

ILLINOIS CLUB TO MEET AND MINGLE JULY 17

ASHLAND, June 9.—"Resurgam" is a Sucker motto evidently. Some time ago an effort was made to create interest in another reunion of the Illinois society, but without much effect. However, the gathering is to occur just the same, the date will be Thursday, June 17. The afternoon hours will be devoted to a social picnic, the refreshments to be spread at 6 o'clock. Remember this event is not merely a local affair, but territory includes southern Oregon, hence representation is invited and expected from throughout the valley. Of course the event will take place in the Ashland parks. Considering that it is a valley demonstration, the attendance ought to be large, including Illinois folks from Grants Pass to the California line. In June our scenery is at its finest.

T. H. Simpson has been appointed as a member of the county court, to fill out the unexpired term of the late George Owen, that date being Dec. 31, 1920. He will afford sound business judgment in expediting the affairs of that office.

Progressive features municipally are the order of the day at Talent. A recent one was an entertainment tendered the elderly ladies by the young ladies of the Community club, a luncheon also being served.

Increase in jitney passenger traffic on the Ashland-Klamath Falls line, has warranted C. B. Howard in extending facilities to the extent of installing a Reo bus, the capacity of which will accommodate a dozen or more. The mail service on this line is also proving a notable accommodation, being way ahead of railway schedules.

Funeral services of the late Mrs. Martha L. Gillette, who died at her home in this city last Saturday, were held in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon. Interment was in Ashland cemetery. This mother in Israel was one of the pioneers of Jackson county, and as such, met every emergency with the patience and fortitude of those early settlers who paved the way to conditions as at present existing. She was one of the trio of Hill sisters the remaining two being Mrs. Mary Dunn and Mrs. Ann Russell. Not only to her children, but to a host of relatives and friends her name is a benediction as typifying maternal affection, Christian fortitude, and fervency of zeal as applied to each and every responsibility. Consequently many friends as well as relatives rise up to call her memory blessed. Of her six children, Charles, George, Hugh, and Mrs. G. F. McConnell reside in this city, Mrs. Leslie Merrick in Los Angeles, and Edward in eastern Oregon. Mrs. Gillette was 86 years of age, and was the eldest of the three sisters.

May weather was noted for little rainfall, only .81 of an inch, also for a cool snap, when a heavy frost occurred. The highest temperature was 85 on the 7th, and the lowest, 28 on the 25th.

Arrangements for the Fourth of July celebration grow apace. Along music lines of the martial order, the Montague band of 34 pieces will probably be secured, reinforcing the Ashland-Medford aggregation. The management also reports that Sam Sandry, of Gold Hill, is ready to enter a rock-drilling contest as a reminder of the old mining days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gow, familiar names among local residents, have again returned to Ashland after another extended stay in California.

J. H. Fuller now presides as secretary in the Commercial club offices. Lynn Mowat, ex-secretary has gone north and will probably occupy a position in Portland.

The Commercial Club will meet on Thursday night, this week, the session to be a notable one, inasmuch as it will mark the opening of the initial movement of the organization's activities under new auspices. Every member is urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Loosley will be over in Siskiyou county during the summer months, called there by business interests.

SESSION SPARED ORATORY; LODGE MADE CHAIRMAN

CHICAGO, June 9.—While committees continued to print away at organization preliminaries the republican national convention went through the motions of a second day's session.

Delegates assembled at the Coliseum with their views as to who shall lead the party at the polls next November still a mystery, even to themselves.

The convention escaped a second keynote speech by the selection of Senator Lodge as permanent chairman, thus following the plan of 1912 and 1916 of making the temporary organization permanent.

Today's business consisted of hearing a report of progress from the committee framing a platform and a report from the credentials committee which makes up the permanent roll.

Missouri got back her two lost delegates, thru last night's action of the credentials committee which reversed the national committee's decision that conditions in the electorate in Kansas City were so bad it would not seat any of the delegates. That restored the total number of delegates in the convention to 984 and the number necessary for a nomination to 492.

