

The Tell Tale of Gray Hair

To be judged ten years older than you actually are, is the tell-tale of gray, streaked hair, which detracts from a youthful appearance as much as a wrinkled face does.

Guaranteed absolutely harmless. Druggists everywhere sell and recommend "Brownatone." Two sizes—39c and $1.50 with easy, complete directions. Two colors—blending from "Golden to Medium Brown" and "Dark Brown to Black."

Special Free Trial Offer. For a free trial bottle of "Brownatone" send to The Kenton Pharmacy Co., 599 Coppin Bldg., Covington, Ky., enclosing 11c to pay postage, packing, and war tax.

PENDLETON WINS SHOOTING CONTEST COMPANY D MEET

Last evening Company D, National Guards of Medford, after a short drill spent the remainder of the evening in games and sports. This was planned as the first demonstration, and in a small way, for new members who have joined the company in the past few weeks and a celebration on behalf of the company over the armory victory. It is now being planned for a public banquet or meeting of some such nature for the near future when all the people will have an opportunity to be present and hear something on the plans and arrangements for the new armory for this city. This new building is one most seriously needed by the military company, the local organization American Legion post and other organizations that can be accommodated, as well, and the building will be one of the most convenient and well equipped buildings that can be found on the Pacific coast and one well adapted to public use.

Among the features of the sports last evening was the marksmanship contest on the indoor range open to all the enlisted men of the local company. Many entered the contest which lasted until about ten o'clock. The shooting was done with the army 22 caliber rifles and was conducted under strict army regulations, under the supervision of Second Lieutenant Vern B. Marshall, and the prize given by the officers of the local company, which was a fine sterling silver pencil, was won by Corporal Vern H. Pendleton, of Central Point, who made the highest score, being 93 out of possible 100. The next highest score was made by Pvt. Guy Tex, postmaster at Central Point, whose score was 87. Several bowling games were also played during the evening, and the company cooks, Pvt. Geo. Iverson and Pvt. Geo. Reynolds, under supervision of Mess Sergeant Oscar Lewis, served a very nice lunch at about 9:30.

JACKSON COUNTY FAIR DIRECTORS WELL SELECTED

The stockholders of the Jackson County Fair association have struck a responsive chord in their selection of members for the board of directors, who will have charge of the association in its most important and critical period of its existence, according to expressions heard throughout the county the last few days.

Up to the present time, the directors chosen, with but very few exceptions, have notified the acting secretary of their willingness to serve on the board and assume the responsibility incident to the financing of the construction of fair buildings on the grounds recently provided by the county authorities.

"Below the Surface" is a Fine Story of the Sea. The same sheer dramatic force that made "Behind the Door" a motion picture always to be remembered lives anew in Robert Bosworth's second Thomas H. Ince vehicle, "Below the Surface," which came to the Rialto theatre yesterday for a four days' run.

The story, written by Luther Reed, deals with the hoodwinking of Martin Flint's son by an unscrupulous promoter and his pretty girl-companion. The youth's infatuation for the latter leads him to marry her and attempt an enterprise in which he nearly loses his life. Later she deserts him, and it is only the courage of Martin that brings happiness for his son out of the mess.

Grace Darmond, Lloyd Hughes, and George Webb make effective support for Mr. Bosworth.

Appealing Picture of Big Northwest In "Behold My Wife" which came yesterday to the Page theatre for a four days' run, George Medford has produced the finest photoplay of his career. The veteran producer of "Everywoman," "The Sea Wolf," and "The Round Up" has fairly outdone himself in this deeply appealing screen version of Sir Gilbert Parker's novel of the Canadian northwest, "The Translation of a Savage."

This Woman Suffered Mrs. H. A. Leaman, Sturgis, Colo., writes: "I suffered with bladder and kidney trouble for years. Doctored and tried everything. No help. Finally a friend sent me Foley Kidney Pills. They helped me so much I used 7 bottles. Now I feel fine. Spent sleepless nights. Suffered so it seemed I hardly could live. Recommend Foley Kidney Pills to all who suffer from kidney trouble as I did." Sold everywhere.

MEDFORD QUINTET MEETS ASHLAND TOSSERS TONIGHT

The Medford high basketball team is all primed for its go with Ashland tonight in the third game of the Medford-Ashland series at the Ashland high gym. In the workouts held this week the local basket men have been showing marked improvement in general form and basket shooting and they are out to win the last two games with Ashland which would place them in a three-cornered tie with Ashland and Roseburg for the southern Oregon title. The Medford team will go into action tonight with "Irish" Coleman and Dub Watson, forwards, Baughman in the center ring and Russ Sherwood and Jerry Young holding down the guard positions. Prescott and Singler, both strong men, will be held in reserve. With this combination Coach Klum plans to give the Red and White squad a real go this evening.

Ralph Coleman of O. A. C. considered one of the best college referees on the coast, has been secured to handle tonight's game while Shy Huntington of the University of Oregon will act as umpire. With these two in charge a fast, fair game may be expected. A representation from the Ashland and Medford student bodies met yesterday and drew up an agreement to further more sportsmanlike conduct at games on the part of students and request the cooperation of the townspeople in the movement. The resolutions drawn up at yesterday's meeting taboo the taking of school hats, pennants or ribbons of any description.
