As the result of some trouble in the Economy meat market this morning Harry Rhine, a sausage maker was later arrested by Chief of Police Timothy on a warrant sworn out by W. M. Kristine, a clerk in the market, on the charge of assaulting him with a dangerous weapon. On being arraigned before Justice Taylor a plea of not guilty was entered by Rhine, and his preliminary hearing was set for Friday morning, and his bail at $1000. Mr. Kristine alleges that Rhine flew into a temper without any apparent reason and seized a knife and club and threatened to use both on him.

Stop and Think of Economy

Can you afford to drive a car?
