EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Lawrence Conger who is living on the old Owen place came to town with a load of apples Wednesday but could not get a satisfactory offer so took them to Medford, but I have not learned anything further as to what he did with them.

F. F. McCabe, another one of our orchardists was also in town Wednesday and took late dinner at the Sunnyside.

were still there at two this afternoon when I left there for home.

E. Harvey, wife and two grown sons also came in the same day and camped on the same stream intending to go to work on the job as soon as the ground will permit.

Mrs. Walter Meyer of Hay creek who has been out to Talent visiting, her children and other relatives, returned Wednesday morning on the Eagle Point stage on her way home.

John Dixon of Trail also spent the same night at the Sunnyside remaining until Friday morning when he took the Persist stage for home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cassine of San Francisco, came out on the Butte Falls stage Thursday and went up on the Lake Creek stage to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Farrier of Lake Creek.

Wm. Grieve of Prospect was also a passenger on the Derby stage on his way up home.

I intentionally omitted to mention something about what George Holmes and Thomas Lewis had done for our footbridge across our beautiful Butte creek, but it is not too late yet and when I give my own opinion I feel that I am giving the opinion of all that have had the pleasure of walking across it, for it is now in a much better condition than it ever was even when it was first built, for in addition to what was done in the first place they have put in two extra bents, thus bringing the floor nearer on a level and have put in the place of the old pine posts four new yew posts, and filled the hole with concrete, thus making them so solid that there is positively no give.

In one of my recent letters I stated that Ray Harnish had moved onto his own place but instead he has moved onto and rented his mother-in-law's, Mrs. W. W. Taylor's farm joining his own.

For the information of her many friends in this town and vicinity I will state that the stork has visited the family of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reternee Margaret Florey, and the result is a fine girl baby born March 17th, 1921.

Shorty Allen of Wellen was a business caller Friday and when I met him he was trying to put a bale of barbed wire on his saddle horse, and with me to hold his horse and Wm. Holman of Lake Creek, who just happened to come along, he succeeded, and reported that the Von der Helten's were fencing a large tract of desert land on the Antelope desert.

Mr. Nessler, the man who has rented the Perry Foster place on the Trail road west side of the river, was in town trading with that popular firm, Geo. Brown & Sons and in conversation with one of the firm I remarked that there were but very few of the farmers coming into town now and he remarked that at least two-thirds of the business they do was done over the telephone and sent out by parcel post or by the stages.

The Eagle Point Ladies' Improvement club met at the home of Mrs. B. F. Fuller last Wednesday afternoon and Miss Hayman and Mrs. Hayman acted as hostesses. There were twenty-seven ladies present, and they discussed the most effective way to improve our town but came to no conclusion as to the best way to proceed and finally decided to postpone any special decision until after the dance tonight. Refreshments were served and a pleasant session of the club was had. The next meeting will be March 31st at the home of Mrs. Gus Nichols and Mrs. McAllister will act as hostess.

Mrs. O. M. Goss made a business trip to Jacksonville Friday.

Fred Tutton, one of our progressive hustling young farmers and stock men was in town trading and reports that his wife who has been afflicted with the flu has about recovered and expects to visit her father, S. H. Harnish soon for a week or so.

Mr. Parr of Derby was also a business caller Friday.

Mrs. Cummings of Central Point, formerly Mrs. Wamsley, has been the guest of Mrs. Lottie Vonscoy for a couple of days.

E. V. Britton and W. Bergsman and three strangers were here for dinner Friday.

Miss Edna Peterson of Trail was installed as assistant at the Sunnyside Thursday.

As I have gone about my limit I will have to stop and leave the rest for my next letter, such as real estate changing hands, new people moving in, etc.
