Cornelius Vanderhilt, Jr., has written an article entitled "The Jumping-Off Place" which he terms "Chronicle of a trip into the wilds of the Pacific northwest over roads that have no right to the name." It is a story of hills whose steepness is appalling, road where ruts are deep and trees are tall. He and his wife all alone in the west found the worst corduroy road ever known but the one bright spot in the picture was their Buick Six equipped with a camp outfit, double spot lights and all the paraphernalia that wealth could furnish or need. His choice of the Buick Six as the best car he knew was the happiest idea of the whole trip and added most to the pleasure.

The New Things First

Yes, the distinction of being the first store to make any considerable display of the new-season things rests as surely with M. M. Dept. Store as does the leadership in value-giving expressed in the oft-repeated truism: "It Always Pays to Shop at M. M. Dept. Store"

This advance exposition and sale of Spring, arrivals is remarkable for two main reasons.

First, it emphasizes this store's early readiness with the new-season things. Second, it calls attention to the noticeably lower prices at which they are to be had NOW at this store.

Among the new things are:
SUITS, DRESSES, COATS, WRAPS, SKIRTS, NECKWEAR, BLOUSES, SHOES, SILKS, COTTONS

All are of the BEST qualities at the LOWEST prices. You are cordially invited to see the displays.

NEWS FROM EASTERN WHOLESALE MARKETS

Prices are somewhat climbing up again; however, they won't be anything like in the past, in fact it is hard for anyone to say where prices will be in the future. But we do know that all of the goods we bought were purchased at a saving of from 15 to 33 1/3 per cent, and we in turn give our customers this benefit. We stand back of every statement we make in our advertisements.
