JACK DEMPSEY BOND MYSTERY NOW SOLVED

Missing Security Discovered in Jack Kearns Safe Deposit Box—Cochran Repudiates Brady's Statement and Denies He Has Withdrawn.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The mystery of the missing bond drawn by Jack Dempsey as a forfeit deposit for his match with Georges Carpentier next summer, was solved here today when the document was found in the safe of Dempsey's manager, Jack Kearns.

According to the explanation advanced by Dan McKeetrick, local representative for Kearns, the bond was filed by Kearns with other papers pertaining to the match in a private compartment of the safe under the impression that the paper was a copy of the original bond.

Announcement yesterday by the Central Union Trust company that the bond had not been posted with them, led to the search. The bond, which called for a surety of $50,000 was immediately placed in the hands of Tex Rickard and the promoter accepted it with the statement that the good faith and legal obligations of Dempsey had been fulfilled.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The original contract for the Carpentier-Dempsey boxing bout is considered still valid by Charles B. Cochran English boxing promoter, a party to the agreement, it was declared today. Mr. Cochran's associates said they had no knowledge of authority for William A. Brady of New York to speak in Mr. Cochran's behalf.

It was stated that Cochran had not heard directly from Brady, but was inclined to believe the ruling of the New York state boxing commission as to a maximum admission fee to the fight, might have caused him to "get out from under."

REGULATION MEAT PACKING INDUSTRY STRONGLY OPPOSED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Enactment of the bill providing government regulation of the meat packing industry would be a step "filled with danger to our institutions and our system of government," Senator Fernald, republican of Maine, declared today in the senate. "I believe this bill is merely the opening wedge for similar regulation of other private business," he said.

Analyzing the testimony before the senate committee which framed the bill Senator Fernald said it made "unworthy of belief," the federal trade commission's report on its investigation of the packing industry. The commission's statement that small packers existed at the surface of the big concerns, was denied before the committee, the senator said, by representatives of more than twenty small packing firms. Likewise, he said, the commission's assertion that stock growers were "at the mercy of the big five packers," was contradicted by practically all of the more than 80 growers who testified.

THE ASHLAND FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION SELECTS OFFICERS

ASHLAND, Jan. 21.—Just because the local branch of the Federal Farm Loan association has not been exploited in the public prints of late, is no indication that the organization is moribund or even dormant. It met in this city recently, stockholders choosing officers for the current year. Fred C. Hollibaugh, of the Valley View district, is president; M. C. Linsinger, vice-president, J. H. Dill, secretary-treasurer.

National Bank Examiner Harris has audited the association's accounts, and highly complimented the officials upon the creditable showing made, as well as praising the management for the business-like methods employed in conducting the association's routine affairs. It is such a commendation as this which encourages the management to excel as financiers. Consequently congratulations are mutual as between the Farm Loan officials and their patrons.

Two new directors have been added to the list, the revised board including Robert Purvis and Frank Nutter, in addition to J. J. Murphy, Fred Homes, M. C. Linsinger, Fred Hollibaugh, and D. H. Jackson. The board of appraisers includes Fred Homes, J. J. Murphy, and D. H. Jackson.

In auditing the books, the examiner reported that in extensive transactions which involved the investment of thousands of dollars, not only did the accounts balance to the proverbial "t," but also the precautions as to providing a surplus had been wisely administered, the association even more than complying with exacting laws in this respect. Later on a statement will appear as to the exact status of the association's affairs by way of resources and liabilities, the showing to be one of considerable proportions.

By way of digression, although the exhibit is specifically along similar financial lines, the clearings of Ashland banks are now being published on a daily basis. For the past week or so the figures have been as follows, the totals of all the three banks being included in the returns: Jan. 13, $7,124.97; Jan. 14, $7,471.41; Jan. 15, $6,784.78; Jan. 18 and 19, each date is the $12,500 classification respectively.

SCHWAB DENIES ACCUSATION BY COL. E. H. ABADIE

Absolutely, Unqualifiedly and Maliciously False, Declares Steel Magnate—Didn't Take Even Dollar a Year Salary—Abadie "Hopes So."

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Charles M. Schwab appeared before the Walsh congressional committee today and denied testimony given yesterday by Colonel E. H. Abadie, former comptroller of the United States shipping board to the effect that Mr. Schwab's personal expenses for October 1918 amounting to $260,000 were charged to the shipping board.

Mr. Schwab declared the statements were "absolutely, unqualifiedly and maliciously false," and that he personally paid all his own expenses during his term of office as director general of the emergency fleet corporation.

Paid Own Expenses Mr. Schwab said that also he was supposed to receive a dollar a year salary, he did not even collect that and for his travels from shipyard to shipyard, while at the head of the fleet corporation, he asserted he never received any compensation and did not want any.

Mr. Schwab admitted such a voucher as that charged by Colonel Abadie may have been paid to him but declared it was not for the purpose claimed by Abadie and no part of it was charged to ship construction. His acceptance of the position as head of the fleet corporation, he said, was only at the urgent request of the chairman of the board and President Wilson. He declared he insisted that all matters connected with his own shipbuilding companies be handled by other members of the board.

Abadie Hopes So Colonel Abadie, who again took the stand said he regretted the necessity for connecting Mr. Schwab with the voucher, and said he hoped it was an error and that Mr. Schwab would be cleared.

Colonel Abadie reiterated his previous testimony that information concerning it had been given to him by Mr. Morse, of Perley, Morse and company, accountants employed to audit shipping board books. He said the charge was entered as "overhead" in the main office of the Bethlehem company and $100,000 was charged to ship construction.

He admitted that Mr. Morse had told him how the other $160,000 had been spent, but declined to repeat what he had been told and said it concerned the Bethlehem corporation only. Mr. Schwab, who was sitting nearby spoke up and said: "You are at perfect liberty to give that information if you desire." Colonel Abadie, however, said it was given to him confidentially and that he would not repeat it.

Her efforts to leave the country, however, were frustrated and she was again arrested October 24 and imprisoned on a charge of having tried to bribe her way out of Russia.
