

Local Briefs

The Red Cross charity ball to be given at the Nat tonight will be a large and brilliant social affair. Both halls will be used and delegations from all over the county will attend. The proceeds of the dance will go to Jackson county charities exclusively.

Live Japanese gold fish 25c to $2.75. Jap Art Store.

Invest your savings in the Jackson County Building and Loan association.

Kids get busy and gather up the old socks. We buy them. Monarch Seed Co. and Russ Mill.

Open evenings until 8:30. Edgar Wight the Jeweler.

Read Jones' ad today.

The schools of the city closed this afternoon for the holidays vacation and will not resume sessions until January 3rd. Closing Christmas exercises were held in a number of the grade rooms, and the high school assembly this afternoon was a special affair of a Christmas nature.

Baby Angora rabbits for sale. Bliss Heine, 916 W. Tenth street, Medford.

Big Xmas ball at Central Point.

Pure sugar candy 25c pound at Jones'.

Telephone 78-L for complete protection against Burglary and Theft.

The public market will be open next Friday and of course will be closed all day Christmas day. There were many sales of Christmas trees and wreaths and Oregon grape at today's market, which had a fine supply of beef and pork.

Between friends—a photograph. Get them of Mackey, Main and Central, 204, upstairs.

The Japanese Art Store will be open every evening until 10 o'clock this week.

Big Xmas ball at Central Point.

Read Jones' ad today.

The public schools sold altogether $230 worth of Red Cross Christmas seals, and Lincoln school won the cup offered for the school selling the most seals by disposing of $100.49 worth. Washington school was second with a sale of $90, and was awarded a large picture of Crater Lake.

"Oh, Boy! I'm going! Where? Central Point! When? Xmas night!"

Our wood is going rapidly at the following prices: 12 and 16 inch body pine $3.00 and $3.50 a tier. Wiseman & Scheffel, phone 242.

Visit the Christmas Candle shop. Rag dolls. 206 Phipps building. Genuine all wool army blankets. $4.75. 103 North Central.

Burglary insurance costs little. R. A. Holmes "The insurance Man."

Captain O. C. Applegate, the well known southern Oregon pioneer and Indian fighter arrived in the city Tuesday from his home at Klamath Falls, to visit relatives hereabouts during the holiday season. Other guests at the Nash yesterday and this morning were Delbert Pyle of San Francisco, Mrs. F. Brown of Portland and Milan Jones of Seattle.

Your friends will be there! Where? Central Point! When? Xmas night!

Our slab wood is going rapidly at the following prices: 12 and 16-inch $3.00 and $3.50 a tier. Wiseman & Scheffel, phone 242.

Delco-Light—Electricity for every farm. Medford Electric Co.

Read Jones' ad today.

The Medford stores still have large stocks of holiday goods and are offering them at the lowest possible prices. Christmas shopping is on in full blast. Some of the stores are open evenings.

The new Packard Six surpassed all expectations, and is now on exhibition afternoon and evenings at our show rooms on North Grape St. Seely V. Hall Motor Co.

Pure sugar candy 25c pound at Jones'.

Mill blocks $3.00 a tier, $5.00 a cord—we have very little left. Wiseman & Scheffel, phone 242.

Hand-painted china for sale. Mrs. F. W. Scheffel, 153 N. Oakdale.

Bert R. Greer will leave tomorrow for Burbank, Calif., where his family is now located. At the December meeting of the board of directors of the Ashland Printing company, Mr. Greer tendered his resignation as manager of the Ashland Tidings and George Coffee was elected to take his place. There will be no change in the general policies of the paper.—Ashland Tidings.

The new Packard Six surpasses all expectations, and is now on exhibition afternoon and evenings at our show rooms on North Grape street. Seely V. Hall Motor Co.

Majestic music at Central Point Xmas night.

Xmas prizes galore at Central Point Xmas night.

President W. J. Kerr of the O. A. C., who addressed the chamber of commerce luncheon this noon and the high school assembly this afternoon arrived in the city from Corvallis on this morning's train and is a guest at the Medford during his stay in the city.

Save money by ordering your tree tanglefoot before January 1, 1921. Farm Bureau Co-operative Exchange.

Sugar 11c a lb., $10.00 a sack; Compound one-half gallon 31.00; lard one-half gallon 41.25. Potatoes $2.00 per hundred pounds. Flour $2.50 a sack. Hannah or Huston sorghum 15c per pound. Hutchinson & Lumsden.

The expectations for a white Christmas aroused yesterday afternoon when snow began to fall at 2 o'clock were short lived, as inside of a half hour the snow had turned to rain. The precipitation of Tuesday and up to 10 a. m. today was .25 of an inch. Rain is the prediction for tonight and Thursday.

Get house slippers for Xmas presents. Will give $1.00 reduction on new shoes all this week. Open until 8:00 p. m. at the Medford Shoe Hospital, 119 East Sixth street.

Give something useful this Xmas—something electrical. Medford Electric Co.

How to solve the gift problem? Visit the Jap Art Store.

