

HELL BENT BOOT LEGGERS SCORED BY REVIVALIST

Despite the flood & mood audience heard Rev. J. A. Smith's powerful sermon on Sun Sunday night at the First Methodist church. The song service was of unusual merit and was featured by the congregational sing, an original solo by Rev. D. E. Millard, and a number entitled "In the Garden" by Mrs. Samsell.

Here are a few of the sparks from Smith's anvil:

"Sin is the currency of hell that buys the doom of mortals. Sin is the great destroyer of manhood. It wastes strength; it spoils sobriety; it blinds liberty; it blights nobility; it strangles conscience; it bribes honor; it stabs purity and it wrecks character."

Hootch

"We have outlived the bleary-eyed, red-nosed, hog-jowled, drunken sot named John Barley-corn; but we now have to deal with his low-life progeny of weasel-faced, narrow-minded, hell-bent bootleggers and wild-cat stilliers who carry on their nefarious work under cover of darkness and mountain fastnesses."

"The man who buys and drinks the rotten, red-eye, bust-head, distilled lightning is a bigger fool than the man who makes it. Modern moonshine at ten dollars a quart contains enough concentrated dynamite to make a brute of any man. You can take any four-footed hog in Jackson county and pour a pint of this poison hootch down his throat, and when he gets sober—if it doesn't kill him—he will leave these diggings without stopping to say goodbye or pay his bill."

Profanity

"The trouble with profanity is that it is just down-right dirty. The profane swearer is coarse, vulgar, unclean—not a fit companion for self-respecting mountain goats. When a man gets in the vile habit of sprinkling dirty oaths in his speech constantly he ought to be tied out in the lot with the pigs."

Dancing

"Modern dancing should make modest womanhood blush in shame. Society has run the changes on the tangos, the bunnie-hug, the turkey-trot, the buzzard-lope, the Boston dip, the Frisco Flea hop, the bowl-weaver-wriggle and the shimmy-she-wobble until it has become drunk on sensuality."

"Dancing like all Gaul is divided into three parts. One third is physical, one third is esthetic, and one third is sensual. A few more decades of indiscriminate and extreme dancing and pride will be shaken from the pedestal, self-respect will retire in defeat, virtue receive her mortal wound, and womanhood be shrouded in the sack-clothes of disgrace."

The subject tonight is "The Devil's Short-Cuts to Happiness."

FAIR ASSOCIATION MEETS FRIDAY AT 8

There will be a stockholders meeting of the Jackson County Fair association at the library next Friday evening at eight o'clock at which time reports will be received and officers and directors will be elected, who will have charge of the fair this fall.

The meeting is considered of special importance for the reason that the plan of improvements as outlined by Professor Arthur L. Peck of the Oregon Agricultural College will be up for adoption. Proposed buildings, driveways and walks have been prepared in a comprehensive manner so that everyone may see the scheme of development which will take place from year to year.

When Grandmother Was a Girl HOOP skirts were worn by those who first asked the druggist for, and insisted on having, the genuine Golden Medical Discovery put up by Dr. Pierce over 50 years ago. Dress has changed very much since then! But Dr. Pierce's medicines contain the same dependable ingredients. They are standard today just as they were fifty years ago and never contained alcohol.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the stomach and blood cannot be surpassed by any tonic and alterative today.

When you feel "all out of sorts"—your vitality at a low ebb—the blood becomes surcharged with poisons! The best tonic is called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks without alcohol—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature put in the fields and forests for keeping you healthy. It puts vim, vigor, vitality into the blood.

Try it. All druggists. Liquid or tablets.

SCENERY LUNCHEON THURSDAY NOON HOTEL MEDFORD

The committee from the Chamber of Commerce, of which Benj. F. Lindsas is chairman, has everything completed for the convention to be held next Thursday for the formation of an association, which shall have as its object the preservation of the scenery along the highways of Jackson county.

The committee was granted the use of the federal court room in the post office building because of the close relationship which such an organization would have to the forestry and national park service.

The morning session will begin at 10 o'clock. Mayor Gates, Col. H. H. Sargent and Benj. F. Lindsas are on the program.

The special Chamber of Commerce luncheon will take place at the Hotel Medford at noon, at which time President Walther will present facts relative to the scientific planting of trees and shrubs along the highways.

The afternoon session will begin at one-thirty and the following well-known citizens are on the program: Alex Sparrow, superintendent of Crater Lake National Park, Hugh B. Rankin, Supervisor of the Crater Lake National Forest and Professor L. E. Vining of Ashland who will deliver the key-note address, after which organization plans will be perfected.

Toward the latter part of the afternoon, Professor Albert R. Sweetser of the University of Oregon will tell of the effort that is being made by the university to preserve the trees, shrubs and wild flowers of the state.

Every citizen of Jackson county is considered an authorized delegate to this convention and invited to attend one or all of the sessions as well as the luncheon at the Medford Hotel.

The Screen

"Chickens" New MacLean Comedy

Douglas MacLean's latest starring vehicle "Chickens" will be the feature attraction at the Page theatre for four days commencing tomorrow.

The comedy, a scintillating story of the adventures and romance of a city youth who takes up chicken ranching, was adapted from the Saturday Evening Post story, "Yancona Yillies," by Herschel S. Hall.

