LOCAL K. P.'S GO TO CEREMONIAL HORN BROOK, CAL.

The Hornbrook lodge, Knights of Pythias, entertained a delegation from Talisman Lodge of Medford last Saturday night. Seven cars journeyed over the hump, but were unable to make the return trip until Sunday afternoon on account of several heavy slides on the Pacific Highway on the California side. Bill Offutt and his band of Brigands from Fuhat Burkan Temple D. O. K. K. were present in full uniform and gave an exhibition drill for the entertainment of the general public. The Hornbrook lodge entertained the visitors in royal fashion and all are looking forward to the time when they shall have the opportunity to again visit this lodge. The main purpose of the visit to Hornbrook at this time was to do some advance work preparatory to the next ceremonial of the Knights of Khorrnan to be held at Etna Mills next May, which is calculated to be one of the biggest events ever witnessed in Northern California.

SPARKS FROM TODAY'S WIRE

NEW YORK, Mar. 8.—The Standard Oil company of New Jersey today announced a reduction of one cent a gallon in the export price of refined oil and gasoline.

SALT LAKE CITY, Mar. 8.—The anti-cigarette bill, forbidding the sale of cigarettes in Utah, was signed by Governor Charles R. Mabey today. The bill also prohibits smoking in public places which are defined.

ATHENS, Mar. 8.—(By Associated Press.) Princess Anastasia, wife of Prince Christopher, underwent an operation yesterday afternoon. Her condition is considered grave.

HONG KONG, March 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—More than 800 Chinese are believed to have been drowned in the wreck of the steamer Hong Moh on Lamook Island, off the port of Swatow, Kwantung province, March 3, news of which was received here today.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 8.—Portland post, No. 1 of the American Legion rejected last night by a vote of 91 to 51 a proposal to take over control of being in Portland from the city boxing commission which had offered to relinquish to the legion.

forced to suffer foreign domination. With firm bonds must this sorrow unite us in one sentiment, one will. "Fellow citizens, meet this foreign domination with grave dignity. Maintain an upright demeanor. Do not allow yourselves to be driven into committing ill-considered acts. Be patient and have faith. "The imperial government will not rest until the foreign power yields before our right."

DUESSELDORF, Mar. 8.—Inhabitants of this city were warned in a proclamation issued by the mayor today against taking any provocative attitude toward allied forces occupying the town. They were asked to be dignified and quiet. Women and children were especially warned to remain at home. The population was gloomy but was resigned to the situation.

LONDON, Mar. 8.—(By Associated Press.) The German ambassador to Great Britain will leave London for Berlin tonight, it was announced this afternoon. When asked whether he would return the German envoy shrugged his shoulders and said he did not know.

The embassy here is remaining open with the counsellor in charge.

Germany Yields

BERLIN, Mar. 8.—(By Associated Press.) Occupation of Dueseldorf, Duisburg and Ruhrort by allied forces will not be opposed by the German government, it was indicated here early this morning. The cabinet was in session until 11 o'clock and then dispersed without taking any action calculated to meet the situation which has arisen between Germany and the allied nations. It has been hoped that some means of avoiding a final break may be found in view of the informal conferences between Dr. Walter Simons and Premier Lloyd George and Briand during the past three days. Speaking of the allied penalties a cabinet member stated after the adjournment of the meeting:

"We must bear them with dignity." Information was received at the chancellery late yesterday afternoon that Belgian billeting squads had appeared near Neuss. Early last evening the government was advised that contingents of French troops had moved to the edge of the occupation zone and were ready to advance, while others were coming down the Rhine on river boats.

Germany's coal deliveries to the allies may be affected, it was indicated here. Although entente troops may seize important coal shipping points, they will have to go still further into the Ruhr district in order to obtain control of coal production.

MAYENCE, Mar. 8.—British, Belgian and French troops entered Dueseldorf this morning.

French and Belgian troops occupied Duisburg at noon.

The allied Rhine flotilla took possession of Ruhrort.

