Barley, $29 @ 33; oats, $23.50; corn, No. 3, yellow, $30. Millrun, $35.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—Export conditions had a bad effect today on the wheat market. Even with May delivery at a new low price record for the season no important movement developed except in exports. Prices which ranged from 1/2 to 1 1/2c lower with March $1.59 to $1.59 1/2 and May $1.46 1/2 to $1.47 1/2 were followed by a slight rally and then a sage much lower than before.

Corn declined as a result of continued large receipts. After opening 1/2 to 3/4c lower, including May at 64 1/2 to 64 3/8c prices underwent a moderate further setback.

Outs were depressed starting 1/4 off to 3/4 and 1/2c up, May 4 1/2 to 4 1/4c and later weakening all around. Provisions dropped with grain and hogs.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS
By A. C. Howlett
Mrs. John Hignbotham and her son Oscar and Mrs. Frank Stevenson of Central Point, came out last Tuesday to meet Miss Mildred Patton of Butte Falls and take her home with them to spend a week or ten days visiting. Mr. Hignbotham was formerly a resident of the Butte Falls country and the Hignbothams and Pattons are warm friends.

Mrs. Carson of Prospect was a passenger on the stage from Prospect. The heavy wind the latter part of last week has done some damage in this section and among other things that it did was blowing in a large window, x8 ft., in the front of the Von der Hellen hardware store, blowing the flagpole in the school house yard down and overturning some of the outhouses in our town.

Fred Fredrig of Medford, came out Tuesday to spend a few days working in his orchard and has been rooming and boarding at the Sunnyside. The foregoing items were crowded out of my last letter thru lack of space. Pete Young, one of the prosperous farmers of this section, was in town Wednesday morning after a load of posts.

Natty G. Smith of Portland came in Wednesday and engaged board and room for a few days. He is looking for a house to rent as he wants to move his family down here. He is on a deal for a house but has to wait a day or two to hear from another party who owns the house he wants.

Ray Chambers, John Holtz, Ernest Peachey, W. L. Jones and George West all members of the forest service force are boarders at the Sunnyside. They are engaged putting up a new telephone line between Medford and Butte Falls.

Mr. Downs and Mrs. E. E. Smith of Butte Falls were passengers on the Butte Falls stage Thursday morning. D. A. Carey of North Yakima, came in a few days ago to visit Mr. and Mrs. McAllister. Mr. Carey and Mr. McAllister were old acquaintances in Nevada when Mr. McAllister was a practicing attorney and Mr. Carey was a court reporter in that state.

Pearl Stowell, J. H. French and his father-in-law Perry Foster and Ed Spencer were among the diners at the Sunnyside Thursday. Frank Rhodes and his partner in the contract for clearing and grading the highway between Hog Creek and the mouth of Indian creek. Mr. R. B. Price was in town Thursday taking out fresnoes, scrapers, etc., to be used on the job. They have a good part of the clearing done and considerable of the rock work also done and if we don't have any more rain to keep the ground soft they expect to be able to commence on the grading by the first of the week.

stage to the road camp to meet her husband who is one of the mechanics working on the new Rogue river bridge on the Crater Lake highway this side of Trail. R. A. Wideman, one of our hustling farmers and dairy men has slaughtered six fine porkers and sold them out to the families of our town—a by-product of the dairy business. They netted him an average of $20.00 each. Guy Pruitt was a business caller Friday and said that he had dragged the road from his place on to the lower bridge on Little Butte creek to Agate. Just for his own benefit, and found that it was greatly improved as the ground was not baked hard and the drag left it in good condition. D. R. Patrick, one of the carpenters of this section has been with us for the past two or three days. He has a job of re-roofing one of the houses put up about ten or twelve years ago. He says that the acid in the shingles eats the nails off where they are under cover as they are in a shingled roof. W. L. Childreth, our blacksmith, went to Ashland Friday and while there secured an electric trip-hammer and also a machine to run an emery wheel, his drill and other appendages for his shop. Charley Cingcade and Ed Dutton were business callers Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. M. Riggings who has been up in the Derby country visiting relatives came out Friday on the Butte Falls stage on her way to her home in San Francisco. Mrs. Sherman Wooley and her sister Mrs. M. R. Kooz, came out Friday on the stage from Corbett Smith's, their brother's farm near Butte Falls, to spend a while in Eagle Point. Fred Pottygrew of Reese creek, spent the night at the Sunnyside Friday. Mr. Pratt of Reese creek, Mrs. Lloyd Stanley of Butte Falls, Thomas Cooke of Butte Falls, were passengers on the Butte Falls stage this Saturday morning and Mrs. Ray Harshel went up on the Lake creek stage to visit her sister Mrs. Wm. Holman and Robert Welch of Prospect went out to Derby to meet the Prospect stage. Mrs. C. D. Vroman of Medford, who has been out here visiting her mother, Mrs. Wm. Wright for the past few days, returned home this Saturday afternoon on the Butte Falls stage.
