

A. C. BILLMAN, of Indiana, who says Taniae is unquestionably the greatest medicine he ever heard of.

"Taniae is unquestionably the greatest medicine I ever heard of. After I had practically given up all hope of ever being well again, it put me right back on my feet, and I am feeling one hundred per cent better than I have for twenty years."

"For several months I suffered from a serious stomach disorder. I had no appetite and couldn't eat enough to keep up my strength. Very often when I sat down to a meal I would leave the table without touching anything, and I could not bear the sight of food, much less eat it."

"I was losing in weight and my friends would often ask me: 'What is wrong with you? Why are you looking so thin?'"

"I also suffered terribly with pains across the small of my back and over my kidneys. It was almost impossible for me to get out of bed in the morning as my back would pain me so I would almost fall over when I would first stand up in the morning. At night my back pained me so it was almost impossible for me to sleep. I would lie first on one side and then on the other, and would roll and toss all night long. I had almost given up and thought maybe my cure was against me, as I had taken so many different kinds of medicine without results."

"The first bottle of Taniae didn't help me much, but I made up my mind to give it a fair trial. After starting on the second bottle, I began to feel better. My appetite returned and it just looked like I could hardly wait for meal time to come. In fact, I was hungry all the time."

"My back and kidneys don't bother me any more and I can sleep like a log now. Taniae has just simply made a new man of me, and any one living in this county can tell you the same thing as everybody knows me and knows the shape I was in."

The above statement was made recently by A. C. Billman, of Lagerton, Ind. Mr. Billman has lived in Noble county all his life and is a well-known and highly-respected citizen of that county. Taniae is sold in Medford by West Side Pharmacy, in Jacksonville by J. W. Robinson, in Rogue River by W. S. Cary, and by leading druggists in every town.

MEDFORD HIGH BEATS ASHLAND IN JAP DEBATE

By a unanimous decision here and a 2 to 1 vote at Ashland, Medford debaters carried off the honors in the dual debate Saturday night.

The question debated was the interesting one of the right of the Japanese to hold real property in this country. Medford high school was represented here by Edwin Thomas and Leonard Brown, both of the senior class, coached by Miss Anna Lindas and Frank Buchter of the sophomore class, Mr. E. M. Hussong coach.

Ashland debaters were: Affirmative, Archer Hoyt and Dorothy Hoag; Negative, Pauline Plummer and Herbert Doran. They were coached by Miss Grace Knapp.

The judges at Ashland were Principal Brown of Rogue River, Supt. Imel of Grants Pass and Principal Hedrick of Central Point, while Mr. Tyrrel of Phoenix, Mr. Cash Wood of Medford, and Rev. Koehler of Ashland officiated here. The presiding officer at Ashland was Mayor Lankin at Medford, Mr. C. T. Steward.

The final debate for this district will be held Saturday night, March 12, with Grants Pass. The same question will again be debated.

Harold Lloyd in his comedy feature "Capt. Kidd's Kidds" adds to the entertainment, which closes tonight on account of Elks Minstrels tomorrow night.

At the Rialto. "The Truth," adapted from Clyde Fitch's great play of the same name, is of the stuff that life is made of. The people that move in it are real. They are the more delightful for their shortcomings, their little human mistakes. Acted by a brilliant cast, set in surroundings of flawless beauty and brightened by the dazzling humor of one of the screen's best beloved stars, Madge Kennedy, "The Truth" is guaranteed a warm reception during its engagement here at the Rialto theatre.

