The Screen

A Great Farce The fame of "Officer 666" has echoed to the four corners of the continent. Fans everywhere know it as the farce that shook Broadway with gales of laughter and made a whirlwind on the road.

Here it is as a photoplay, now playing at the Page theatre, with the sunny Tom Moore in the star part, and a cast of comedians that could not be excelled. In the screen version the sharp corners of the play have been rounded off, scenes have been inserted that could not be shown on the stage, and the action zips along without the slightest hint of a break.

How Much Do You Know?

Answers to Yesterday's Questions 1—Who was Attila? Ans. He was a king of the Huns and reigned from 434 to 453. He was a maker of war and was known during his time as the "Scourge of God."

2—How are caterpillars protected from their enemies? Ans. Some caterpillars are covered with stiff hairs which make them disagreeable to swallow. Others by reason of secretions have an undesirable taste and odor.

3—In what way are flies useful? Ans. Flies are useful as scavengers.

Now Is the Time to Buy Real Estate and Then Is the Time You'll Be Glad You Did.

Each year finds property increasing in value. The four per cent that your money is earning is not doing you the financial benefit that you would receive from a property investment of the right sort.

What is muscle?

Ans. Muscle is an animal tissue endowed with the power of contraction. It is the part called flesh or lean meat in the higher animals.

8—How much of the earth's surface does the Pacific ocean cover? Ans. It covers about one-third of the earth's surface.

9—What is the passover? Ans. It is an annual feast of the Jews.

10—What are hieroglyphics? Ans. A name given to various kinds of picture writing, but chiefly to that of ancient Egyptians.

SAMS VALLEY

The death of Mrs. Ellen Edington last Monday morning came as a sad surprise to the community, few having known of her short illness. Grandma, as she was known most commonly, was much loved and respected for her true sincerity and patient endurance. Though she had been failing for some time her ambition and desire to spare those around her gave her strength to rally many times when loved ones had despaired of her recovery.

In spite of our pleasant spring-like weather an epidemic of bad colds and sore throats seems to be prevalent throughout the valley.

Word received from Mr. and Mrs. Straus who are visiting in Portland, Seattle and Spokane states they expect to be back in a week or at least in time to celebrate Christmas with the kiddies at home.

Several of our Sams Valley people were interviewing Santa at Medford last week.

Many comments are being made on the unusually light Christmas shopping attributing the cause to Santa still holding to the war time prices in spite of the strong decline in the producers market.

The funeral services of Grandma Edington were held Wednesday morning at the home, Rev. Miller officiating. A large crowd attended both the services and burial at the Central Point cemetery.

Preparations for an interesting Christmas entertainment by the school and community are progressing nicely. The program will be given Thursday evening at the Wilhite hall.

Mrs. Morrison who recently underwent a serious operation in Medford is improving rapidly.

The time of year is now here when little hearts beat fast and larger eyes grow bright, but when their elders are too engrossed to even appreciate their childish enthusiasm. For many of us are becoming each year to look upon Christmas as the time of year to worry over the problems of gift giving, forgetting that the true Christmas spirit lies not in receiving or giving expensive gifts, but in extending to those around us the unselfish love and sympathy that comes from Him whose birth we now celebrate.