The leading woman is Gladys George who heads a capable supporting cast which includes Clair MacDowell, Chas. Malles, Edith Yorke, Raymond Cannon, Willis Marks and Al. Filson.

At the Rialto

The Rialto theater takes considerable pride in announcing "Under Crimson Skies," as its attraction tomorrow. The many reports received concerning this feature assure the patrons of this playhouse one of the treats of the year.

Elmo Lincoln, the Colossus of the screen, is its featured player, surrounded by an exceptionally strong cast.

...eatersgoers who enjoy a story of romance and adventure, an unusual plot and characters that differ from those one meets in everyday life, will be sure to enjoy a treat in "Under Crimson Skies."

Beautiful scenes at sea, a raging storm on the deep, a terrific fight in the waters of the Pacific and a hundred other unusual scenes add to the effectiveness of this feature.

OPENING TO ENTRY OF 200 ACRES OF LAND

ROSEBURG, Feb. 18.—Notice is hereby given that the following described lands, embraced in power site reserves, have been restored to entry under the provisions of Section 24 of the federal water power act of June 10, 1920, which reserves the right of the United States to use or lease the land for power purposes. From March 1, 1921 to May 2, 1921, inclusive, said lands will be subject to homestead entry under the provisions of said water power act, by qualified ex-service men of the late war with Germany. Applications by ex-service men may be filed in this office from this date, and all such applications received up to and including February 28, 1921, will be considered as filed simultaneously and a drawing had to determine any conflicts in applications. From March 1, to May 2, applications by ex-service men will be acted upon in the order filed.

Any of said lands not taken by ex-service men on or before May 2, 1921, will become subject to settlement and appropriation under any applicable public land law, beginning May 3, 1921, subject to the provisions of said water power act.

Lands open to entry: SE 1/4 of Sec. 14, Twp. 36, S. R. 11, W. W. M.; W 1/2 of NW 1/4 of sec. 8 and E 1/2 of NW 1/4 of sec. 18, Twp. 34 S., R. 11 W. W. M., 200 acres in all.

A Surprise Party.

A very enjoyable time was had when about thirty-five neighbors gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Haley, who reside on the Tracy ranch Thursday evening and completely surprised them. Mr. and Mrs. Haley were recently married and moved into the neighborhood and the neighbors took this novel method of giving them a welcome and getting acquainted. The evening was spent in visiting and playing games. About midnight a cafeteria lunch, which the guests brought with them, was served.

PRIZE BULL CALF IS PURCHASED BY LOCAL DAIRYMAN

C. E. Hoover has recently purchased a bull calf from K. M. C. Neill, Josephine county, that should help to improve the dairy stock in this valley. If there is anything in good breeding this animal should be of the best as his breeding shows that there are three gold medal sires back of him. Two on the sire side Rosalres Ogla Lad and St. Mawes, and Golden Glows Chief on the dam side. These three sires have produced more world's record cows than any other sires in the breed, so this animal should be of a splendid combination. Mr. Hoover is a member of the Cow Testing association and was interested in this animal through the association, he is determined to improve his herd and that he has already made progress is shown in comparing the herd average of January, 1920, with those of January, 1921.

The averages for January 1920, per cow, were milk 26.8 pounds, butter fat, 87 pounds for January 1921. Milk 22.9 pounds, butterfat 1.11 pounds, an increase of over 25 per cent in butterfat per cow. To make this improvement, Mr. Hoover has sent 17 unprofitable cows to the butcher, and has replaced them with high grade cows. Mr. Hoover gives all credit to this great increase in production to the information and help the Rogue River Valley Cow Testing association has brought to him and the personal interest Mr. Bichan, the tester, gave to the dairy herds under the association.

In "Nobody's Fool" Miss Robson has a part different from any she has essayed in her former successes, one that gives her much broader opportunity for the display of the versatility with which she is possessed, and in construction and lines, contains more comedy and dramatic situations. Its story is coherent, natural, and interesting from the rise to the fall of the final curtain, and in the interpretation of her role, lends to the stage a character, whose methods of straightening out difficulties would if followed, make every home in the universe a happy one.

Augustus Pitou, Inc., has given the play a most elaborate setting, and a distinguished cast of players, and if the reports that have reached this city in advance are to be credited, local playgoers certainly have a treat in store for their delectation.

Miss Robson will be the attraction at the Page theatre Tuesday night, March 1. The sale of seats will open Saturday, February 26, at 12 o'clock.

RELIGION IS CURE OF THE WORLD'S UNREST

A Sacred Concert was given Sunday evening at the First Baptist church. In spite of the unfavorable weather conditions, a good sized audience was present and greatly enjoyed the music, which was up to the high standard set by Mr. Walker, the choir director. There was a pleasing variety, and all the selections were well executed. An unusual amount of time is given to the work of the choir in the regular as well as the special music. The musical program for Easter is already well under way, and will be of a high order. Rev. P. R. Leach gave a short address Sunday evening on the "Cure for the World's Unrest." The speaker pointed out that the unrest of the day is to be met by an emphasis on the moral and religious life of the nations, rather than on the economical or social. The hope of civilization lies on a larger emphasis on the moral life in all the affairs of life. A break up is possible unless this is done.
