ELK CREEK

Everyone had an exceptionally good time at the program and Christmas tree at Trail Christmas eve. The all school gave the program while all help in the tree. Everyone received a sack of candy and nuts. A large crowd attended and the program was very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hutchinson spent Christmas in Ashland with her mother, Mrs. W. B. Holmes. Mr. and Mrs. Newton Ward returned with them Sunday for several weeks visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Blass are visiting her mother, Mrs. Zimmerly during the holidays. They spent Monday visiting with Mr. and Mrs.
S. W. Hutchinson.

Mrs. M. E. Middlebush and Enid and Denzil Middlebush and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. and Keva Hutchinson took Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stewart.

Mr. Keva Hutchinson spent Christmas with folks returning Sunday.
Oscar and Will Stewart rode after cattle today across Rogue river.

Miss Given Houston is home from Central Point where she is attending school, for the holidays.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

The last time I wrote for the Medford Mail Tribune was on Christmas day and when I had written what I thought would make about a column in print all I had at that time quite a number of items that I had collected that I thought would keep until today, Wednesday.

Among the items kept over was the one where Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith who are living on the old J. B. Jackson place gave a Christmas dinner and had a reunion of the Haley family among whom were Mr. and Mrs.
P. W. Haley, Mr. J. appeal Perry Haley and Miss Ruth, the Mr.
Nick Young and Jody clear, William Perry, Milton with all legal. They not only had a dinner, after a very pleasant time several years. The

At the highest bidder of the decal arrangement and Mrs. George H. Stowell, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Smith, Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mr. Stowell. We also had Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lindas and Miss Anna and Master Leonard Lindas of Medford.
Mr. Lindas is one of the Medford attorneys and was out here last summer to dinner one Sunday.

There were no special Christmas reunions here of any other families as the weather was so moist and the roads so sloppy that it was a great undertaking for anyone to even try to get out from home. Christmas eve Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harnish gave a supper and had S. H. Harnish, his son Robert and wife and daughter, Mrs.
Fred Dutton.

Miss Fallidine of New York, Jackson county nurse, Miss Florence E.
Pool, home demonstration agent, Miss Witzner, high school librarian and Miss Martha E. Potter, the Derby teacher all spent the Christmas holiday with Miss Potter's sister, on the C. L. Farrar farm in the Lake Creek district, and Miss Potter spent Sunday night at the Sunnyside and went up to her school Monday morning on the Butte Falls stage.

Arthur Ellison of Portland, went up to Butte Falls Saturday to join in a partial reunion of the Tungate family. He is a brother-in-law of Mr.
Ira Tungate of Butte Falls.

Steve McAllister of Lake Creek was a passenger Monday morning on the Lake Creek stage.

Mr. Henley who is living on the place formerly known as the Abger place was doing business here Monday. He left here some five years ago and went up north but has returned and may settle here permanently.

Thos. F. Nichols was also a business caller and reports that owing to the continuous rains that they have had to suspend work on the ditch which, he, his sister Miss Ruth, and J. H. French are having made, until the weather settles.

W. E. Hamill and his brother-in-law, Marshal Minter, passed thru town Monday morning on their way to Central Point where they were going after 20 head of ewes Mr.
Hamill had bought. Mr. Hamill while talking about sheep, cows and hogs related that he had just killed an eleven month old pig that weighed after he was dressed 304 pounds.
It was a motherless pig and was raised on the bottle—another argument in favor of prohibition—use the bottle for pigs and not for men.

Mr. McMartin who has been looking after Wm. Lewis' sheep north of here spent Sunday night here and went out to Central Point Monday morning on the Lewis line.

Geo. H. and his brother, Pearl Stowell came in Monday morning and brought in five cases of eggs and 30 gallons of cream, and George remained and went into Medford with Mr. Johnson, who came out for the eggs for the Farm Bureau.

Nick Young and Wm. Merrill were among the diners at the Sunnyside Monday.

Lawrence Conger came in Tuesday morning took the jitney and went to Medford, returning the same forenoon.

L. D. Fry of Phoenix, F. J. Fry and W. D. Stillman of Medford, were here Tuesday and took dinner at the Sunnyside, and Mrs. Wm. Perry and her sister, Mrs. Leroy Smith also spent the day visiting the Howlett family; that includes me.

Thos. Cingcade who has been hauling the lumber from the depot for the new hatchery to be built on the Haak farm, reports that it is all hailed.

One of the Medford trucks came out Tuesday loaded for some of our merchants and our blacksmith. The driver scattered his load leaving a little for T. E. Nichols, quite a lot for Geo. Brown and Sons and some for Wm. Von der Hellen hardware store and the rest for W. L. Childreth the blacksmith.

R. E. Moore who is farming the farm on Antelope creek belonging to George Brown and Sons was transacting business here Tuesday with the firm.

John H. Simon and Arthur Ellison went out to Medford on the stage Tuesday afternoon.

Polk Smith and wife, Mrs. Sherman Wooley and two children, Dave Smith and family and John Smith who have been off spending the holidays among relatives have all returned and are settling down to business again.

Tuesday evening Miss Florence E. Pool, our home demonstrator and C. C. Cate, county pathologist, C. J.
Bremann and F. E. Hollibaugh called for supper. They had an engagement to have a meeting here Tuesday evening in the interest of the Farm Bureau. Carl Brommer is the representative of the Farm Bureau and is supposed to be the principle speaker and Mr. Hollibaugh is a visitor. Their object seems to be to enlist the entire community in the Farm Bureau movement. Owing to the night being so dark and disagreeable your Eagle Point correspondent failed to attend and hear the lectures and I am informed that there were but very few in attendance, as the roads are so bad outside of the Medford-Eagle Point road that it is hardly safe for anyone to venture out with a car and worse still to try to go with wagon or horseback. No doubt if the weather had been pleasant and the roads passable there would have been a good attendance for the entire community is becoming greatly interested in the movement and many of our farmers are already taking advantage of the offers made, for I see that our principle poultry raisers are shipping their eggs to Portland and San Francisco through that organization. I would have been glad to have been able to have attended and reported what was done, but perhaps Mr. Cate or some one of the others will report to some of the local reporters for the Mail Tribune.

In addition to those already mentioned as being here we had Buel Hil-dreich, C. H. Natwick and son Carlyle, and L. H. Hanson of Los Angeles, another agate hunter, here overnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Boyer and Geo.
McDonald came out on the stage this morning and Mr. and Mrs. Boyer went out to Derby on the stage. I did not learn their destination.

A. J. Moen, husband of the Reese brook school teacher, Wm. Merroll, H. F. Buchter and Wm. Stinson of Medford who are in the employe of the Eagle Point Co., were here today for dinner. Messrs. Buchter and Stinson came out to connect up the home of Mrs. Middelstede to the main line.

recorded in Volume 13 of the Chattel Mortgage Records of Jackson County, Oregon, at pages 369 to 371, inclusive, under date of November 10th, 1920, said mortgage having been given to secure the payment of