The overturning of the national committee's decision in the Tennessee contest also came as a surprise. Robert R. Church of Memphis, reputed to be one of the wealthiest and most influential negroes in the south, had been seated by the national committee after a straight out black and white fight in which the whites charged that the negroes had bolted the convention. Church, said to favor Lowden, was seated by the national committee, and had the backing of many prominent members in his fight. The credentials committee threw him out. The white contestants appealed to the committee to take the republican organization in Memphis "out of the hands of negro domination."

Mr. Lemmon has had wide experience in growing, packing and shipping apples and pears and in general horticultural field work. He owns an orchard at Hood River and spent altogether, eight years there, growing fruit, working for the Peters Packing Co., and operating the Hood River Produce Co.

After more than a year in service during the war, Mr. Lemmon became assistant manager for the Pacific Fruit and Produce company at Wenatchee and Kamswick and later field manager for the Perham Fruit company at Yakima.

J. H. Frazier of Portland has accepted the position of traffic manager and assistant sales manager for the Oregon Growers Cooperative association in the Medford and Grants Pass districts.

Mr. Frazier served as traffic manager and assistant sales manager for the Pacific Fruit and Produce company, for four years being located at Calgary, Portland and Yakima. Since last October, Mr. Frazier has filled a similar position with the J. S. Slater company at Yakima.

C. C. Lemmon of Yakima, Wash., has been secured as manager for the Oregon Growers Cooperative association in the Medford and Grants Pass districts.

DOROTHY DALTON LIBERTY PROGRAM

A photoplay that is remarkable for its unusual character and for the skillful performance of Dorothy Dalton in two vividly contrasted roles as on view at the Liberty theatre for two more days. It is "The Dark Mirror" produced by Thomas H. Ince from Louis Joseph Vance's popular novel of the same name.

The story involves New York's "upper ten" and also the worst haunts of the underworld. The picture is an ideal vehicle for Miss Dalton, giving her ample opportunity to display her emotional prowess. Huntley Gordon, who recently played opposite Ince's Castle in "The Invisible Bond," is all that one could wish as Doctor Fossdick, the hero.

A Paramount Magazine and Christie Comedy, "All Laughed Up" adds to the program.

CURWOOD FILM IS RIALTO FEATURE

A big spectacular production, "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," from the famous story by James Oliver Curwood, will be shown at the Rialto theater for the remainder of the week beginning today. It is one of the most thrilling and instructive productions ever shown at this theater. An all-star cast of well-known popular players made the feature during a raging blizzard in the Rocky mountains. These players fought their way over the snow covered peaks, braving dangers and hardships in order to get into a territory as yet unexplored by man. For weeks they lived like the primitive beings found in the great open spaces.

Ray McAdams' dramatic portrayal of the character of Marita at the Page tomorrow night, is an artistic bit not to be missed. "Marita" is the work of Walter McAdams and has been successfully played on eastern big time. Milton Schuehard as Sanchez is Mrs. McAdams' able support.

Francis Montgomery, who, as El-teza Gargoyle in eccentric comedy, uses the original song "Marie Queen," also wrote the musical sketch which closes the bill. The theatre lobby displays a pastel sketch from life, of Rowena Gael, the enticing little Hawaiian dancer who comes to Medford for one night only.

At 8:30 when the curtain rises and Mummy's Jazz Kids greet you with "some jazz," you'll know the show has started, but let us quote from the latest theatrical news: "Neither Isadora St. Denis, in her most interpretive mood, nor Gertrude Paroloha soaring to the very heights of her terpsichorean tenacity, ever reached the pinnacle of artistic expression occupied by those two exquisite bits of breathing distilled down, the Gloyd-Rose sisters"—but there, we've all but divulged our big surprise.

Attend the vaudeville tomorrow night and we'll say you have never seen anything like it before.

HAY, $50 TON IN GRASS VALLEY, CAL.

GRASS VALLEY, Cal., June 9.—The stories of $50 per ton hay which pioneers of the very early days here have been wont for seventy years to amaze, their auditors, now are matched by fact, as hay has again touched the $50 mark. Since October of last year the retail price of hay has exactly doubled on the local market.

says the Good Judge

The man who used to chew the old kinds will tell you that it costs him less to use the Real Tobacco Chew.

The rich tobacco taste lasts so much longer. Smaller chews, and you don't need a fresh chew so often.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
