County Superintendent Ager and Superintendents Davenport and Godward, who are the Jackson county managing committee in charge, have issued the following appeal in part to the ministers of the county: "Your attention has undoubtedly been called to the necessity of something being done to aid in relieving the crisis which our schools face at this time. It is not necessary for us to go into this matter fully with you, but many of our people do not know, that education, both elementary and higher, will suffer materially if the two bills, elementary educational bill and higher educational tax act, do not pass at the election on May 21st of this month. Sunday, May 16, has been designated as a day upon which the ministers throughout Oregon should be asked to devote at least a portion of the time for their regular services to an explanation of the two meritorious bills."

REBELS CAPTURE CARRANZA

The revolutionary council formed immediately following yesterday's battle in which seven rebel and federal soldiers were killed and seventeen wounded.

The revolutionaries attacked Nuevo Laredo from the west, south and east just before dawn Sunday. Within less than two hours the attackers had penetrated to the center of the town and federal troops either ceased firing or discharged their guns in the air and surrendered.

The new regime issued orders that no person was to be molested because of previous political affiliations. Many subordinate officials were permitted to retain their positions.

Villa Quits Banditry
JUAREZ, Chihuahua, Mexico, May 10.—Francisco Villa's days of banditry and constant menace to all attempts to establish stable government in Mexico and to the relations between this republic and the United States are ended, according to reports reaching here. Leaders of the new revolution displayed visible relief at the announcement that Villa had laid down his arms and turned his men over to General Ignacio Enriquez, revolutionary commander of the Chihuahua district.

Since the revolution swept out of Sonora with increasing momentum it was reported Villa would seek to remain neutral and settle down on a plantation, and still later that his proffered services to the revolution had been declined. Agents of the new regime admitted that if Villa decided to oppose it he would constitute the greatest menace to it.

The announcement that Villa had laid down his arms and guided his followers into the ranks of the revolutionists came from General J. G. Escobar, commander of Juarez. Villa also notified the Mexican Central railway, Escobar said, that guards of soldiers no longer would be necessary on trains.

FOR SALE

Paint That Costs Nothing

If you intend to offer a house or other building for sale, by all means paint it first. A painted building sells twice as quickly. The higher price you will be able to get will be far more than the cost of painting.

Whatever your job of exterior painting, we recommend and pure linseed oil. For washable, sanitary interior walls and wood-work, use Dutch Boy White-Lead and Dutch Boy Flaming Oil.

DUTCH BOY WHITE-LEAD

Come in and let us give you some point pointers that will save you money.
