Local Briefs

The work of putting the roof on the additions to the Caryl apartments is under way. Dr. E. H. Porter expects to open one of the units by May 15th, and the other one about June 1st.

George Wicks, familiarly known to scores as "Whispering George," is down from Trail for a few days visiting friends and attending to business matters.

Edwin Markham, one of the foremost of leading English poets, returning to his home state, Oregon, for a visit from May 7 to 17 will stop at Ashland May 9 under the auspices of the Southern Oregon Chautauqua association. John H. Fuller, president of the association, stated yesterday that no definite plans had been made for the poet's visit to the city.

M. Cotturi, special agent and head of the police of the Southern Pacific railroad, spent Monday and last night in the city on business in his line.

The Parent-Teacher circle of the Jackson building will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. John Garlin has charge of the program and the afternoon will be spent in the study of Oregon. Mrs. Fern Daily will present the first grade in dramatization. Refreshments will be served. Patrons and friends are cordially invited.

Invitations have been received in the city for local people to attend the presentation of the Kenneth Lucas Fenton Memorial Law Library to the law school of the University of Oregon by Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fenton in memory of their son, Kenneth Lucas Fenton, in Dillard hall at 11 a. m. Thursday, April 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Cantrall arrived in the city from their home near Rich yesterday afternoon, and are guests at the Holland.

J. J. Skinner left this morning for Prospect on business connected with the power company.

The Medford Elks lodge bowling team arrived home late Monday afternoon from Klamath Falls where they were badly beaten in the six games played with the team of the Klamath Falls Elks, loud in their praise of the treatment accorded them by the members of the Klamath Falls lodge whom they pronounce good sports and royal hosts. The Klamath Falls team, accompanied by 50 or 60 brother rooters, will arrive here next Sunday forenoon to play a return series of six team games with the local lodge team. The members of the Medford team are Sidney S. Smith, Fay Diamond, Carl Bowman, Jonas Wold and George Roberts.

J. A. Norris, who has been working at Hill, Calif., during the winter, has returned home and will attend to his large tract of strawberries for the next month or two.

Stanley Clark motored down to the city from Grants Pass today on a short business visit.

The Applegate hall will be the scene of a merry dance, followed by a big supper on Saturday, April 30th. Music for the dancing will be provided by the Premier Novelty orchestra of Medford.

Oregonians registered at the Medford include Miss Lillian Swanwick of Ferndale, C. H. Obenhaus of Roseburg, E. E. Rorapough of Eugene, and Robert Miller, H. H. Bromberg, H. H. Crumley, M. D. Owens, A. H. Ferguson and J. A. Schneider.

Further plans for the conduct of tourist facilities at Crater Lake national park this summer will be outlined at a special meeting of the Portland members of the Crater Lake organization, committee which has been called for 11 o'clock Wednesday at the Multnomah hotel.

A total eclipse of the moon, which will be visible in all parts of the northern hemisphere will take place tomorrow night and doubtless many Medford people will wait up to witness the awesome sight. The first contact with the earth's shadow will take place at 10:03 and the last contact is calculated at 1:26, a period of three hours, 23 minutes. The phase of complete eclipse, when Luna will be apparently wiped from the sky, will begin at 11:23 and continue until 12:05.

California guests at the Nash are C. L. Cofer of Hooker, Eugene Birch of Grenada, and D. Sullivan and Albert Shafsky of San Francisco. J. C. Keeler and A. L. Thompson are guests from Portland.

Frank Preston, the Applegate rancher, returned today from a week end visit with friends and relatives in San Francisco.