A lull has come in the epidemic of whooping cough which has been prevalent among the boys and girls of the city all winter, and there is a falling off in the cases. A helpful peculiarity of the disease is that it is exceedingly mild.

Pure sugar candy 25c pound at Jones'.

Insurance our only business. "Holmes the insurance Man."

Have you seen the latest in floor lamps—wrought iron with parchment shades? Medford Electric Co.

Hemstitching and pecking. Handicraft Shop.

Dr. J. E. Helms and Jack Moran made a trip to Montague, Cal., Tuesday by auto, and report a heavy snow fall in the Siskiyou on their return trip.

Good wheat $2.75 per hundred. Farm Bureau Co-operative Exchange.

Dance for charity Dec. 22, Natatorium. Red Cross benefit ball.

A delayed shipment of Christmas novelties just received at Handicraft Shop.

Oregonians registered at the Medford include John C. Almack, S. A. Danford and Harry R. Hogue of Eugene, and the following from Portland: O. R. Wiley, J. Fisher, E. W. Quigley, Mrs. M. Kibbe, D. W. Craven, F. B. Waite and F. W. Peters.

A nice box of fancy stationary makes a dandy Xmas present. Get it at Jones'.

See our lovely ribbon novelties before buying your last minute gifts. Handicraft Shop.

Among poultry feeds you will always find Kerr's egg mash and Golden Rod egg mash at the top. Buy them at Farm Bureau Co-operative Exchange.

At the Christmas assembly of the high school this afternoon, which began at 3 o'clock, the girls glee club of the high school sang selections, there were other musical numbers, an address was given by President Kerr of the O. A. C. and it was expected that several alumni members would give short talks.

Jones' special Xmas candy at 25c is a dandy—why pay 40c for same?

Delco-Light farm light and power plants. Medford Electric Co.

Farm Bureau scratch. Kerr's egg mash or Golden Rod egg mash and southern Oregon climate make the poultry business profitable. Farm Bureau Co-operative Exchange.

In accordance with a custom of many years, the Economy market this morning began its annual hog weight guessing contest, free for all and none barred. The first prize will be a turkey, the second prize a 10-pound pork roast, third prize a mutton roast. The only stipulations attached to the contest is to write your estimate of the heft of the hog on a piece of paper. The hog, which has been specially fattened for this occasion, is now on display at the Economy market on East Main street.

Beautiful nosegays for fur, muffs and evening dresses. Handicraft Shop.

Dance for charity Dec. 22, Natatorium. Red Cross benefit ball.

Read Jones' ad today.

Are you having trouble in getting your chickens to lay? Buy a sack of Egg Producer from the Monarch Seed Co., this mash is a scientifically prepared mash balanced properly and containing the necessary nutrients to make eggs and care for a chicken's body and organs as they should be cared for. Straw is one thing essential—make your birds work for their feed. Phone 260.

One hundred sacks of Christmas mail arrived in the city Tuesday and about 150 sacks were expected to arrive today, of which 45 sacks came on this morning's trains from both directions. These are busy days at the postoffice as the outgoing Christmas business is correspondingly as large. Dainty little ribbon gifts for baby.

Miss Julia Fielder leaves tonight for Portland where she will be the guest of Miss Foster during the holidays.

Get your Xmas mixed candy at Jones', only 25c pound.

Get your Xmas stationary at Jones' priced about 1/4 what others ask.

Clozier raisins only 35c pound at Handicraft Shop.

Miss Kathryn Dunham will spend the holidays with her brother in North Bend.

Jones' fancy stationary is priced way below the others. Come in and see.

Everything electrical. Medford Electric Co. Phone 661.

Dance for charity Dec. 22, Natatorium. Red Cross benefit ball.

A son was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Russell at the Sacred Heart hospital. Mrs. Russell was Mercedes Barber, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Barber.

Any one of the family will appreciate a fountain pen. A large stock to select from, all styles and prices. Medford Pharmacy, Main and Central.

There's now $100. People's Electric Store.

YOU CAN GET MOST ANY OLD THING AT MOST ANY OLD TIME AT DE VOE'S

RIALTO

Begins TODAY

and

Plays Thru the Week

This play is still a greater triumph for the author who thrilled you with his "Back to God's Country"—another wonderful Northland story of love and romance in the Northwest Canadian forests. We are telling you now that there isn't one flaw in the entire picture.

MARY CONNISTON

DERWENT CONNISTON

CHIEF McDOWELL

JOHN KEITH

SHAN TUNG

KERAM KIRKSTONE

Marshal Neilan
presents
The River's End
by
James Oliver Curwood

The story swings into quick action right from the start; keeps one guessing vainly as to what is coming next and never falters in its stride.

NO ADVANCE IN PRICES

COMING
SUNDAY
Constance
Talmadge

in
"Good References"

ALSO OTHER GOOD PICTORIAL NUMBERS AND JANICE BUTLER AT THE ORGAN

Gifts That Last
Correctly Priced

Martin G. Reddy
SOUTHERN OREGON LEADING JEWELER