EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Kowlett

Last Saturday Louis Berry was in town and while here was trying to make a deal for a farm lying southeast of here about three miles.

D. Shelle of Portland and C. E. Moors of Alcatraz, Calif., came in bringing forty-two head of work horses for Charles Delin, sub-contractor on the unit beginning at the David Cingade farm on the edge of the desert.

PORTLAND, Feb. 7.—The week opened with a further break of two cents in the egg market, bringing the buying price down to 30 cents a dozen.

EGGS AND POULTRY. PORTLAND, Feb. 5.—Eggs, selling price, case count 34@35; buying price 32; selling price, candled 35; selected candled in cartons 36@37.

GRAIN AND HAY. Barley, nominal; oats, $32.50; corn, No. 3, yellow, $29@30.

SLOW DEATH

Aches, pains, nervousness, difficulty in urinating, often mean serious disorders. The world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles—and then Mr. Mansfield commenced his speech, explaining some of the workings and plans of the Farm Bureau, showing how the farmers were virtually held up and robbed by those entrusted to do the business for them.

He was followed by Mr. Moran and he explained how the budget was to be divided: In the first place the plan is to secure 1900 members and each one pays $5.00 initiation fees, making $9500, and that it is to be divided with the different divisions and sub-divisions to pay for the upkeep of the county district and state bureaus, but he spoke so low that I could not catch his figures.

Miss Berry Sears of Reese creek who is attending the Medford high school, came out and went up home Tuesday.

Louis Tom of Lake creek, came out Monday and went to Medford to do trading, returning Tuesday, and then went up home on the Brownsboro stage, and N. G. Smith also went to Lake creek on the same stage just to look at the country.

Geo. Kish and R. B. Price were in town Tuesday after some of the tools to be used on the highway and while on his way home Mr. Price lost his overcoat.

Jeff Brophy of Florence Rock, spent Tuesday night at the Sunnyside. Pete Young came in Tuesday after a load of fence posts. There seems to be quite a demand here for fence posts as the Crater Lake highway is being laid out thru quite a number of farms and orchards.

R. D. Henson and W. P. Smith of the Klum Adv. Co., were out Tuesday pointing bills, and took dinner at the Sunnyside, and so did Ed Cook and A. B. Askey of Butte Falls.

W. E. Hammel and wife of Reese creek and Ira Tanager of Butte Falls, came out on the Butte Falls stage and went on to Medford the same day.
