Mr. and Mrs. C. C. French and Major French, whose fine country home burned down early Christmas morning will make their home at the Medford, at which hotel they arrived weary and bedraggled at 4 a. m. Christmas morning with only a change of clothing they had saved from the flames. Major French said today that they would rebuild in the early spring, as they were in love with the location and neighborhood. The insurance will not half cover the loss, he declares. The major happened to save one suit of clothes, which were being cleaned at a Medford establishment. Mrs. C. C. French who was prostrated for some time after the fire is now thoroughly recovered and with her husband visited the scene of the fire this forenoon.

CALIFORNIA AND OHIO STATE START INTENSIVE PLAY

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 27.—Hard snappy practice with teammates arrayed against teammates, and with coaches arrayed against all, was on the program today for the members of the football squads from Ohio State university and the University of California here preparing for the annual east vs. west contest at Tournament park New Year's day.

After two days of rest, Christmas and Sunday, the teams had vigorous workouts this afternoon to try out their wind and endurance under the different conditions of climate and field confronting them here. The weather was clear and cool.

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 27.—When the Ohio state football players—undefeated champions of the Western Conference—dig their toes in the gridiron here New Year's day against the University of California team-champions of the west—Ohio will have a slight advantage in the weight problem.

The team average of the Buckeyes is 182 pounds as against a 176 pound average for the Californians. In the line, the average weight of the Ohioans is 182 pounds while the average of the California forward wall is 183 pounds. The backfield of the Buckeyes also is the heavier, the combined weight totaling 527 pounds. The total weight of the California backfield trio is an even 500 pounds.

California will not have a player in the game weighing above the 190 mark, while Ohio will start two players scaling above that figure and two others tipping the beam at exactly 190 pounds. Willaman, the plunging fullback of the Buckeyes, scales 205 pounds, and Nemecek, at center, weighs 203 pounds. Trott and Spiers, two linemen, are 190 pounders. "Pete" Stinecomb, the sensational half back, is the lightest player on the Ohio squad—scaling only 152 pounds.

The weight of the California backfield is more evenly distributed than that of the Ohioans. Morrison, the fullback, is the heaviest of the trio, weighing 175 pounds. Spott at left half weighs 167, and Toomey at right half balances the beam at 158 pounds. Erb, the quarterback, is the lightest player on the California eleven. He weighs only 143 pounds.

Here is the "tape" and other statistics on the rival players:

Table with columns: Name, Age, Hght., Wght., Pos. California players: Berkeley, Dean, Majors, Latham, Craumer, McMillan, Muller, Erb, Spott, Toomey, Morrison.

Table with columns: Name, Age, Hght., Wght., Pos. Ohio State players: Slyker, Huffman, J. Taylor, Nemecek, Trott, Spiers, Myers, Workman, Stinecomb, Blair, Willaman.
