REV. BULGIN OPENS REVIVAL MEETINGS IN BIG TABERNACLE

The Bulgis-Lewis union evangelistic campaign was inaugurated Sunday evening at the tabernacle, which had been erected for the special purpose of taking care of the large crowds who would want to attend the various services. The large auditorium was filled the first evening, which insures the success of the meetings from the view point of the desire of the people to hear the gospel preached by one who is a past master in ability to present truth in an interesting and telling manner. Great curiosity existed on the part of many as to whether the evangelist would come up to the high standard set for him. It is not any exaggeration to say that Dr. Bulgis won the hearts of every person in the large audience present in his first message. Some who had heard Billy Sunday and other great evangelists placed the speaker equal if not superior to them all. His wit, eloquence, pathos and logic appeals to and wins the most critical. Nothing of the sensational was present, and all were impressed with the great earnestness and desire of the evangelist to sink self, help the community and exalt the Christ.

The large platform for the singers was well filled with singers from all the churches and some who were not associated with any church. Rev. Robert Lewis with Mrs. Lewis at the piano make a strong combination, which insures the success of the musical side of the meetings. Mrs. Lewis sang a pleasing solo, and will again sing this evening. The music promises to be a strong feature of the meetings, and will draw many who might not otherwise come to the meetings.

Dr. E. J. Bulgis was introduced by Rev. J. R. Sasmeth, after which Dr. Bulgis introduced himself by giving some interesting facts in regard to his life, and told the people why he had come to Medford. His only motive in coming, he said, was to do good, and if he could not be of service he would leave. He was not here to abuse the city, but to work with the ministers, the mayor, the city council and the chamber of commerce. He was not a knocker, but a booster. If the people want a good chamber of commerce they must boost it, not criticize it.

Dr. Bulgis' theme was "The Question of the Ages" from "What think ye of Christ?" Reports will be given of some of the sayings of Dr. Bulgis from day to day, and if any of the chips from his axe hit any person, the speaker asked that they do not find fault, but change their face. Some of the striking sayings of the evangelist are the following:

"Christ is either a man or God. If you say He is a man you make yourself ridiculous."

"Any person who believes in God, the immortality of the soul, in a heaven and is not a Christian is a hypocrite."

"If Christianity is reasonable be a Christian."

"If Christ was man and man only why not surpass him; if God accept Him."

"Christ said 'which of you convicteth me of sin,' not other man could have said that and gotten away with it."

"We live in an age when we have demitted sin, humanized God, and defiled man."

"The church is founded not on any doctrine, but on the resurrection of Jesus Christ."

"If Jesus never lived how did man forge Jesus?"

"You are a lost man or woman, and are lost till God and man do business by the way of the cross."

Tonight is Baptist night. Tuesday night will be First Methodist night. All Baptists, and those who attend the church or Sunday school are asked to be at the city park at 7:30 p. m. and go to the tabernacle in a body. Dr. Bulgis will preach this evening on "The Triumphs of the Cross," and any person who fails to hear this message will miss a rare treat. Medford is having the privilege of hearing one of America's foremost preachers, and should avail themselves of the opportunity.

Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 4 p. m. boys' and girls' meetings are held under Mr. Lewis, who is an expert in keeping them interested and drawing them. The meetings continue during the week at 7:30 p. m. daily excepting Saturday.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Last Wednesday, April 27th was the general clean-up day, and bright and early, for town folk, I met our lady member of the town council, Mrs. Mattie Brown with her rake already at work, not only using the rake herself but giving orders to others to do what she wanted done and by night the different piles of rubbish that were to be seen all over our town demonstrated what our determined women could do. I don't know but it would be a good idea to recall the five members of the council and elect five ladies in their place, for we have had experience enough with the men to show that while they were in authority that kind of exercise or would rather sit in a cushioned pivot chair than to get out and rustle to accomplish something in that line. She promised that if the owners and residents on the different pieces of property would clean up she would have a truck come around and haul the debris away and then our town will look and be more attractive.

