American. And "Bill" Farnum in a Western is just about the highest development of good entertainment. That's why we say "Drag Harlan" is a picture that anyone will feel sorry to have missed.

Jungle Beasts in Tarzan Film
Plenty of real jungle atmosphere is shown in scenes from "The Revenge of Tarzan," which comes to the Page theatre for two days beginning today.

Big Gene Pollard likes to tell some of his experiences with the animals he had to play—or with with. He says:
"One day Joe Martin, the famous monkey, who seemed to understand my Harlem English better than some of the native Californians, was doing some scenes with me. We were jumping, where the jumping was good, from branch to branch. I made a leap and, as my weight relieved it, a hunch snapped back and hit Joe, standing ready to follow me, in the face. He thought I had done it on purpose, started jabbering, and the first thing I knew he was after me and on my back ready for fight. It took some effort to pull him off and it took triple the amount of effort and all the pain in my lurch box to put him in friendly humor with me again."

Uncle Tom's Cabin
When Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," that virile old play of the most stirring days of American history, is presented here at the Page theatre next Saturday matinee and night, you will have an opportunity to renew the acquaintance of friends of bygone days. story is one of the most pathetic to be found in American literature. Little Eva, the flower of the St. Clair plantation. Simon Legree, whose name is today synonymous with the meanest man. Topsy, the irrepressible little plebeian who was not born, but "jest growed," and Aunt Ophelia, the prim old maid, that funny lawyer Marks, and all the rest. Not forgetting the pack of bloodhounds, the plantation slaves and musicians. No expense has been spared to make it a success. Its reception in other cities is its best recommendation. A street parade will be given during the engagement here.

GOOD NEWS

Many Medford Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.
"Good news travels fast," and the many bad back sufferers in Medford are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is had no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:
Mrs. W. E. Lane, 227 S. Holly St., Medford, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for attacks of kidney complaint. At these times my back would be weak and lame and I would feel dull and run down. My kidneys would act irregularly, too. Doan's Kidney Pills have always relieved these troubles, strengthening my back and kidneys. I gladly recommend Doan's to anyone needing a kidney remedy."
