

HARDING OPPOSES ALL FRILLS FOR HIS INAUGURAL

INAUGURAL CEREMONY PLANS ABANDONED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—President-elect Harding will take the oath of office in the senate chamber and all outside ceremonies planned at the capitol and elsewhere will be abandoned, according to a decision reached today by the joint congressional inaugural committee.

After considering Senator Harding's request for a simple inaugural, the congressional committee cancelled plans for outside ceremonies at the capitol, for a large reviewing stand and for official invitations.

Many expensive and magnificent gowns ordered weeks ago by women for the inaugural ball, soon may be dumped upon the bargain counters of Washington as a result of cancelled orders.

Florists, it was said, also expected the loss of hundreds of orders, actual and prospective.

MARION, O., Jan. 11.—If President-elect Harding has his way, the inauguration of March 4, next, will be as devoid of frills as a frontier wedding. Having overruled plans for revival of the inaugural ball and a spectacular inaugural parade he indicated today that so far as he consistently could he would keep away from whatever crowds assembled in Washington for the event and make the change of administrations just a matter of taking the executive offices under new administration after administering the oath of office within the capitol itself.

The time-honored custom of delivering an inaugural address which has been observed since the formation of the republic is to be retained as a part of the day's ceremonies, but it is considered likely here that it will be very brief and couched in general terms.

Mr. Harding asked that not a cent of money be spent on his induction into office. How far the inaugural officials and public will let Mr. Harding have his way remains to be seen.

It is considered certain here that the inaugural ball which went out of the program when Woodrow Wilson first took office, will not come back this year. To prevent a street parade in honor of the new president may be more difficult.

William Hale Thompson, mayor of Chicago and the center of a bitter controversy within republican ranks during the last campaign, was among President-elect Harding's callers today.

PIONEER ASHLAND WOMAN PASSES TO HER REWARD

ASHLAND, Jan. 11.—Another pioneer woman has gone to her reward in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth N. Anderson, wife of the late E. K. Anderson who passed away in Ashland, Jan. 7, in the ninetieth year of her age, two decades longer than the scriptural allotment of the three-score-and-ten. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Myer, and she was born near Wellsville, Ohio, Oct. 30, 1831. The family removed to Iowa, where they resided for ten years, and in 1853 the trek to the Pacific coast began, the parents being accompanied by their six children, two sons and four daughters, Elizabeth being among the number. The familiar Rogue River Valley orchard tract was the scene of their early settlement in this locality, an event which took place just about six months after leaving the central west.

Elizabeth Myer was married to E. K. Anderson in 1856, the young couple removing to the vicinity of Talent, where they resided on the well-known Anderson ranch for over half a century, and during this epoch their life was one of industry and good works, ever upholding the highest ideals.

In 1909 Mr. and Mrs. Anderson removed to Ashland. The husband and father died in 1912. For years Mrs. Anderson had been a confirmed invalid, physical infirmities, however, being borne with a resignation characteristic of her bright and sunny disposition, traits of character which reflected Christian fortitude to an eminent degree. She was a member of the Methodist church, and such affiliation was characterized by fervency and zeal in behalf of the Master's work.

Recognizing that her labors on earth were accomplished, she peacefully passed away, well satisfied to lay aside the cares of this life for the joys of eternity. Mrs. Anderson was the mother of eight children, five of whom survive, they being George N. Anderson, of Talent; Miss Belle Anderson, Mrs. Laura Steele, and Mrs. Lena Phillips, of Ashland; and Mrs. Dora Wight of Seattle.

Funeral services were held at the family home, on East Main street, Jan. 10, conducted by Rev. C. A. Edwards, Methodist pastor. Interment was in Ashland cemetery. Pall bearers represented the pioneer element, and included Geo. W. Dunn, G. S. Butler, F. D. Wagner, R. P. Nell, J. J. Murphy, and Frank Slade.
