

"Every hankie, every sheet"—

EVERYTHING you put into your Thor gets equal attention. The smooth, polished maple "lifts" inside the Thor cylinder try a load of sudsy clothes to the top, every time around. There are six of these lifts—so every revolution means six "mix-ups" of the entire washing. No piece has a chance to get crowded into a corner and be neglected. The surging suds, the chugging movement, cleans every piece thoroughly, without ever a bit of friction, twisting or pounding. The finest fabrics, no less than the stoutest textiles, are thoroughly safe in your Thor.

Of course, you'll want a Thor. Ask to see one demonstrated. Learn about the easy terms.

LIST OF SCHOOL TEACHERS 1921 ARE ANNOUNCED

At the meeting of the Medford school board held last week practically the entire corps of teachers for this year were offered re-election for the school year beginning next September. Those elected include the following: Superintendent, Aubrey G. Smith; principals, O. R. Campbell, A. J. Hanby, Miss Ora Cox, Miss Sara Van Meter and Miss Elizabeth Ferguson; high school teachers, Mr. C. T. Steward, Miss Alice Chubbuck, Mr. H. F. Cope, Miss Elsa Shadall, Mrs. Elizabeth Jerome, Miss Donna B. Henry, Miss Anna Lindas, Miss Margaret Cottrell, Miss Tula Kinsley, Mr. I. E. Schuler, Mr. Burton Strock, Miss Lauretine Meissner, Mr. Otto Klum, Miss Maude Campbell, Miss Maurine Carroll, Mr. Leland Mientzer, Mr. E. M. Hussong, Miss Edith Gates, Miss Lottie Ingison, Miss Kathryn Dunham, Miss Mabel Mickey, Miss Alice Cromar, Miss Dora Gebers, Miss Amy Harding, Miss Theone Curkin, Miss Merl Clasey, Miss Marguerita Andrews, Miss Margaret Dawson, Miss Nellie Donaldson, Miss Bertha Weber, Miss Ruth Daniels, Miss Florence Walker, Miss Coralie Amrine, Mrs. Agnes Deavers, Miss Fern B. Daily, Miss Cecile Creede, Mrs. Laura M. West, Mrs. Blanche Canode, Miss Jessie R. Wilson, Miss Della Whisenant, and Miss Mabel Hillis.

Miss Kate Stine, of Jackson school, Miss Margaret Black, in charge of Teachers' Training in the high school, and Miss Louise Wolfe, music supervisor, were not applicants for re-election. The board expressed regret to lose these strong and capable teachers. Miss Thora Smith, who was head of the history department in the high school for several years, who left here last year to do work in the university and who has this year been teaching in the University high school, has been offered the teachers' training position to succeed Miss Black. It is also certain that there will be a few of those elected that will not remain another year. In some instances they are leaving to be married.

There were no increases in salaries granted, because of the large increases given last year and the close financial situation of the district at the present time, but the board hope that by another year, they will be able to give a satisfactory increase.

It is planned to increase the length of term by two weeks next year.

GREATER MEDFORD CLUB OPPOSED TO P. & E. PURCHASE

At the regular monthly meeting of the Greater Medford club Monday, the subject of an auto park was discussed, and J. W. Dressler, a member of the city council presented the advantages of the Pacific and Eastern tract. This tract however, has no large trees on it and the only camping ground available for the present old camp ground would be the present old camp ground back of the Nat. This property can be bought for $20,000 and consists of 19 acres.

Miss Phipps spoke in favor of the Phipps property on North Riverside with a frontage of some seven hundred feet on the highway and a block of eight lots running from Riverside on the North of Jackson street across Bear creek to the Pacific and Eastern tracks. On this property are a large number of beautiful oak trees, and on the home place there is a good eight room house with modern conveniences. This house is all ready for immediate use and there are a dozen or more large oak and other shade trees on the ground, a fine lawn with roses and shrubbery of different kinds.

This property has a large frontage on Riverside where the tourist could enter the grounds direct from the highway and it is ready to be used as a park without much, if any expense.

This property, said Miss Phipps, can be purchased for $16,000 with no cash payments and twenty years to pay for same if the city so desires.

A vote was taken as to the selection of these properties with the result of 20 for the Phipps property and 4 for the Pacific and Eastern. The ladies had previously visited the properties and are enthusiastic about the purchasing of the Phipps place.

The Screen

"Heliotrope" Author Harding's Secretary

Richard Washburn Child, noted writer and lawyer, has been named as one of the possibilities for President-elect Harding's private secretary.

Child, who was a correspondent with the Russian army during the war later becoming assistant to Frank Vanderlip in the war savings department, is considered to be well qualified for the position.

He has written many stories for the Hearst publications, among them "Heliotrope Harry," which was printed recently and tomorrow will be displayed in screen form at the Page theatre.

William Farnum at Rialto

William Farnum is coming to the Rialto theatre tomorrow in the biggest play of his career. It is "If I Were King," from the great stage success and novel by Justin Huntly McCarthy. This is the play in which E. H. Sothern appeared so successfully on the speaking stage. It is a gorgeous, thrilling picture—a picture that no one should miss seeing.

CAN EXPLOSION IN JACKSONVILLE

An "explosion" occurred in Jacksonville Monday morning when T. L. Devore, a resident of the county seat dumped a wagon load of tin cans on the area on Jackson creek, recently cleared by Col. H. H. Sargent and aides. A "Verboten" sign had been posted, and when the outrage was discovered, excitement reigned on California street, and a warrant was issued for Devore's arrest. Devore said he did not know the old dumping grounds had been discontinued. After a debate, a compromise was reached in which Devore agreed to haul away the tin cans and not do it anymore.
