

2 BOOTLEGGERS FORFEIT BAIL OF $250 APIECE

As was generally expected none of the four bootleggers arrested in a local hotel last Wednesday night, showed up for their preliminary hearing at Jacksonville before Justice Bagshaw at 10 a. m., today and the identity of John and James Doe is still unknown to anyone but Sheriff Terrell and County Prosecutor Moore. It is understood that these two men are not regarded as bootleggers by the officials, but merely came to Medford with the other two men, Stewart and Hill, which names are regarded as fictitious, who are thought to be bootleggers.

So strong is the evidence against Stewart and Hill, who put up $500 cash bail for their appearance at today's hearing, that when they did not appear, Justice Bagshaw declared this cash bail forfeited and it was at once turned over to County Treasurer Walker. Thus the county is $500 richer. As to the cases of the two Does, one of whom is a former lieutenant colonel in the army and is a member of a prominent Pacific coast family, and the other of whom is also said to have a clean record, it seems that they got in touch with County Prosecutor Moore in Portland yesterday relative to their Medford arrest. Anyhow, on recommendation of Prosecutor Moore, their cases were continued for several days by Justice Bagshaw, and it is understood they will come here for trial. Hence their cash bonds of $150 each, which they put up after their arrest, were not declared forfeited.

Occasional Rain

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday are:

Rocky mountain and plateau regions—Generally fair and cold.

Pacific states—Generally fair in California and occasional rain in Washington and Oregon. Temperature below normal.

PORTLAND, Jan. 15.—Pieces of smelt were cut today by wholesale six and seven cents a pound in anticipation of a heavy run in the Cowitz river next week.

MINING COMPANY STRIKES IT RICH NEAR GOLD HILL

Much interest has been manifested by local mining men in the fact that Tom Norris' Gold Ridge gold quartz mine which has always been a rather fair producer, and which he bonded a year ago to Lew Ross, the Nevada mining engineer, C. C. Clark and a number of other Medford men, has been developed into a big winner. The mine, three miles south of Gold Hill, was first located by Mr. Norris in 1912. He took several thousand dollars worth of ore out and worked it for several years, until he took the contract for transporting the mails between the depot and postoffice in Medford.

The men to whom he bonded a year ago have cut the ledge 290 feet deep and made cross cuts, until now there is from $50,000 to $150,000 of free milling gold quartz in sight. Recent assays made show the ore runs in value from $400 to $650 a ton.

Now Mr. Norris is kicking himself several times daily for having parted with this wealth producer for a $10,000 bond.

NEBRASKA LEGION TO FIGHT NON-PARTIZANS

NELSON, Neb., Jan. 15.—A mass meeting sponsored by American Legion members and designed to combat activities of the Non-Partisan league has been called for tonight in Clay Center. This was announced following a mass-meeting here at which a resolution "urging every farmer to investigate fully before affiliating himself with the Non-Partisan league" was adopted.

MEDFORD LEGION UNANIMOUS FOR STATE AID BILL

At a meeting of the American Legion, Medford Post No. 15 last night, a readjusted compensation bill for ex-service men was approved without a dissenting vote, and a resolution adopted repudiating the action of the "Committee of Ten" of Portland for sending out a circular letter, without the sanction of the state organization. The move of the "insurgents" was characterized as a result of a political fight among the members of the Portland post. The post also described the publication in many newspapers of articles setting forth that ex-service men were divided on the question.

After the meeting, telegrams were sent to the Jackson county delegation in the state legislature requesting them to labor in behalf of a bonus. The same telegram was sent to Joint Representative Hopkins of Roseburg.

N. Y. Stocks

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The stock market this week forfeited some advance registered in the first week of the new year, withdrawal of the short interest in some of the more volatile shares causing irregular reactions. Industrial conditions as outlined by competent authorities dwell on wage reductions and further curtailment of production but the mercantile situation, especially a centers of distribution offered ground for encouragement.

The most hopeful development was the pronounced relaxation manifested by the money market.

Foreign exchange cancelled some of its recent advance.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The week-end session of the stock market was dull but the list developed a firm tone after an uncertain opening. Further buying of Reading at an additional advance of two points prompted the shorts to extend their recent covering movement. Steels, equipments, oils and shippings gained one to two points. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 300,000 shares.

The Screen

Big Farnum Feature Ends Showing Today

That stirring story of Texas border life, "The Last of the Duanees," in which William Farnum, the popular star plays the title role, will be seen for the last time today at the Rialto theatre. The picture has proved so popular here that it has been shown to crowded houses throughout the run. Mr. Farnum's work is remarkable for the risks he takes and the thrills he puts over in the many tense situations.

From Convent to Monte Carlo Star's Role

"Passions Playground," adapted from the famous Monte Carlo story, "The Guests of Hercules," is the attraction in which Katherine MacDonald, adjudged the most beautiful woman in the world will be seen commencing tomorrow matinee at the Rialto theatre. Eastern critics pronounce it a triumph.

We want to put our personal endorsement upon a picture which we consider to be one of the most delightful comedies ever created. In our experience as exhibitors of photoplays, we have never seen a picture quite like this one—so gay, so fresh, so clever, and so down-right funny!

The name of the picture is "Scratch My Back"—and it is as different as it is sound. Rupert Hughes wrote it down to the last title. It is clean comedy. There isn't a bedroom or a suggestive phrase in any of the seven reels—it's packed too solidly with genuine rib-tickling wit for that.

See "Scratch My Back" at the Page theatre Sunday and Tuesday only, account of "Nightie Night" Monday night.

N. P. WORKMEN REDUCE TIME TO HELP IDLE

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 15.—Rather than have a tenth of their number thrown out of work the force of the Northern Pacific railroad in the St. Paul district has agreed to go on a four day basis, it became known here today.

More than 2000 are said to be affected by the voluntary reduction.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 15.—About 10,000 ex-service men are expected to march here tonight in a parade, according to plans announced by Chairman Walton of the parade committee. The parade is planned as a demonstration in favor of a state bonus for ex-service men, according to its promoters.
