NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—From its low quotation of the morning Crucible Steel rallied about two points during the mid-session.

Specialties made further gains later as well as leading oils and steels, but coppers and shippings eased.

Trading in the stock market was again dominated by the more speculative issues in which many conflict movements were registered.

ELK CREEK

Mrs. Oscar Stewart has gone to Medford to be absent several days. Mrs. Lloyd LeBeau is visiting with Mrs. S. W. Hutchinson for a few days.

fisheries. The high water tore out part of the new water wheel, also causing considerable damage in the hatch houses.

Will Stewart started for Medford Saturday with a bunch of beef. Mr. and Mrs. Newton Ward who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Floyd Hutchinson for the past two weeks returned to Ashland Saturday where they will visit with Mrs. Ward's mother, Mrs. W. B. Holmes.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Mynatt have been very sick with a gripe. Mr. Fred Inlow and daughter, Aubrey, made a trip to Trail this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy arrived at Gold Hill from Washington Wednesday and went to their old home in the Meadows to visit their son and daughter for a week.

The air drill on the Smith place at Antioch was down 75 feet Friday afternoon.

A surprise party was given at Mr. John Bingham's Saturday night.

Mr. Davis and son and daughter came up from Tolo to their ranch in the Meadows Sunday. They stored their car at Beagle and walked up on account of bad roads.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Lloyd and Harvey Stanley have been building feed racks on the Sam Coy place so that they can have their cattle feed. Sam Coy has the job of hauling the hay out and feeding them.

Paul Wright who has been assisting in the rock work on the Agate-Trail road for Rhodes and Price, contractors was in town patronizing our merchants.

Henry French, one of our country men and his son Floyd came in Thursday and brought in quite a lot of eggs for one of our Medford Creamery men, but he says that his hens do not lay so well as they would, and will when he gets his new hen house built, as it is the old one is shot all to pieces where the men working on the irrigating ditch have been blasting.

J. C. Froyley of Portland, Miss Edna Peterson and her father, E. P. Peterson, Henry Trusty of Elk creek and C. C. Beale were among the guests at the Sunnyside Thursday night.

Thursday evening when I went to the postoffice for my mail I noticed that Miss Nellie Coy, one of the deputy postmistresses was trying open a mail sack with one hand and on close inspection discovered that she had her left hand wrapped up and upon inquiry learned that she saw some one's horse saddled and bridled in the street so went and tied him up, and just as she was about thru tying him he jerked back and caught her hand bruising it quite badly and at first it was thought that her little finger was dislocated but the next day, after more careful examination it is thought to be nothing more than a bad bruise and cut thru the skin.

When the Butte Falls stage came in Friday morning there were five passengers on the car and they were all strangers here looking over the country.

Charles Brown of Medford who owns what used to be known as the Main place four miles this side of Medford, was here for dinner and spent a part of the afternoon extolling the good qualities of the Fordson tractor among the listeners.

Messrs. Campbell and Terrett, the two men who left here two weeks ago, had been clearing the right of way between the Cascade place on the edge of the desert and Hog creek returned to their room Friday noon and started in to finish up the job this Saturday morning.
