

NELSON COULD HARDLY PUT ON HIS COAT

"Rheumatism Certainly Had Me in Its Clutches," Says Seattle Man—Tanlac Restores Him.

"There isn't any mistake about it, this Tanlac hasn't an equal," said C. A. Nelson, 424 Harrison St., Seattle. Mr. Nelson is employed by the city of Seattle as an acetylene welder. To quote his words:

"I had trouble with my stomach and sometimes I had awful spells of indigestion, but my main trouble was rheumatism. It certainly had me in its clutches. My arms, legs and shoulders hurt me so bad I could hardly stand it, especially in damp weather. I suffered agony every time I dressed myself and it was all I could do to put on my coat. The pains just travelled around my body, first one place and then another. Sometimes my back hurt so I couldn't stoop over and straighten up again without suffering torture. I didn't get much sleep, either.

"But Tanlac drove the rheumatism right out of my system, but my stomach in apple pie order and made me feel like a new man. I haven't a pain or an ache and have gained ten pounds in weight. I sleep all night without turning over once and feel fine in the morning. Tanlac is far and away the best medicine I ever heard of. It certainly does the work."

Tanlac is sold in Medford by West Side Pharmacy, in Jacksonville by J. W. Robinson, in Rogue River by W. S. Cary, and by leading druggists in every town.

WORLD CHAMPION WRESTLER MEETS R. HAND TONIGHT

The greatest wrestling match ever seen in Southern Oregon will be staged at Gold Hill tonight and a large crowd from Medford will attend. Ted Thye, generally regarded as the middleweight wrestling champion of America, will endeavor to throw Ralph Hand, the wrestling champion of Southern Oregon and the pride of Gold Hill twice in one hour for the major portion of a handsome purse. If he fails to do this, or Hand should throw Thye, the local boy will win the honors and the cash.

Although Hand has never tackled a man of Thye's reputation before, his friends are confident that there isn't a man his weight who can throw him twice in sixty minutes, and they are willing to back up their confidence with coin. The advance ticket sale has been large and those who haven't secured tickets are advised to do so at once as the choice seats have been selling all day like hot cakes.

In addition to the main match which will probably start about 9:30, there will be a preliminary wrestling match between Sabi Singh the terrible Hindu, and Jim Thor, the fighting Swede, also a boxing match between Burl Eaton of Klamath Falls, and Ed Tubor of Salt Lake City, which was only arranged yesterday promises to be a snappy go.

Thye arrived in Gold Hill this morning, and appeared to be in the best of trim. He would say nothing about the result of the match, however, remarking that he always believed actions in a wrestler were of more importance than words.

7 OAKS ORCHARD WINS HONORS ON GOLDEN DELICIOUS

SALEM, Ore., (Special)—Jackson county is not only famous for its pears grown in the Medford district, but the county now ranks as the home of the finest Golden Delicious apples grown in the whole country.

A. Johnson of Ashland, of the Seven Oaks orchard, is responsible for putting Jackson county on the map when it comes to the growing of the fine Golden Delicious.

Last fall, he not only felt that he had grown some mighty fine apples, but was willing to take a chance in an exhibit, with the best that other growers could produce.

Hence at the annual exhibit of the Mississippi Valley Apple Growers, held at Louisiana, Missouri, Mr. Johnson entered for several prizes offered for the finest Golden Delicious apples. And of sixth fine quality were these apples, that he walked away with all prizes offered.

One of his prizes won an exhibit for the best plate of Golden Delicious. Another prize won by Mr. Johnson was for the best ten Golden Delicious. And this prize not only included the best ten offered from Oregon, but the best ten offered by any grower in the United States.

Hence with his winning on Golden Delicious against all competitors, and there were entries from all states, Mr. Johnson demonstrated that Jackson county has the soil and climate for growing the finest Golden Delicious apples in the whole country.
