TOKIO .- Charges that the Japanese troops sent into the Chinese district of Chienta, a Manchurian community just over the Korean border, indis criminately shot hundreds of the villagers without semblance of trial, burned villages, schools, churches and crops, are made public by Canadian missionaries stationed at Manchuria and Korea

Replying to these charges, Licuten ant Colonel Hata, of the Japanese imperial staff, at the Japanese war office stated that the Japanese soldiers had burned churches and schools only after evidence had been obtained that they were being used as centers of intrigue by Korean malcontents. He said the villages destroyed were those in which the inhabitants had been in league with the outlaws. He declared that the villagers were executed only after inquiry by the military and civilinn authorities. The Japanese government has sent