W. P. Holbrook, Verna Mathews, Gordon Cox and one of the Hayes men and two of the women were in town about the middle of the week on business.

John Swenson of Trail came out on the Peristat stage and spent the night at the Sunnyside and so did John Dickson and went on to Medford the next morning.

John Rader, one of our prominent stockmen was in town also and while here in conversation John began to remark about the high rate of taxes as well as the high rate of assessment and I referred him to the fact that there were so many taxpayers that take no part in trying to see that we get good competent men into office to make and administer our laws and he pleads guilty to his being very negligent in that case, for I doubt if he has voted at any of the elections for the past six or eight years, and after a general election it is an easy matter to count up twenty-five or thirty in an ordinary sized precinct who were too busy at home to go to the polls to vote and I predict that after the special election in June next when we are to vote for or against the vast appropriations of our tax money to be used as suggested by our late legislature that there will be that number in this precinct who fail to vote. Let us wake up and at least try to put a stop to adding hundreds of thousands of dollars to our burdens in the way of taxation. If we sit still and let the lawyers and bankers of the country say who shall go to make our laws and administer them and they simply feather their own nests they are not so much to blame after all. Let us wake up and begin to look out for our own interest. And while I am on this subject, quite a departure from my usual custom, let us insist on having the next legislature change our election laws so that no one can vote on the subject of issuing bonds unless he or she is a taxpayer on real estate. As it is anyone who pays no taxes at all can vote a half million or more dollars on the property of his neighbor from whom he is renting a home.

W. E. Hammel and wife and son Courtney and wife were business callers. Mr. Hammel came in to take out a new disc harrow he has secured through Roy Ashpole, one of our hardware men and Sam Courtney had come in to finish up a job of painting for William Perry. Sam has rented the building opposite the postoffice for a paint shop, and is kept quite busy lately.

Speaking of the hardware business, R. B. Price, one of the contractors on the Crater Lake highway has ordered eight miles of barbed wire from Roy Ashpole, 48 bales to be used to fence Mr. Price's land on the side of the Siskiyou mountains.

O. W. Train of Lake Creek was with us recently.

During the last few days our school janitor has succeeded in planting a good solid yew post and erected the old flag pole that fell down some time ago and now Old Glory is once more floating in the breeze at its head.

J. H. Heckner, the government rodent exterminator was in town getting things ready to start in poisoning squirrels.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clarno and her son Carl Bergsman and Pete Betts and wife passed through town on their way to Medford to see Mrs. Clarno's son Walter Bergsman as word had come out by phone that he had been hurt by a horse, but did not know the particulars. Mr. Hoagland of Central Point and grandson came out from his place near Brownsboro with a load of stove wood on his way home.

Mrs. L. A. Crane and her two daughters Misses Bertha and Helen Crane of San Francisco, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Parrier of Lake Creek were guests at the Sunnyside Thursday.

Lee Bradshaw of Brownsboro was a caller Thursday.

Last Thursday evening was rather a busy time with our old Dr. W. W. P. Holt, formerly of this place but now of Medford. It appears that Mrs. Thomas Cook who lives in the lower part of our town needed the assistance of a doctor and called Dr. Holt and about the same time Mrs. R. B. Baker of Butte Falls who has been at the Sunnyside over a month under the care of the doctor, needed the assistance of a doctor so called for him and the result was that at 9:20 p. m. Mrs. Thomas Cook became the mother of a fine 8-lb. boy and at 9:40 p. m. Mrs. R. B. Baker became the mother of a fine 7 1/2-lb. girl and at last accounts both mothers and babies are doing fine. Grandma Laura Edmondson, Mrs. Baker's mother, is as proud as any grandma can well be and well she may be.

Kay Looseley of Fort Klamath, Roy Stanley of Eagle Point and Fred Neil of Ashland were here for dinner Thursday.

Geo. W. Stowell, the oak king and son, Thomas Clingdale and Ray Harnish were business callers.

