Heavy smudging is expected throughout the valley early tomorrow morning and the wise housewives will set their alarm clocks for early rising to close all windows of their homes. Unless there is a material change in the weather by late night Medford will probably resemble a little of Old Linnon Tuesday morning and forenoon.

There is much regret in the Holland hotel-Mail Tribune section over the unexpected demise of Toddy, the well known dog of John A. Westerman who had been a familiar and welcome sight for years in the business district. Probably no Medford dog had more fast warm friends and well wishers. He was a gentle, well bred Japanese animal, which was left here by the Barnum & Bailey circus 6 or 8 years ago, and had resided in and around the Holland hotel ever since. Some miscreant who probably was after Frank Ray's dog left some poisoned meat around last night and poor Toddy died alone in a lot nearby shortly after eating it.

The Parent Teacher association met at the school house March 18. They were entertained by an excellent program given by the grade and high school pupils. Among the numbers most enjoyed were folk dances by the little ones and a quartet, "Dad's a Millionaire," by Misses Audrey Layton and Vinetta Pittman, Messrs. Lester Smith and Glenn McDaniel of high school.

The Parent-Teacher association voted to have a picnic at the school house April 16. The school will give a program and pies will be sold, the proceeds to be divided between the student body and Parent-Teacher association.

The high school boys have begun practice for the annual field meet. The girls have gone on a rampage about baseball.

The A. V. H. S. girls baseball team is preparing for the coming matched game with Jacksonville, April 8. It will be Applegate's first venture into the baseball world. The girls have plenty of material and are practicing up two promising pitchers, and keep in training two "beaten" catchers. The team has been organized for some weeks past. Miss Audrey Layton having been chosen captain. The rules have been put into execution, and every member of the team is well acquainted with their application. Practice is obtainable daily by playing with the several baseball teams organized by the boys, and the girls are longing for an opportunity to display their ability. The proposed lineup at present is: S. Layton, B. Clute, p.; B. Rowden, C. Foerst, c.; D. Head, 1st base; B. Rowden, C. Foerst, 2nd base; V. Pittman, 3rd base; A. Layton, ss.; F. Seyferth, R. Clute, c.f.; B. Head, S. Layton, r.f.; B. Clute, B. Grubb, l.f.

Another step has been taken toward standardization by the installation of soap and towel apparatus and improvement of the drinking fountains.

Mr. Clute has our thanks for a splendid teeter board which he made and presented to the school.

The high school girls gave a "Hard Times" party at the school house March 25. Community young people to the number of fifty were invited, with Mr. and Mrs. Sebrell as chaperones. Jolly games and stunts were in order and some interesting experiments in hypnotism were made. Clinton Stone and Glenn McDaniel were responsive subjects and Edward Kubi developed into a professional. Delicious refreshments in ornamental baskets were served by the young hostesses. At one o'clock, to the great disappointment of all, Mr. Schell rang the bell as a signal that it was time to go home.

Mr. S. E. Garret and son from Missoula are visitors at the Rowden home. The roads around Applegate have been much improved by Mr. Goodman and his crew.

Mrs. Knutzen, Mrs. Schell and Miss Cooper motored to Medford on Wednesday, returning via Central Point.

suffered and suffered quite severely. I look for a quick recuperation in those lines. Manufacturing industries, as a whole, have been continuing in business with a degree of success, which I think warrants my belief in a splendid outlook for the future.

'BRINGING UP FATHER' AT PAGE TOMORROW

A jolly, rollicking, tuneful show in "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore," which will be seen at the Page theatre tomorrow night.

The droll characters made famous in the columns of the principal newspapers throughout the country through George McManus will be presented in the flesh, including the henpecked Jiggs Mahoney, his militant better two-thirds, Maggie, Dinty Moore, Jiggs is the same jolly old rascal who is perpetually trying to slip from the watchful eyes of his shrewish Maggie, or trying to smuggle into his home Dinty Moore or some other old pal of his beloved bod-carrying or pick-aplying fraternity of former days.

Jiggs does not forget his admiration for the girls, and Maggie is kept busy as the sentinel over the impressive heart of her frivolous spouse.
