The attention of all owners and drivers of cars is called to the fact that the new ordinance prohibiting parking of cars in front of entrances of the stores or other places of amusement is in force, and the penalty for violation hereof is a fine of $10. This warning is timely in view of the fact that especially large audiences will attend the basketball game Saturday night at the Natatorium, the Kolb and Dill performance at the Page Sunday night and the Elks minstrel next Monday and Tuesday nights at the Page. The council has given the police strict instructions for the enforcement of the ordinance.

Attend the community dancing party tomorrow night and help celebrate in honor of the winning basketball team. A special invitation to you whether you dance or not. A grand good time. A noted violinist will appear with the Imperial orchestra. Herbert Alford will be heard in several new songs.

A false report is in circulation that the Page theater has been sold out for both performances of the Elks minstrel next Monday and Tuesday nights. While the large advance sale indicates crowded houses for both those nights there are lots of good seats not yet sold, altho the number is decreasing very rapidly. The center body seats downstairs for Monday night are all sold, but a number of good seats on the sides are left. The advance sale for Tuesday night is also large.

ELKS URGED TO HELP FIX SCENERY TEMPLE TONIGHT

An appeal is made by Tom Swem, stage director of the Elks' minstrel show, for forty Elks to come to the Elks' temple tonight as volunteer workers to aid in preparing the finishing touches on the large amount of special scenery and decorations for the show.

Mr. Swem and a force of carpenters have been hard at work for two weeks in the basement of the temple in constructing this scenery and "props," and at the same time and place a force of electricians has been at work on the novel electrical effects and decorations under O. C. Heinlein as chief electrician.

Every Elk who can possibly spare an hour or so tonight is requested to aid Mr. Swem in this work.

Also tonight the minstrels will hold a full rehearsal in the temple upstairs behind locked doors.
