Agate, was a business visitor here Tuesday. He is planting some fifty acres of corn and several acres of tomatoes this year.

Workers in these parts claim that the overall fall will cause a raise in the price of overalls which the working man and farmer must have regardless of price, and would suggest to those who would try to lower the price of clothing to wear their last year's suits.

Fifty thousand dollars of the county bond issue to be voted on at the primary election will be spent on the Bybee Bridge road according to the notices sent out by the county clerk.

The surfacing of the Agate road with pumice which is in progress now was made possible by the special tax voted last winter in that district.

Wild geese are flying north to their summer nesting grounds. Some spring mushrooms are appearing, hens have tired of laying the golden eggs and are setting, several cases of spring fever have developed, bees are swarming, and the oak leaves will soon be as big as a squirrel's ear, then it will be time to plant corn, so say old timers.

H. W. Davison went as a delegate to the Presbyterian convention at Grants Pass last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Frank Farrell, candidate for district attorney, was shaking hands with voters in these parts last Wednesday.

O. T. Wilson has moved his sheep to the Harry Nealon ranch during shearing which will begin this week.

Charles Dunlap who underwent a serious operation at the Sacred Heart hospital Monday morning is getting along as well as can be expected.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett.

The Misses Ethel and Stell Anderson of Medford came out and spent Saturday night at the Sunnyside.

Glenn Haley of Central Point and A. J. Florev, Jr., were also among the lodgers Saturday night.

Sunday morning was one of those lovely bright mornings that would cause almost anyone, no matter how much they objected to stirring around, to go out and take in a good portion of fresh, healthful morning air and with the lovers of nature and pleasure, would naturally prompt them to get out, especially out of the towns and cities and go out into the open and break the monotony of routine life. And judging from the number of cars that passed through our town that morning, there must have been hundreds of them that took advantage of the time and started out joy-riding and pleasure seeking. I heard one lady remark, in the afternoon, that almost everybody had gone out enjoying as the roads and streams seemed to be lined with cars and people and still there was a goodly number stopped at the Sunnyside for dinner from different parts of the valley, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Mills and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Briggs, Bert R. Greer and wife and daughters Ethel and Lillian of Ashland, and Mrs. Viola Hall, a sister of Mrs. Greer, of Las Angeles. Bert Greer is the popular editor of the Ashland Tidings and for years has made it a rule to come up and take dinner at the Sunnyside among the first real lively Sundays in the spring or early summer. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nicholson, Floyd Nicholson, Clarence B. Gay and wife, N. S. Campbell and wife of Portland, S. Hughes, T. Hughes of San Jose, California, R. Campbell and Virginia

Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Porter and son, Jack; "Gus the Tailor," and wife of Medford; Miss Hazel Antle of Corvallis, acting cashier and assistant cashier of the First State Bank of Eagle Point; E. J. Kaiser the postmaster of Ashland and formerly editor and proprietor of the Valley Record; W. H. Mowat and G. R. Satchwell, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Burdick, and child of Ashland; W. A. Summers, Miss Dye, D. R. Wood and wife, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mann, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Haley, recently of Astoria; Roy Stanley, wife and son; Mr. and Mrs. William Perry, John W. Smith, J. C. Mann and family of Medford; Farmer Mayol, O. B. Johnson, wife and child of Ashland and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson of Medford. After they had all eaten their chicken dinner and rested a short time visiting and having a good social time they started out for a good joy ride and to enjoy the beauties of nature along the different routes.

Mrs. Peterson of Trail, wife of one of the mail carriers on the Eagle Point-Perisist route came out Saturday evening with her husband, to do some shopping among our merchants and went home Monday morning.

Miss Thelma Ellested, who is teaching in the Derby district came out from Medford Monday morning on the stage and went on to her school. Miss Ellested arranges to have a friend take charge of her school Monday morning while she is coming out from Medford.

J. M. King, who owns a farm on what is known as the Conover Camp, was a guest at the Sunnyside Monday and so was Mrs. Marie Owyly of Klamath Falls, Mr. E. P. Fox, formerly interested in the milk goat industry and Mr. Ray Jilson, the hawkeye man in the Ashland depot, S. P. R. R. He was taking a few days' lay off and came up with Mr. Fred Neil to spend a few days with him at the Sunnyside, remaining until today, Wednesday.

Mrs. Tingate of Jacksonville came out to visit her sister, Mrs. Anna E. Watkins and also to visit her nephew, Wm. Beale, who is sick at his stardughters, Mrs. Sherman Woolley.

Mrs. C. E. Bellows came out Monday and went out to Medford on the Lewis Jitney.

