Messrs. Wilkinson and Hewitt, the field men of the internal revenue collector's office who are stationed here until all this week in the federal building to aid citizens in making out their income tax reports, with office hours from 8:30 a. m. until 5 p. m. daily, are very busy men. They urge the public desiring their services to make use of them at once and not wait until the last minute.

Don't buy fans or calendars from traveling men representing out of town firms, as the money goes away from home. We have a fine line of both, will sell them cheaper than anyone else and will be around with samples in plenty of time for fans and calendars.
