Mr. Kingdon Gould of New York has been sued for $500,000 because he told a lady one thing, and did another. If he loses the suit it ought to break him of promiscuous flirting for some time.

NO CRACKED CORN GOES

(Salem Statesman)

Week after next will be prune week, when every true American will be full of prunes.

Instead of meddling around with petty reforms and aggravations, like closing the movies on Sunday, and battling cigarettes, the churches should devote their energy to straightening out the mess civilization is now in.

Now and then one sees a picture of an eastern society queen, seated in a chair with both feet on the floor, and no expose of socks.

AN IMMORTAL SHOWN UP

(Dallas Items)

There are now more farm organizations than lodges in this state, and George Mansfield is president of most of them.

TALKING SHOP.

WE ALL are fond of talking shop, when we round up together; the shoe man sounds his plaintive yawp about the price of leather; the farmer spels about his crop, and wails about the weather. The cook, in language terse and quaint, discourses of his frying, the man who sells us glass and paint has found conditions trying, the undertaker makes complaint that people have quit dying.

LONDON TIRED OF AMERICAN JAZZ

LONDON—The "jazz" is dead in London, says P. J. S. Richardson, one of the foremost English authorities on dancing. He declares that no "new" dances will be popularized this year, but the fox-trot, one-step and tango, which have held international interest for two or three seasons, will be standardized.

Spent Over $200 on Worthless Trusses

BAD SCROTAL RUPTURE. AGE 74.

Dear Sirs: I have been wearing one of your Trusses 14 months and am nearly healed. Have done all kinds of heavy lifting, picking and shovelling, and it has never come out. I wear it night and day, and also bathe with it on. I never take it off only to clean it, and do that sitting. It is the best Truss Pad I ever saw, and I have spent more than $200.00 for Trusses.

Yours very truly, NATHAN C. GILMORE.
