ments, or the vindication of the rights of Belgium, or the rectification of wrongs done to France, or the release of the Christian populations of the Ottoman empire from the intolerable subjugation which they have had for so many generations to endure, or the establishment of an independent Polish state, or the continued maintenance of any kind of understanding among the great powers of the world which would be calculated to prevent in the future such outrages as Germany attempted, and in part consummated.

Action Inconceivable

"We have now in effect declared that we do not care to take any further risks or to assume any further responsibilities with regard to the freedom of nations or the sacredness of international obligations or the safety of independent peoples. Such a peace with Germany—a peace in which none of the essential interests, which we had at heart when we entered the war, is safeguarded—is, or ought to be, inconceivable, is inconsistent with the dignity of the United States with the rights and liberties of her citizens and with the very fundamental conditions of civilization.

ELSIE FERGUSON AT THE LIBERTY PINERO PLAY

The new picture, "His House in Order," in which Elsie Ferguson will appear at the Liberty Theatre tomorrow and Saturday, was adapted from the play of the famous English playwright, Sir Arthur Wing Pinero. The screen version retains all of the dramatic flavor that made the play famous.

The play was first produced at the St. James Theatre, London, February 1, 1906, with Sir George Alexander in the role of Jesson. In September of the same year Charles Frohman produced it at the Empire Theatre at New York, with John Drew and Margaret Livingston in the leading roles. There it played nearly an entire year to capacity audiences.

"His House in Order" has for its theme the marital difficulties of Nina Graham (Elsie Ferguson) and Filmer Jesson.