There was about the usual number of our dairy men and chicken men in with their cream and eggs Monday as usual, and among them was Mr. Biekhen, the cow tester, who has been testing the cows for them. He went to Medford that afternoon on the Lewis jitney.

Met Monday afternoon Miss Helen Holt, one of the company of high school pupils, who were in the company mentioned in my letter published Tuesday in The Mail Tribune, and she reported that they had one of the times of their lives and fun-ther that there were two more loads of the same pupils followed them, making about sixty altogether, and per necessity they had to have a good time fishing, romping and laughing and why shouldn't they, for they started out to have a good time and had it.

Mr. E. R. Jones, who married Mrs. Rausdale of Lake Creek, some time ago passed through town Monday with a registered Jersey bull in his wagon weighing 1300 pounds. Mr. M. D. Bowles also of Lake Creek was with him and while here wanted me to take his subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune, but I told him to send his check into the office, as I was not taking subscriptions for The Medford Mail Tribune.

Everett Abbott, formerly of Butte Falls, but now of Portland, passed through Tuesday on his way to Butte Falls to visit his mother.

Charles Humphrey and wife of Derby came out Tuesday and brought out two long ditch forks for our hard-ware man, Mr. von der Hellen.

Geo. W. Stovell our chicken king, was in town Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Fred Dutton was also shopping here at the same time.

Dr. Kirknessner of Bendle was called in council Tuesday to see Wm. Beille. Dr. Holt is the attending physician.

F. D. Dills, who has been here for a week, started Tuesday for California.

James Watkins, Central Point, Chris Beak and John Mayham, L. D. Cranford of Ft. Jones, Calif.; M. E. Southern of Etna Mills, Calif., and Bert Brown of Ft. Jones, Calif., were also here and spent the night. They had come over with a truck to move the machinery in the T. E. Nichols building, used for making ice, to be taken to Dunsmuir, Calif. The machinery was purchased by Mr. Lenthum. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Harry Isbell, Mr. H. F. Hardwick, Misses Helen and Phenna Anderson, all of Medford, called for dinner and still later our popular sheriff, C. Terrill, and candidate for re-nomination and his old opponent, W. O. Garrett called for supper.

STIFF SHIRT SCORNE BY FRENCH PRESIDENT

PARIS, April 23.—Soft felt hats, soft collars and lounge suits are articles of dress prescribed by President Deschanel for himself and his suite when he begins his tour of France shortly.

Hitherto, the French president, from morning till night, while on official duty, has been imprisoned in a stiff shirt and swallow tailed coat.

SOUTHERN OREGON C. E. CONVENTION SATURDAY, SUNDAY

The Christian Endeavor societies of southern Oregon will meet in convention in the First Christian church of Medford, Saturday and Sunday, May 1st and 2nd. The society of the First Christian church is the only one in Medford, but its members are working hard to make the convention a success. A splendid program has been arranged, beginning at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and closing with the Sunday evening service. Quite a large delegation is expected from Ashland.

Rev. D. E. Millard will lead the song service at each session, and there will also be a special musical number. The Hills Girls quartet will sing, also the male quartet of the First Christian church.

The out of town speakers on the program will be Miss Ruth York, Miss Mary Spencer and Walter Kikische of Ashland, Miss Fay Steinmetz of Portland, Mr. Lloyd Carriek of California and Mr. C. C. Hamilton of Boston. Mr. Carriek and Mr. Hamilton will be the chief convention speakers.

Several social features have been arranged by the young people. At the close of the Saturday morning session, cars will be waiting to carry the members and delegates to Oak Grove, on the Jacksonville road, where a picnic dinner will be served. All attending are asked to bring picnic baskets. The afternoon convention session will be held in the grove. Upon their return to the city, a light luncheon will be served the delegates at the First Christian church, at 6:30 o'clock.

Shoulder and sleeve all in one piece

IN the shoulders—right where the worst strain comes in a work coat—is where Blue Buckle coats have sure protection. They are the only coats on the market with free-swing raglan sleeves.

wear and comfort when you get Blue Buckle coats and overalls.

The toughest, longest-wearing denim—and lots of it—with big, broad, double-stitched seams goes into every pair of Blue Buckles. They don't rip. The brass buttons and buckles don't come off. Every pair is roomy and comfortable, with a solid back-band, reinforced, convenient pockets, extra wide suspenders—and first-class workmanship.

That's why more Blue Buckles are sold than any other brand of overalls.

Ask for Blue Buckles when you buy overalls.

"I've tried a lot of overalls, but of all I've worn, give me Blue Buckles every time. They always give long wear."

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.
