The officials of the American Legion are quite anxious that all men whether legion members or not who are entitled to Victory medals make application for the same at once as it is feared that the medal distribution bureau will be disbanded shortly. At the present time there are over 15,000 ex-service persons in the state of Oregon who are entitled to this medal and who have not made application for it. Ex-service men and women may procure blanks for application from Commander Frank P. Farrell of the local Legion post.

All state, county and municipal owned motor vehicles are subject to license, the same as private machines, according to a letter by Sam A. Kozar, secretary of state, to officials having jurisdiction over these classes of cars and trucks. As a result of this opinion the secretary of state will insist that licenses on state, county and municipal motor vehicles shall be paid for this year.

"Counterfeiting with automobile license plates is a new idea advanced in Oregon," says the Salem Capital Journal. "Chief Traffic Inspector T. A. Rafferty brought a license plate to his office this morning which had been taken from a party on the road. It was a 1920 Oregon license on which the 'O' had been neatly battered down and a figure '1' in its place. The plate had been painted green and the letters and figures repainted white. So perfect was the work that it was difficult to distinguish it from a 1921 license plate without close examination."
