Ye Smudge Pot By Arthur Perry

Events are shaping themselves in Europe to prove what the soldiers said, but the diplomats scorned, viz: That the war ended 30 days too soon.

Col. Sargent mustered a force of two men Mon. p. m. to bury the tin cans of Jville with military honors.

The first note of Secretary of State Hughes was no litany gem, but both Panama and Costa Rica got the idea, and agreed.

FIGURES AND FACTS (Easton (Pa) Star)

Miss Jennie Porter of New York is stopping at the home of H. L. Bartram, East Broadway, for the present, where she is demonstrating a well known corset.

Reports from Petrograd say the bolshevik chiefs, Messrs. Lenin and Trotsky, are fleeing, probably to the U. S., where the pickings are good, and the cussing of the existing form of government unrestricted. If they come, some hammerheaded residents will extend a welcome, without fail.

With the advent of spring, paint is showing up on something besides female faces.

The belief that only very rich men are shot by their sweeties is knocked in the noggin by the news from Waco, Tex., that a section boss was smashed "quite severely" by a charming Mexican senorita.

Speaking of the cigarette evil, the 1919 census shows 129,227 reform outfits in the land. In this list is the "Anti-Flirting League," which is the only one making any headway.

It will soon be the 17th of Owney Patton.

The pacifist idea for this country to disarm as an "object lesson" to the rest of the world, cannot be beat. About the time the last battleship was blown up, the country would be another "object lesson."

A MERE INCIDENT (Yreka News)

Tax Collector John Pashburg and Ed. McNulty got a spill Sunday on Butcher hill out of the Pashburg car when it skidded and turned over, pinning both gentlemen under; however as it was only a tin lizzie they kicked it off and arose scarcely worse for the wear, of course they were both a little sore. Ed. has a bump on his head and Pashburg sat around in his chair for a day or two and nursed a bad knee.

The construction of a railroad to the Blue Ledge is progressing as rapidly as the supply of lead pencils will permit.

About the time the weather man runs out of rainy Sundays there will be a shortage of gasolins.

This Woman Suffered

Mrs. H. A. Leaman, Sturgis, Colo., writes: "I suffered with bladder and kidney trouble for years. Doctored and tried everything. No help. Finally a friend sent me Foley Kidney Pills. They helped me so much I used 7 bottles. Now I feel fine. Spent sleepless nights. Suffered so it seemed I hardly could live. Recommend Foley Kidney Pills to all who suffer from kidney trouble as I did." Sold everywhere.

IT MAY BE THE WAY OUT.

SEVEN years ago the talons of the Prussian eagle poisoned the soil of Belgium. That poison has been growing and festering ever since until today all Europe is suffering from acute toxemia.

Some physicians thought the defeat of Germany meant the lancing of the boil, and a rapid return to health again. But events have disproved them. Either the disease had gone too far or the lance did not go far enough.

The occupation of Germany by France and Great Britain, may provide the heroic treatment needed. Everyone hopes so. And perhaps the heroic treatment needed in Russia is being applied by the latest revolution. Everyone hopes so again.

For this much is certain,—as things were going, the situation was hopeless. With no change of heart in Berlin, with no change of mind in Paris, with confusion worse confounded in Petrograd,—all Europe at the gates of perdition appeared inevitable.

The present situation has at least the virtue of definiteness. The allies can ill afford the expense of more militarism, but if the German disposition can be rendered more tractable and German intelligence more enlightened, it may be money well invested.

To go back to 1914 is impossible. To stand still in the swamp is impossible. Therefore, to go ahead, in any direction is preferable to the recent status quo and that is what the present developments seem to signify.—Europe doesn't know where it's going, but it is on its way,—much better than to not know where you're going, and being water-logged in the bargain.
