Ye Smudge Pot

By Arthur Perry

The Medford citizen who paid $9.25 for the board of a horse for one day better make beef out of the equine.

"This is a world made over money" remarked ex-President Taft in an address Monday, and the plump cent could have added much. The world is not particularly "mad about money," it is nutty about it.

Denmark has refused to accept a mandate over Danzig—a province in her own backyard. She might be induced to accept one over Mexico—which is as far away as Armenia from the United States.

Oh! the mystifying majesty of the law! The supreme court has rendered a decision that the income tax is illegal for the supreme court.

So far in this campaign nobody has showed up as a "second Abe Lincoln." In a pinch Mr. McAdoo, the president's son-in-law, might crop out as a Tad Lincoln.

The republican party hit itself a lick behind the ear Wednesday pm, by ordering that all women in the convention hall wear little white hats a la salons. These white hats offer absolutely no protection from wind, rain, or sun, and the uncalculated restriction of finery will show up when the votes are counted. The sob slogan of democracy will be: He Kept Our Hats On.

Edd Brown who was bungled up automatically 3 weeks ago, is waltzing around with a cane, and cracking shins therewith.

Jock Aitken spent all morning sharpening up his skinning knife for Elks, who lack enough ambition to lodge tonight and see their brothers cavort before a movie-camera. There will not be much hide peeling as Kernel Tengwald gets thrown in the river.

May Flirt is a waitress at Chico, Cal. Now if she has a brother by the name of Will.

The war department has issued a statement that there was not sufficient 2nd rates during the war. Good Lord! how many did they want.

RESOLUTE VICTORY IN TEST RACE

NEWPORT, R. I., June 3.—The Resolute won a test race from the Vanitie today by four minutes and 22 seconds elapsed time and by six minutes and eight seconds corrected time. The race was sailed over a windward and leeward course, the Resolute leading from start to finish.

"DANDERINE"

Stops Hair Coming Out; Doubles Its Beauty.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

LOWDEN REPUDIATES TWO DELEGATES

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 3.—Nathaniel Goldstein and Robert E. Moore, district delegates to the republican national convention from Missouri, whose support was repudiated in a formal statement by Governor Frank O. Lowden last night, on their arrival here from Washington today announced they "most certainly would attend the convention."

WALLY REID ON LIBERTY OFFERING

In "Excuse My Dust," the picture at the Liberty theatre now playing, Wallace Reid has a vehicle that exactly suits his breezy personality. It is an automobile racing story involving the same characters that took part in "The Roaring Road," the star's former success along the same lines. Like its predecessor "Excuse My Dust" was adapted from a magazine story by Byron Morgan.

Wallace Reid is "Toodles" Walden, manager of the "Darcos" auto agency. His is forbidden by the president of the concern and his father-in-law, J. D. Ward, delightfully portrayed by Theodore Roberts, to race. But the "Fargot" people, their bitter rivals, in an effort to learn the construction of the "Darcos" new motor, a close guarded secret, issues a challenge to a road race from Los Angeles to San Francisco that "Toodles" cannot resist. In the race he is fouled viciously by the "Fargot" drivers, but by a clever ruse allows J. D. Ward to roar through and win.

There is a lot more to it than that, including the delightful romance and the straightening out of the laughable marital difficulties of Mr. and Mrs. "Toodles," the latter role being played by Ann Little. Tully Marshall and Guy Oliver are also in the cast.

Helped Man and Wife

Walter Farrand, 1023 Springfield Ave., Irvington, N. J., writes: "My back ached continuously, as did my wife's." After taking Foley Kidney Pills, we were surprised with the quick results. I recommend Foley Kidney Pills to any one who has kidney or bladder trouble." They help rid the blood of impurities that cause rheumatic pains, swollen, aching and stiff joints and muscles and other symptoms of kidney trouble. For sale by Medford Pharmacy. Adv.