An Exceptional Picture. Cecil B. De Mille's new picture, "Something To Think About" which will be shown at the Page theatre next Wednesday for four days, is an exceptional production which is attracting widespread interest all over the country. It is typically a De Mille picture of the highest class.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The union of South Africa, where a recent negative vote on the proposal to accede from the British Empire attracted world attention, is the subject of the following bulletin issued from the Washington D. C. headquarters of the National Geographic Society: "With its vast areas taken over from aborigines; with thousands of its white settlers massacred by savages; with others, unnumbered, pressing on in their primitive ghettos ever farther into the interior of an unknown continent; with a gold rush winning a new empire; and possessed today of a stubborn race problem; South Africa, half around the world and little known to Americans, has in its history, nevertheless, chapters which we know by heart. New Yorkers can find an even closer affinity to the residents of Cape Town in the fact that the sites of both ports, now almost priceless, were bought from savage landlords for a few handfuls of gaudy trinkets. An International Game of Tag. In one respect, however, the carrying out of what is now the Union of South Africa is without its parallel in the development of the United States. In South Africa the strife of two white peoples for control has been an all important factor. For about a century and a half the Dutch had possession of Cape Town and the small area surrounding it, which harbored all the whites in South Africa. The Napoleonic wars transferred possession to England, and in 1806 the English assumed a final control which many of the Dutch inhabitants resented. In 1836 many of the Dutch farmers or 'boers' began trekking into the interior with the intention of settling beyond English influence. When Englishmen followed them they trekked farther. Finally, beyond the Orange River they founded the Orange Free State, and beyond the Vaal river, the Transvaal Republic. First diamonds and then gold were discovered in the new states. They brought great prosperity to the Boer republics, but they brought many outsiders as well; and the presence of these finally led to the Boer War, as a result of which the republics came into the possession of Great Britain. "Aside from the war-born republics and monarchies of the last few years, the Union of South Africa is one of the youngest of the important countries of the world. It, too, was largely war-born. Shortly after the conclusion of the Boer War, plans were set on foot to fuse the two old republics with Cape Colony, the oldest South African government, and Natal, next in point of age, to form the new Union. It was finally created by an act signed in 1910. Union—'Hello to All South Africa' "The territory of the union occupies the whole southern and southeastern tip of Africa in a wide strip about 250 miles inland from the Indian Ocean. Its area lacks only 25,000 square miles of reaching the half million mark. Of its four provinces, Cape Colony is slightly larger than Texas, the Transvaal about the size of Nevada, and Orange Free State slightly smaller than Alabama, while Natal exceeds South Carolina by a few thousand square miles. "But extensive as it is, the Union will some day be much bigger. It is the heir of all South Africa, and even now the governor general of the union is also high commissioner for all other lands in the southern part of the continent under British control. The addition alone of Rhodesia, which lies to the north, would double the area of the union. "From the south and southeast South Africa is a series of mighty terraces, each with a rim of high mountains from below and low ones from above. Most of the slopes near the sea are fertile, well wooded and well watered. The ascending steps vary in moisture and fertility. Within this terraced bulwark lie the great plains, or veldts where wild game once swarmed and where great herds of

U. S. ARCHBISHOP NAMED BY POPE SACRED COLLEGE

ROME, Mar. 7.—Cardinals of the Catholic church gathered at the vatican this morning for the secret consistory at which Pope Benedict announced the names of six new members of the sacred college.

The names submitted to the cardinals were: Dean of Managor Dennis J. Dougherty, archbishop of Philadelphia; Juan Benlloch y Vivo, archbishop of Burgos; Francisco Vidal y Barroquer, archbishop of Tarragona; Francisco Rognoni, papal nuncio in Madrid; Josef Schulte, archbishop of Cologne; and Michael von Faulhaber, archbishop of Munich.

Long before nine o'clock, the hour fixed for the assembly, the piazza of

May Be Next American Cardinal

ARCHBISHOP DOUGHERTY

St. Peter's was crowded with citizens of Rome and visitors gathered to witness the brilliant procession of the princes of the church to the throne room of the vatican. Slow and stately progress was made by the prelates and their attendants to the court of Donato. In a few minutes the doors swung open and the pope appeared. He led the cardinals into the throne room, and there, all but members of the sacred college withdrew to allow the cardinals to carry out the historic procedure of naming the man who would receive the red hat, symbol of the wearer's elevation to the supreme governing body of the church. Formal presentation of the insignia of office to the new cardinals will take place Thursday in the Hall of Beatification of the vatican. That ceremony will be much more elaborate than that which occurred today. Chief interest in today's ceremony centered in Archbishop Dougherty, who after thirty-one years as priest, bishop and archbishop, attained a place in the sacred college at an age much below the average for members of that august assembly. Hardly secondary in interest was the appearance of the two German archbishops, Schulte and Von Faulhaber. Because of the concordat with Spain, the newly created Spanish cardinals will receive the red hat from the hands of King Alfonso.

NEW YORK, Mar. 7.—A handsome, blue sweet pea to be exhibited in the eighth international flower show which opens here next Monday, has been named "Mrs. Warren Harding." The flower's color is similar to that for which Mrs. Harding showed preference when selecting gowns here some weeks ago and which was named "Harding blue."

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "tired" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "pick up" the spirits.
