

WOMEN WHO CANNOT WORK

Read Mrs. Corley's Letter and Benefit by Her Experience

Edmund, S.C.—"I was run down with nervousness and female trouble and suffered every month. I was not able to do any work and tried a lot of medicine, but got no relief. I saw your medicine advertised in a little book that was thrown in my door, and I had not taken two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I could see it was helping me. I am keeping house now and am able to do all of my work. I cannot say enough for your medicine. It has done more for me than any doctor. I have not paper enough to tell you how much it has done for me and for my friends. You may print this letter if you wish."—ELIZABETH C. CORLEY, care of A. P. Corley, Edmund, S.C.

Ability to stand the strain of work is the privilege of the strong and healthy, but how our hearts ache for the weak and sickly women struggling with their daily rounds of household duties, with backaches, headaches, nervousness and almost every movement brings a new pain. Why will not the mass of letters from women all over this country, which we have been publishing, convince such women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help them just as surely as it did Mrs. Corley?

ROBBINS PROVES TO HAVE PRISON RECORD IN CALIF.

Information received by the sheriff's office identifies George Robbins arrested in this city Saturday, February 19, after he had passed bad checks for $40 each on Jens Jensen and Sam Richardson, as an escape from Folsom prison in California, with a prison record. In the circuit court last Monday, Robbins pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to serve two years in the state prison at Salem, one count of the indictment against him being held open by the court.

The prison record of Robbins, which was traced by means of his finger prints by the Southern Oregon Identification Bureau of Ashland, Oregon, R. J. Schrader, manager, as given to the sheriff's office is as follows:

"The following is a record of 'George Robbins', has the number 27122 at San Quentin from San Joaquin County, California, in Jan. 1914 for worthless checks under a sentence of three years. Discharged May 16th, 1916. He was wanted at Marysville, Cal., in Jan. 1918, for forgery."

"Arrested as James Hart, Los Angeles, No. 15973, March 1st, 1918, attempted robbery. Turned over to Marysville, March 5th, 1918. No further disposition of case."

Robbins gave his age as 27 years when sentenced, and blamed his action in passing the forged checks onto a drink of "moonshine whiskey" he was given by an unknown man. He was employed locally as a decorator, and his work in this line was highly satisfactory. According to Robbins' attorney he was offered steady work for a year if a parole was granted.

Robbins, with Arnold R. Carol, sentenced to two years for theft of an auto from the Medford Auto company; Fay B. Slade, sentenced to three years for larceny by bailee from the Enders store in Ashland, and William Morin, a member of the "Suicide Fleet" in the navy, and wounded during the war, sentenced to two years for forgery, left Friday night in charge of Deputy Sheriff McMahon. Earl Friel, age 18 years, sentenced to two years for forgery was not taken with the party, as his case is under investigation by the juvenile court.

"LO! THE POOR INDIAN!"

By Violet Moore Higgins.
Mabel Jullienne Scott, playing the heroine in George Melford's production of "Behold My Wife," a Paramount picture, adapted from Sir Gilbert Parker's novel, reveals in her costume the undeniable effect of the Indian and his ideas of art.

First, there's the unique fan of turkey feathers; the almost barbaric beadwork on the gown; and last—the feather-covered train of a primitive savage princess.

Miss Scott plays the part of an Indian girl from the Hudson Bay Country, who is married to Frank Armour (Milton Sills), a young Englishman of good family. To humiliate them he sends his Indian wife to them in London. Her lot there would have been unbearable had it not been for the child that comes to her, and the friendship and help—and later the unspoken love—of her husband's crippled brother, Richard (Elliott Dexter), who educates her for her place in society and reunites her to her husband.

WORK RESUMED ON PACIFIC HIGHWAY NEAR RIVERSIDE

RIVERSIDE—After several months of inactivity work has been resumed on the highway between the Riverside store and Birdseye Creek bridge. The rock crusher at the forks of Foots creek has started operations and the road from that place to the store is being put in condition for hauling the rock. It is hoped that the weather will be favorable for a rapid completion of the work.

Messrs. Chas. P. Champlin, Fred Champlin and H. D. Jones, Sr., were Medford visitors Thursday afternoon and evening. The Messrs. Champlin attended Elks lodge and Mr. Jones attended a special session of Masonic order.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stead were in Medford Monday. Mrs. Stead called on Mrs. Fancher and Mrs. Geo. Alden while there.

Mrs. M. Jacobs and the Misses Nellie and Lyndall Jacobs were Medford visitors on Thursday.

Mrs. H. D. Jones, Sr., accompanied by her grandson, Willard left Friday evening for Coquille, where she will visit her son Bert for a couple of weeks.

