The forestry office has received a letter from the lower river district telling of the killing of a monster cougar by Judas Frye, the 12-year old son of George Frye, from near Marfel. The cougar, which measured 8 feet and 9 inches from tip to tip, was killed with a 22-calibre rifle, the lad firing five shots into the animal's head before it became a good cougar. The news of the killing was phoned to the ranger station at Rand by the boy's father. It is believed that the animal is the one that has killed much stock in the Marfel district.—Grants Pass Courier.

Following are the details of Saturday night's Pacific highway accident according to the Ashland Tidings: An automobile belonging to G. W. Loosley ran off the road and struck a telephone pole near the Jackson Springs. The car contained Mr. and Mrs. Loosley, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wagner and Miss Lydia McCall, all of whom were bound for the Lincoln banquet at Medford. At that point Mr. Loosley began to have trouble with his lights and decided to return to Ashland. In making the attempt to turn around he lost control of the car which ran off the opposite side of the road, striking a telephone pole. Mr. Wagner who was on the front seat with Mr. Loosley, was badly cut on the face with broken glass, while Mrs. Loosley was hit by the broken top. She received a bad cut on the head, and had one wrist fractured. A car passing at that point brought the injured people back to Ashland where their injuries were attended at a local hospital. Miss McCall also sustained some bad bruises about her face.

Women in Homes and Society

Countless women devote their whole lives to their homes, while others are in the business world, or find happiness only in society. Whether you are a home woman, a business woman, or a society woman, you know how hard it is to "drag along" day after day, suffering from the fatigue caused by some female derangement that has developed from overtaxing your strength. The natural restorative for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly half a century has been considered a standard remedy for women's ills. Adv.
