Fair weather for tonight and Sunday is the welcome outlook for Easter so the shoe shining stands of the city will probably do a land office business tonight and tomorrow morning in getting footgear in shape to wear with the new Easter duds. A heavy frost is also predicted for Sunday morning.

Vernon Vawter and Wm. F. Isaacs arrived home this morning from attending the Crater Lake development project committee meeting in Portland yesterday afternoon, and they are enthusiastic over the outlook for placing the famous Oregon resort on a real basis as to hotel and other concessions. Mr. Vawter, who is a member of the committee, said that that body would meet again in Medford in about three weeks and then give out a formal statement on the progress made and details of the plans. He said that nothing much can be done this year beyond raising a fund to help finance Mr. Parkhurst for the season, but that next season everything would probably be ready, the reorganization completed and the new company in charge.
