

HOW'S YOUR BLOOD? Pimples and Eruptions Mean Bad Blood

People who have impure or impoverished blood should be careful to take only a temperance remedy made of wild roots and barks, such as Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery...

OAKLAND, CALIF.—"A relative was poisoned, her blood turned to water; the doctors gave her up, said she could never be cured. She finally took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and it cured her. I have had six operations, which left me in a nervous state, with loss of sleep and appetite. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets cured me. I gained 30 pounds."—Mrs. Max Frudow, 4024 Sutter Street.

WOMEN AUXILIARY MEDFORD LEGION ELECTS OFFICERS

The Women's Auxiliary to the Medford post of the American Legion held its first meeting at the public library Saturday afternoon and elected the following temporary officers: Mrs. Mary E. Jacobs, president; Mrs. S. L. Leonard, vice-president; Mrs. Norma I. Martin, secretary.

JOHNSON MEETING THURSDAY NIGHT

There will be a Johnson meeting at the city park Thursday night of this week. The speakers will include Judge Rex B. Goodsell, supreme court judge of San Bernardino, California, and James M. Murphy, an American Legioner and overseas man, both of whom took an active part in Johnson's campaign in California. There will be other speakers before the campaign closes according to Paul Turner, travelling Johnson representative who is making his headquarters at the Holland hotel, and the senator himself will be here a few days before the primary.

COUNTY DEBT IS REDUCED, ROAD DRIVE BOOSTED

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce special road campaign committee held two meetings at the Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday. At four in the afternoon, the publicity committee discussed and arranged for literature, newspaper articles and auto wind shield signs. In the evening the speakers branch of the committee arranged for a series of talks throughout the county at the various centers of population and at school houses in the rural districts.

From now on an intensive campaign for the adoption of the five hundred thousand dollar county road bond issue will be carried on. The only opposition to this measure is found in the belief that it would increase taxes. This is not the case. About five or six years ago, Jackson county had a warrant indebtedness of five hundred thousand dollars. The county authorities have been levying a two mill tax every year since then and have now reduced that indebtedness to that of two hundred and forty thousand dollars. There is on hand at the present time the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, which is the two mill assessment collected for the last year and this will be applied on the present indebtedness so that the former half million dollar warrant indebtedness will only be that of one hundred and forty thousand dollars. It is the intention of the county authorities to again levy a two mill tax next year and the following year if necessary to wipe out the total warrant indebtedness. There will be no interest charge on the proposed five hundred thousand dollar road bonds until the old warrants have all been retired. A two mill tax will then be levied the same as now and this will take care of the interest and sinking fund of the road bonds. The facts and figures here presented may be verified by the statement made by E. M. Wilson, expert accountant, who audited the books of the county only recently.

The county road bonds cannot be sold for less than par and it should be understood that unless the state four per cent road bond limitation act is passed, it will be impossible to get state or federal aid to match the money from Jackson county for its roads. It is estimated that no less than nine hundred thousand dollars of state and federal funds will be secured for Jackson county roads, providing that Jackson county spends five hundred thousand dollars of her own money. It is good business policy to get two dollars from other sources for every one dollar of our own that is spent on our roads.

The county commissioners have a definite program of where the entire amount of money is to be spent. It is spread over all portions of the county but none goes on the Pacific Highway as that has been contracted for hard surface for the entire length of the county. The voters of Jackson county are fulfilling a promise made some years ago, which was to the effect that as soon as the main highway thru the county was completed, that lateral roads would be completed. Make good the promise by voting for the bonds.

The County Commissionership From the standpoint of material interests and the progress and development of this country there is no more important position to be filled at the election this year than that of County Commissioner to succeed George W. Owen, whose four year term expires with the year. The county court, composed of the county judge and two commissioners, is the public business agent of all the people and all the taxpayers of the county, and upon it devolves the handling of an immense amount of the people's business, which requires not only carefulness, but courtesy and consideration, for all people and for all sections of the county. The membership of the county court, it would seem should be well distributed geographically, as well as qualified in business capacity and in experience in dealing with the public.

While the candidacy of A. E. Kinney of Ashland before the primary May 21st for the republican nomination for county commissioner, is generally endorsed as representative of the south end, yet his long residence in the county and business interests in Medford as well as Ashland, appeal to all sections. He is a resident of Ashland but his candidacy was suggested from many precincts of the county, for it seems to be generally felt that Mr. Owen's successor should be chosen from southern territory inasmuch as the other members of the county court are from the central and northern portions of the county. Not only this, but from the standpoint of fitness for the position in question, all signs point to Mr. Kinney as the probable choice of the republican primary election. Friends in many positions of the county are enlisting themselves in his behalf.—Adv.

Five Big Improvements

Put the

McCormick No. 6 Mower

In a class by itself

- 1—Flexible arrangement permits raising the cutter bar higher than on other machines without increasing the angle between the pitman and knife.
2—Automatic locking device on the lifting lever engages when the lever is pulled back and disengages when the cam is pushed forward. This does away with all the disadvantages of the detent handle and provides instant action in lowering the cutter bar.
3—New style push bar connected low on the frame and horizontal with the crank shaft, making it possible to work in the heaviest grass or weeds without trouble of the inner wheel raising from the ground.
4—Entirely new method of removing gears and bearings from the fly-wheel shaft and crank shaft without taking down the rest of the machine. It is a matter of only a few minutes to replace gears and bushings when necessary.
5—A pole which can be removed from the machine without disturbing any of the working parts. With the pole removed, it takes very little room for storing.

The Great Results

that come from the Special Steels in a

MAXWELL

There is a double advantage in the use of these special steels in a Maxwell.

tion of great strength combined with light weight.

1.—They eliminate superfluous pounds, lighten the task of the engine, ease the burden on tires, make possible quicker acceleration.

The light weight decreases the burden on the engine and their strength provides endurance.

2.—They add strength which insures endurance, dependability, uninterrupted performance, and infrequent repairs.

They have been important factors in the success of Maxwell the world over, in its ever-increasing friendships, in its great growth.

These special steels make possible the Maxwell construction

Nearly 400,000 Maxwells are now in use. You cannot motor even in a foreign land, without meeting them.
