ASHLAND MEN INTERESTED IN CAT CREEK OIL

The interest in the Cat Creek oil production, Ferguson county, Mont., has been very keen for some time and seems to be increasing daily. There are some fifty to seventy-five Ashland people interested in Montana holdings through the Staples agency.

After the return of Mr. Staples and J. M. Wagner from their visit to the oil fields, the Oregon Cat Creek Syndicate was formed by a number of local men for the purpose of putting down oil wells on a 40-acre tract right in a productive structure only a little over a mile and a half from the discovery well of the Cat Creek district, also another productive well, which has come into production since the syndicate was formed.

The trustees of the syndicate are Walter Everton, Robert P. Neil, C. V. Looney and George Barron.

The standing of these men assures an investor intelligent and honest handling of money entrusted to them for investment.

News comes in daily of increased activity in the field, there being new rigs going up every day and new wells bursting into production almost every day. Drilling is now going on in the next forty to the Cat Creek Syndicate, and this syndicate hopes to secure sufficient funds to proceed with drilling within the next sixty days.—Ashland Tidings.

'SIGN ON THE DOOR' TERMED THE BEST DRAMA OF YEAR

The playgoers of this city will have the opportunity of seeing Marjorie Rambeau in "The Sign on the Door"—a play and play that held New York by the ears for the better part of last season. Miss Rambeau is appearing under the direction of A. H. Woods and will move into the Page theatre Tuesday night, April 26th.

Miss Rambeau and her play make a happy theatrical combination. No artist of the last six years (Miss Rambeau first came to Broadway six years ago) has achieved a greater hold upon her public, and no play since "Within the Law" has provided more vigorous entertainment. Through this play, Channing Pollock, its author, has stepped into the front rank of American dramatists, or as one distinguished critic has stated, he ranks only second to Augustus Thomas among the playwrights of the country. At any rate, it is freely acknowledged that Miss Rambeau and Mr. Pollock's play gave New York its outstanding success last season.

Of Miss Rambeau's gifts little may be said that is not already familiar reading to theatergoers. For six years she has been the reigning figure in the Broadway drama—so insistent has been the demand for her talents that she has never been able to appear outside the metropolitan districts. And this same situation might have continued had not Miss Rambeau herself demanded an opportunity to carry her art to the large cities of the country.

Agrees With Mr. Thomas
To the editor: In reply to Mr. Thomas, must say that he, I think, has said what a good many of us have been thinking, but were afraid to come out and say.

We who have young people in our homes, know that they think of the "public revival" as a show, or a place of amusement, when it should be looked at in a very different light. So if we cannot in some way change the ways and some of the talk that most evangelists use why not stick to our own church and quiet sermons and let revivalists pass on by.

No Hard Hart To the Kiddies!

BY VIOLET MOORE HIGGINS

It wouldn't be a regular Bill Hart picture, if he didn't act like a bad, bad guy, just at first, and in that respect "The Testing Block," his new Paramount picture, is no exception.

Indeed, as "Sierra Bill," a bandit chief in the mountains of California, back in the fifties, Bill's as bad as they make 'em, and goes from bad to worse, for he holds up a wandering minstrel show, fights his entire band of ruffians to win Nelly Gray, the gentle little violinist with the troupe, and mad with drink, forces her to marry him. And that was the beginning of better days for "Sierra Bill"—golden days they were after little Sonny came into their two lives.

Excellent actor as he is, it is a good thing Mr. Hart is not called on to act the villain toward this little tot, for that would be a thing beyond his power. He is too intensely and deeply fond of children to pretend to hate them, and they know it.

He knows the best games to play and the best stories to tell, and he has scores of little friends who adore him.

Some day when he has grown tired of making films, he intends to spend all his time writing stories for the kiddies he loves so well.

LOCAL PRODUCTS TO BE EXHIBITED C. OF COMMERCE

ARTIFICIAL TEETH SKILLFULLY MADE

When you get a set of artificial teeth, there is one thing well worth considering. That is satisfaction. A cheap set made on the factory plan will cause endless worry, embarrassment and suffering. Plates that do not fit are little better than none. I specialize on artificial teeth, and guarantee them to fit. It requires practical skill to make artificial teeth and guarantee them to fit. It requires practical skill to make artificial teeth fit so comfortably and snugly that you can eat, laugh and talk without revealing that your natural teeth are gone. Why deny yourself the enjoyment of your food by going without teeth or wearing a set that does not fit. When you can have them made by an expert.

The Care's the thing

Care in selection, care and skill in blending and roasting—the matching of every lot of raw coffee to an unchanging standard of flavor—that explains the uniformly smooth, rich taste of Folger's Golden Gate Coffee.

And all of this care is necessary because a smooth coffee blend is most difficult to attain. The "knowing how" comes from long experience—in the case of Folger's Golden Gate Coffee, an experience of seventy-one years.

Folger's Golden Gate Coffee is "Different in taste from other coffee and better."

So find out for yourself how good it is. Ask your grocer for it.