LONDON, Mar. 8.—Orders for the advance of British troops upon Dueseldorf were issued at the British war office last night, it was reported today. There are 12,000 British soldiers in Germany, of whom 4000 are in upper Silesia. It is believed the Rhine forces will be reinforced to number 12,000.

Any attempt by the Germans to evade the new Rhine customs zone by diverting trade through Rotterdam or other ports on the North sea will be promptly countered by an allied blockade, the Daily Mail declared.

Lloyd George Criticized This morning's newspapers, with one exception, approved of the allied decision to penalize Germany for refusing to accede to the allied plan for reparations. This exception was the Daily News, which complained that Premier Lloyd George had brushed aside solid German offers making for a peaceful solution of the situation.

"Mr. Lloyd George," the newspaper continued, "completely capitulated to France. The allied decision was a triumph for the French policy of revenge and all the sinister implications it contains."

"March to Perdition"

The newspaper argued there was no legal and scant moral justification for the entente action. It says three sequels are almost inevitable—Germany will lose the upper Silesia plebiscite, which will still further reduce her paying capacity; the indemnity will become worthless as an economic reality, and Marshal Foch's army will find a "convenient occasion to take over a vast industrial region which France has long coveted."

"The ultimate consequences of this reckless adventure," the newspaper went on, "may be only guessed but Marshal Foch's advance may soon prove a march to perdition."

The London Times and the Morning Post rejoiced that the conference had produced a "welding of the entente." The Times said the German counter proposals had been rejected because they were not honest.

The laborite Herald, while it called the penalties "a sheer colossal folly," consoled itself, however, by asserting: "From a revolutionary viewpoint, the penalties will be all for good, as the end must be a crash from which revolution will arise."

French Expert Surprised

PARIS, Mar. 8.—General Degoutte, commander in chief of French forces along the Rhine, received orders from Marshal Foch last night to advance upon cities the allies have announced they will take over as a result of Germany's refusal to accept the Paris plan for payment of indemnities. A strip of land from eight to ten miles deep on the eastern side of the Rhine will be occupied by French forces, says a telegram to the Journal from Mayence.

General Degoutte will establish headquarters at Neuss, on the west bank of the Rhine. The first French contingent ordered to advance was the seventy-seventh division, which has been quartered at Bonn and is under the command of General Gaucher.

Dispatches from Mayence declared that city was outwardly calm, crowds of townspeople contenting themselves by commenting upon newspaper dispatches relating details of the break in negotiations at London.

Germans Are Blamed "France did not seek a break, but the break occurred," wrote Jacques Bainville, an authority on foreign politics, in the Excelsior. "It may be said however, we do not regret it, for, after all, it will bring a solution to the problem."

"It is most fortunate," said the Figaro, "that the Germans decided to break off the negotiations. First, because they avow before the whole world their unwillingness to expiate their crimes, and, second, because the allies seemed ready to make further deplorable concessions."

The communist L'Humanite asked: "Are the pan-Germans and the French chauvinists again going to plunge the world into turmoil?"

STOMACH ON A STRIKE

"Pape's Diapepsin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids; and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.

Charm of Motherhood

THERE are many homes once childless that now are blessed with healthy, happy children, because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored the mother to a healthy, normal physical condition.

The following letters give the experience of two young women and prove the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases.

Chicago, Ill.—"I was always tired, my head always ached, and my back ached until I could hardly stand the pain. I doctored for years, but the doctor said nothing but an operation would help me, and that I could not have children. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles of it and it helped me wonderfully, and I now have a fine baby boy, thanks to what your medicine did for me in restoring my health. I can highly recommend the Compound to all women who suffer from female ills."—Mrs. Wm. Reiss, 304 Willow St., Chicago, Ill.

Marinette, Wis.—"I was in a very nervous condition, was irregular, and could not have any children. I took doctor's medicine without success, and he advised an operation. My husband brought me one of your booklets and asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon felt benefited by its use, became regular, and now we have a fine baby girl after having been married nine years. I am always glad to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my friends who suffer from such troubles."—Mrs. H. B. Helm, 350 Jefferson St., Marinette, Wis.