The Stunt Party at the club house Saturday evening was a very enjoyable affair. Nearly all present took part in the entertainment of the evening. The dance for the Belgium Babies given by the Misses Lyndall Jacobs and Jane McQuat, the Folk Dance given by several ladies and the selections by the N. Y. Symphony Orchestra were among the many hits of the evening. Those present as guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Furnas, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roberts, Bob Holmes of Medford, Miss Marie Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton of Grants Pass, Miss Carsten, Mr. and Mrs. Brashear of Rogue River. Also Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Schaffer and daughter. Dancing was enjoyed and refreshments consisting of sandwiches, creamed chicken and cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Beatrice Jones, Mrs. Rose Gay and Miss Nellie Jacobs, the committee in charge.

Harold Lloyd in his latest comedy, "Captain Kidd's Kidds", is an added feature comedy attraction on the same program.

At the Rialto Tomorrow "The Truth" is held up today as a comedy model for the young playwright idea to shoot at. It is the story of a young wife who had inherited the gift of telling artistic lies from a rakish scapegrace of a father. Her indulgent husband does his best to show her the ultimate advantages of telling the truth, but the naive Becky finds fibbing easier, and much more exciting.

With this situation as a starting point, Clyde Fitch wrote a plot that mingles laughter with tears and whips the element of suspense to the breaking point. "The Truth" has been made into a motion picture, with the adorable Madge Kennedy in the stellar role, and will be shown at the Rialto theatre three days beginning tomorrow.

MANY CHANGES HUNTING AND FISHING LAWS

Together with the increase in the cost of angling and hunting licenses comes a number of changes in the angling and hunting laws. Under the new laws a closer inspection of the wild life of the state is hoped for by the state commission.

Angling licenses, which used to sell for $1.50, will be $3 in the future. Hunting licenses will advance the same. Combination hunting and angling licenses, which formerly sold for $3, will sell for $5. Minors from 14 to 18 years of age will be permitted to purchase resident county licenses at $1.50 each, but if they desire to hunt outside of their own county the $3 license fee will be charged. Guides will pay a license of $1, fur dealers $3, taxidermists $5, and trappers $2. All soldiers of the world war who are inmates of the soldiers' home will be issued licenses free.

Under the new licensing system un-naturalized citizens will have to buy gun licenses for $25 and a combination hunting and angling license. This will affect hundreds who have been buying their licenses on the strength of first papers.

Changes in the game laws are numerous, both east and west of the Cascade mountains. All migratory waterfowl will be controlled by the federal migratory bird act, so that there will be no longer conflict in this respect.

In district No. 1, which comprises all the counties west of the Cascade mountains, the deer season will be changed from September 1—October 31 to August 29—October 20. The Chinese pheasant season will be pared down from the whole month of October to October 15-31. A bag limit of five is provided, with 10 in seven days, of which only three must be females. Bobwhite quail will have the same season cut as the Chinese pheasant.

Fifteen days will be cut off the trout season. Instead of starting April 1, the new season on 6-inch trout will begin April 15. An all-year-round open season has been arranged for perch, sun-fish, catfish, and croppies, with a bag limit of 30 fish in one day. Perch and sun-fish are now game fish.

During December, January, February, March and April an open season will be permitted on trout over ten inches in the ocean tide.

Fines Are Increased In district No. 2, which includes all territory east of the Cascade mountains, the deer season will be the same, except in Union and Willowa counties, where the season will be September 19 to November 10.

The open season of Chinese pheasants will be from the first to the second Sundays in October in Union, Willowa, Umatilla, Baker, Grant and Malheur counties, and November 1-19 in Hood River and Wasco counties.

Angling for trout will be permitted from April 15 to November 30, with a bag limit of 30 fish.

You Can Always Depend on Your "Automatic Cook"

You will like the kind of cooking it does, and the reasonable cost, too, but the best thing about The Westinghouse Automatic, is, the fact that you don't have to stand over it every minute. You can go to the theatre and be sure that your dinner will be ready when you get home."

Spoiled Food is a total loss. Whether ruined by too much heat, or by too little, food that is not properly cooked represents waste in good material and fuel, as well as in time. Modern practice in the kitchen seeks to eliminate all these, by means of cooking methods that are independent of variations and shortages in the supply of available fuel.

The "Range with the Clock" provides this independence. Fuel shortages cause no problem in the kitchen that is equipped with the Westinghouse Automatic Electric Range. It provides even heat that never varies with the season or the time of the day. Winter and summer, morning, noon or night, it is a range that a woman can trust. Investigate our partial Payment Plan.
