It is made up of Blood root, Oregon Grape root, Queen's root, Stone root, Cherry Bark, without alcohol. Make your blood redder and your health better by going to your nearest druggist and obtaining Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form.

WALLA WALLA, WASH.—"When I had the measles I went out a little too soon and took cold on my lungs. I had sharp pains. I took some medicine that I got from the drug store but nothing did me much good until I took a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It did me great good. The 'Discovery' has done my mother and father lots of good, too, for neuralgia."—Miss FLORENCE BOONE, Linden St., Route 5, Box 8.

S. P. WATCHMAN SAVES WOMAN AT MAIN ST. CROSSING

Larry Evans, Southern Pacific watchman at the Main street crossing Monday afternoon saved Mrs. Helen O. Dillon, 227 Laurel street from death beneath the wheels of a southbound passenger train when by quick action and at the risk of his own life, he dragged Mrs. Dillon from the track. The engineer of the train applied the emergency brakes, and halted the train. A number of eye witnesses, including Chief of Police Timothy said that Mrs. Dillon would have been struck but for the timely move of the watchman. Mrs. Dillon is quite deaf, and according to the police, narrowly escaped death once before at the crossing.

"I was up to Dr. Emmens' office," said Mrs. Dillon, and was hurrying home for fear my fires would be out. I usually look up and down the track before crossing, but my mind was so occupied with getting home that I failed to look. The next thing I knew the watchman was rushing me from the track."

Mrs. Dillon was not ruffled by her narrow escape. She has lived in Medford for 29 years.

George A. Coddling, a well-known young attorney of this city has been appointed deputy district attorney by District Attorney Rawles Moore, with the approval of the county court, and began his new duties Monday. FINE BOXING AND WRESTLING CARD GOLD HILL, FRI.

Boxing fans of the Rogue River valley will have an opportunity to see a first class match at Gold Hill next Friday night under the auspices of the Gold Hill boxing commission, between Red Campbell and George Eagles. Eagles cancelled a boxing engagement in Portland to meet Campbell, as a result of the treatment accorded him when he fought Jess Ingram three New Year's day. Both boys are fast and able to take care of themselves, Campbell being a rugged boxer, who likes to swamp punches, and Eagles being a polished boxer.

Another feature of the evening will be a wrestling match between Ralph Hand, the pride of Gold Hill, and Bill Anderson, a wrestler whose reputation is confined to Canada, but whose record is imposing. This contest will be to a finish, and is exciting the farmers up and down the creeks tributary to Gold Hill.

Owing to the heavy expense of putting on these bouts, there will be no preliminaries, but the Gold Hill boxing commission assures the public that they will get a run for their money. The first show was exceptionally good, and those in charge are trying to make this a still better one.

'WAKE UP OR DIE!' IS WARNING TO SPANISH NOBLES

MADRID.—"Wake up or die!" is the warning address to the Spanish aristocracy in an editorial of El Debate, which lashes the ancient nobility of the country for its "lethal passivity" in all public matters. The writer adds:

"In order not to succumb, the nobility must not only display more democratic sentiments but personally participate in the life of the country. Otherwise, having already lost its ancient class prestige, surrounded by a materialistic bourgeoisie, a middle class without any defined object and a populace exasperated by political deception and economic unrest until it is ready for all kinds of violence, the ancient nobility will have nothing else to do than succumb."

"The British aristocracy is giving an example of what an aristocracy should do in order to merit its name, for its members have gained distinction in science, industry and active politics and hold an important place in the intellectual, economic and social life of the country. The Spanish nobility should take note of the signs of the times, for it has only a brief moment to decide whether to wake up or die."

In the Wild Cattle Country of the North

Pierre Landis placed the mark of his brand on the white flesh of his fair young wife. Why? See "The Branding Iron," now playing at the Rialto theatre. It's a story of the wilderness of primitive men and primitive passions.

An unusual treat is in store for the patrons of the Rialto theatre, beginning tomorrow, Lionel Barrymore, the distinguished American actor, declared by many to be the most talented member of the famous Barrymore family, will be the attraction in "The Devil's Garden," his latest Associated First National starring vehicle.

