According to rumors there will be much building of new homes and alterations and improvements on old ones in Medford next spring and summer. A building permit has just been issued for the construction of a $3000 modern dwelling at 1906 West Eleventh street by E. G. Trowbridge. Geo. Iverson is the contractor and work on the new structure will be begun next Monday. It is expected that the work of constructing the new dining room addition to the Elks lodge building will be begun early in the spring.

Toggerly Bill Isaacs, premier steel head fisherman of Medford and furnisher of sartorial splendor to the youth of southern Oregon, tarried in say a few words on his favorite topic—Rogue river fishing. "The Rogue is a sportsman's stream," said Mr. Isaacs, "and it has always grievd me to see it made the province of the commercial fisherman. As a sportsman's stream, where the stout steel head takes the fly, it is known all over the world. I contend that commercial fishing is but a minor item when contrasted with the immense value of such a river to the state of Oregon—as an angling asset. And unless salmon fishing is discontinued in the Rogue by the commercial interests its glory will depart. It is true that a large run of steelhead swarmed up the Rogue this summer—but nothing like the runs of other years."—The Oregonian.

Freddy Anderson who will probably be brought here for a bout with Jess Ingram in the main event of the February smoker of the Medford boxing commission has been mentioned as a possible opponent for Joe Benjamin before the Portland boxing commission, at an early date. Freddy is a popular body in this city, and a meeting with Ingram who is gaining in prestige daily would be a first-class attraction. The fans would also like to see Johnny Carlson hooked up with somebody his own size, with some experience to get a line on just how good he is. A number of Medford fans are planning on going to Gold Hill, Friday, Jan. 28, to see the Ingram and Campbell match. There will be two other bouts, and a wrestling match, under the auspices of the Gold Hill boxing commission.

The resolution as passed provided for a structure not to exceed in cost $10,000, construction work to begin whenever a building committee of seven lodge members to be appointed by the exalted ruler, so decides. F. E. Merrick who returned from an extended stay in North Dakota last week reports business conditions in that highly non-partisan state in bad shape. Mr. Merrick says the farmers have taken something like a solemn oath not to sell any of their wheat for less than $2 per bushel, with the result that the wheat bins are full, and no sale. While waiting for the wheat to go $3 per bushel the farmers are investing heavily in Texas and Oklahoma oil stocks, in an effort to reparate their finances, and as a result of these two conditions a sort of perpetual turmoil is always existing. Mr. Merrick expects to see Dakota straighten out next spring. There are close to 100 former residents of North Dakota now living in the Rogue River valley who may be somewhat surprised at the mood of their homeland.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.
