G. COLLINS PUTS MEDFORD PEP IN KLAMATH FALLS

"Hey! there. Where can we vote for Wiley?" The shout came from a big touring car that came to a stop after leaving a black streak of rubber on the pavement for nearly half a block. A second look disclosed the identity of the owner of the voice. It was none other than George T. Collins, the man who put Mason, Ehrman company on the map in this territory, the chap who did so much for Medford that they all swear by him and none of them at him.

"What's the matter, George, haven't you got any live ones over your way?" he was asked. "That's not the trouble, man. They are so alive over our way that every time you touch them they jump, so we just thought we'd take a run over here, put in a few plugs for Wiley, take in the carnival, say howdy and drop back home."

The "we" referred to were R. H. Doyle, Otto Fouts and Fred Hobbs, all "boys" of the Mason, Ehrman family, and regular Katzenjammer boys, too. With Collins as a leader they let Klamath Falls know that they certainly have a live bunch in Medford. They came over to take in the carnival, not, however, before voting for good roads, good schools and colleges and good citizens. When asked if he had made up his mind to recognize fate and come over to Klamath Falls to live, for that is to be his next move, though he does not know it yet, he replied:

"Couldn't ask to live in a better town, but you know, there's Medford. You can't beat—" That was all we could stand. It was the same old story. Never a knock, but always a boost for Medford. Mr. Collins and his party returned to Medford today.—Klamath Falls Herald.

REV. J. W. ANGELL ELECTED PASTOR PHOENIX CHURCH

A very representative gathering of the members of the First Presbyterian church and congregation of Phoenix assembled in Clyde hall, Tuesday evening and with full and hearty unanimity of action elected Rev. Joseph W. Angell as pastor. From the day his first sermon was delivered to the Phoenix congregation he has grown in popularity and won ever-increasing esteem in the hearts of the people, so that the action taken at last evening's meeting was not unlooked for.

Preceding the business session, one of the far-famed Phoenix suppers was served by the ladies, and everything from a paper napkin to a generous assortment of pies with flaky crusts you read about in the latest accounts of the Epicurean feasts of the wealthy and aristocratic set, merited special mention which the post-war price of paper will not permit. After filling the inner man with the delectable repast, Dr. Booser took charge of the business for which the people were called together to transact. At this juncture Mr. Angell left the hall.

After the presentation of a motion to call him to the pastorate of the church, highly complimentary talks were made by both the men and women present, and all the remarks favored of high appreciation of the man under consideration. When the question was called for, voting was done by ballot and the count showed a completely harmonious desire to consummate the pastoral relationship. A committee was appointed to escort the pastor-elect back to the gathering and this was accomplished in a few minutes. In well chosen remarks, he expressed his high estimate of the valued endorsement of his services as voiced by the people, and to the greatest satisfaction of all accepted the call.

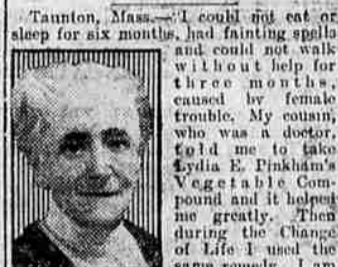

On the coming Sunday the theme for his sermon will be in keeping with Memorial day and special music will be provided.

BEN FRANKLIN'S COIN AIDS PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA—A bequest of $1,000 by Benjamin Franklin to the City of Philadelphia in 1790 to be used after 100 years "to make living in town more convenient and render it more agreeable to strangers," is to be applied by the board of city trusts to the erection of public comfort stations. The bequest now amounts to $60,323 while a similar legacy from John Scott of $3,000 in 1816 has increased to $14,085. The board decided to apply both funds for the purpose stated, upon recommendation of Mayor Moore.

THE BEST ON EARTH

Says Mrs. Staples of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass.—"I could not eat or sleep for six months, had fainting spells and could not walk without help for three months, caused by female trouble. My cousin, who was a doctor, told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me greatly. Then during the Change of Life I used the same remedy. I am seventy years old now and am able to do my own housework and walk one mile to church every Sunday morning and evening. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends having the same troubles as I had. Your remedy is the best on earth. I cannot find words to express my gratitude to it."—Mrs. STEWART C. STAPLES, 157 D School St., Taunton, Mass.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and illness. It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ill, such as displacements, inflammation, and ulceration. Why don't you try it?

ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA ON "HUCKLEBERRY FINN"

"Mark Twain was an outstanding figure for many years as a popular American personality in the world of letters. He is a humorist of a remarkable comic force and of a refreshing fertility. But the books in which his humor is broadly displayed are not really so significant of his power as the three novels of the Mississippi, 'Tom Sawyer,' 'Huckleberry Finn,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson,' wherein we have preserved a vanished civilization, peopled with typical figures, and presented with inexorable veracity. There is no lack of humor in them, and there is never a hint of affection in the writing; indeed, the author was very unconscious that he was making a contribution to history. "But such 'Huckleberry Finn' is beyond all question; it is a story of varied interest, now comic, now almost tragic, frequently poetic, unfailingly truthful. . . . There is not only humor and pathos, character and truth, there is also the largeness of outlook on life such as we find only in the works of the masters."

Huckleberry Finn opens a four-day engagement at the Rialto today.

Billie Burke Makes Hit
Billie Burke is supposed to be the "ugly duckling" who turns out to be the prize of the flock in her new picture. It is called "Wanted—A Husband" and pleased the audience at the Liberty theatre last night.

The early part of the action demonstrated quite conclusively that in the case of Miss Burke, at least, it isn't clothes that make the woman. The titles said she was a slovenly, unattractive wall paper designer living in the Greenwich Village quarter of New York. The surroundings were probably authentic, but you can't dishevel Billie Burke's hair, put her in a frowzy smock and run-down-at-the-heels shoes, and call her homely. She isn't.

Al. St. John, the popular athletic comedian who has ricked his life scores of times to provide film fans with laughs, scored a pronounced hit in his latest comedy, "Ship Ahoy!" which was shown on the same program yesterday. Mr. St. John is seen as a sailor boy who does many remarkable stunts, and there are hearty laughs in every scene. This program