Charles Ray will be seen in a new and delightful attraction at the Page theatre this week, beginning tomorrow matinee, when "Nineteen and Phyllis" will open its engagement. In this photoplay he appears not as a rube, but as a small town dandy, Andrew Jackson Cavanaugh, out to win the lady of his heart by dazzling her with his handsome raiment. Pretty little Clara Horton, who is only sixteen years old and the youngest girl who has ever appeared opposite a male star, has the leading feminine role as Phyllis. Lincoln Stedman, the good-natured fat boy, appears as Ray's deadly rival, Jimmy Long. The remaining members of the cast supporting Mr. Ray in "Nineteen and Phyllis" are George Nichols, Cora Drew, Frank Norcross, and DeWitt C. Jennings. "Nineteen and Phyllis" was adapted to the screen from an original story by Frederick Stowers, and is unsurpassed by any other Ray picture released to date and which is one of the finest film entertainments of the year. If you can enjoy a delightful romance of youth, tinged with a fine thread of humor and with plenty of fascinating action, then come to the Page theatre this week and see the screens' most human actor in a thoroughly human photoplay.

TITLE INSURANCE IS SECURED BY LOCAL COMPANY

The Jackson County Abstract company have just completed arrangements with the Title and Trust company of Portland by which Title Insurance may be written on real estate in Jackson county.

E. H. and P. M. Janney who have just returned from the State Title-men's convention at Portland are quite enthusiastic on the subject. They say that this is a branch of the title business that has received little or no attention in Southern Oregon. In the centers of population of the east, southern California or the northern part of Oregon it is used almost exclusively to facilitate the transfer of real estate. People coming from these places express surprise that it has not been available here. Jackson county will now be the only county in the state, excepting Multnomah and two or three adjacent counties that has this service.

People of Medford and surrounding country are looking forward to the greatest musical treat of the year, tonight at the Page.

Mr. Godowsky will leave tomorrow for Klamath Falls where he gives a recital on Thursday evening.

SARGENT'S BOOK THROWS LIGHT ON GREAT WAR

Col. H. H. Sargent's new book "Strategy on the Western Front," is one of the most interesting war books recently published. Although it is the work of an acknowledged military expert it is so thoroughly readable and free from technicalities that it holds the reader's attention throughout. Colonel Sargent, during the war, was an advocate of striking in the rear of the Central Powers and cutting Austria and Bulgaria away from Germany. In this stand he was sustained by the French strategists, but was opposed by British strategists. The fact that Bulgaria's collapse, before allied attacks, preceded Germany's surrender is generally taken as justification of the east front school of strategy, as opposed to the west front. The question, however, is still a controversial one, and probably will always be food for argument among military experts. People who wish to be well informed regarding the great world war, should read Col. Sargent's book, not because he is a fellow citizen, but because his book makes a permanent contribution to the world's war literature.

J'VILLE CITIZENS ASK PROTECTION BANK DEPOSITORS

The following petition addressed to Jackson county legislators was circulated this week and was signed by many local people who suffered financial loss in the collapse of the defunct Bank of Jacksonville:

Jacksonville, Ore., Jan. 18.
To the Honorable C. M. Thomas, senator; Ben Sheldon and E. V. Carter, representatives, Salem, Oregon.

Gentlemen: We, the undersigned voters of Jackson county, Oregon, respectfully petition you to secure the passage of legislation, during the present session of the state legislature, that will guarantee bank depositors against loss of money through failure of banks. That our present system of protection is a failure admits no contradiction worth considering. That the most complete system of protection that can possibly be secured would benefit all classes of worthy citizens in our state is undeniable. We therefore urge you to give this matter your earnest attention without delay.—Jacksonville Post.

LIBRARY PROGRESS SUBJECT AT FORUM WEDNESDAY NOON

In the classification of the subjects which are being presented at the member's forum of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, the one tomorrow may come under the heading of "Know Your City."

Medford, like every other progressive city, is making changes, which to a certain degree are experiments. Naturally every resident is interested to know whether such experiments have worked out to the advantage of the community or whether the experience has been of nominal importance.

The public library of Medford has just completed its first year under what is known as county service. The results obtained are to be made known at the forum tomorrow by the librarian, Miss Clara Van Sant and the subject of her address will be "The Jackson County Library."

The forum will be held at the Hotel hotel.