R. D. Henson, foreman for Klum Adv. Co., with force of W. P. Smith and W. Hall were here Thursday putting up another set of boards for advertising purposes and Mr. Henson says that they are kept busy putting up boards and advertising. They did stop long enough to eat dinner at the Sunnyside.

The Civic Improvement club met at Mrs. Roy Stanley's last Thursday and had a very pleasant time and good eats of course. There were 17 members present and a representative of the California-Oregon Power Co. gave them a talk on the subject of lighting the town but there was no definite action on the subject. The next meeting is at Mrs. Wm. Von der Hellen's, May 12th.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

ASHLAND, May 2.—According to official records of Ashland Post No. 14, American Legion, there are nine graves in Mountainview and Ashland cemeteries, also in the Talent cemetery, which are entitled to be honored with the formal markers as supplied by the government, a supply of which have lately been received by the local post. They are of bronze, disc shaped, about seven inches in diameter, edged by a wreath of laurel, with the wording "World War Veteran." Superimposed upon the wreath, a flag-holder supplementing the design. The site for the memorial monument in Ashland cemetery has been selected and the plot is being prepared for installation of the stone, which will be of native granite, from quarries near Ayer's Spur. The monument will be unveiled on Memorial Day, and arrangements are being made with Col. John L. May and Major Clyde A. Malone, each of whom was formerly captain of our local military company, to be present on that date. May, as speaker and Malone as marshal of the day. The appointment of Malone, however, to a position with the Honolulu Power Co., in the Hawaiian Islands, will prevent his attendance here, as he sails this week for Honolulu. Not less than 125 Victory Medals remain to be disposed of in Ashland and near vicinity, to which excessive men are entitled, though for which many seem either neglectful or disinclined to make application. On the basis of the number remaining unclaimed in Jackson county, no less than 15,000 still await men throughout the state. The local post has met every responsibility in contributing to various quota objects, remittances having been sent in on overseas grave decoration, poppy, and state bonus funds. The poppies are due here for distribution this week. The women's auxiliary is under way, its promoters awaiting charter delivery. Those interested in this movement should interview either Mrs. Perry Ashcraft, Mrs. P. K. Hammond, Mrs. C. L. Loomis, Mrs. F. H. Walker, or Miss Mary Spencer, as to details respecting

SOUTHERN OREGON C. E. RALLY TO BE HELD AT ASHLAND

A Christian Endeavor rally including all societies in Jackson, Josephine, Klamath and Lake counties will be held in Ashland May 4, 1921. The meetings on May 4 will be held in the Congregational church, and those on May 5 at the Presbyterian church.

May 4 7:30 p. m. Orchestra. Vocal solo, Mr. Percy Stratton. Rally songs, C. E. choir. Address, Lloyd Carick. 8:45 p. m. Social hour (stunts). Executive committee. Ashland Congregational society, Ashland Christian society, Ashland Presbyterian society, Medford Christian society, Medford Presbyterian society, Rogue River Presbyterian society, Phoenix Presbyterian society. 10:20 p. m. Devotionals. May 5 9:30 a. m. Executive conference. 12:00 m. C. E. luncheon. Toastmaster, Rev. C. F. Koehler. Responses, Union officers.

the organization. "Flashes of Action," the noted war film, is due here at the Vining, under Legion auspices, next week, the specific dates being Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 12, 13 and 14. A social event of special significance will be a "blow-out" on Tuesday evening, May 2. A joint entertainment and get 'em committee will be held at a jolly reunion to which all ex-service men in general are cordially invited.

Complimentary to Mrs. Dr. Mattington of Phoenix, who has so efficiently tutored the Ashland French club for the past three years, Mrs. Wilmer Foley gave a one o'clock luncheon at her home on Cleveland street, April 25, presided in the kitchen, and very appropriately each component of a well-appointed menu, served incident to a three-course luncheon, bore a designation which implied that it originated in la belle France. Conversation was carried on in the vernacular, the only exception being the occasional interpolation of an Anglo-Saxon limerick, thus avoiding a tendency in restricting the employment of "parlez vous Francaise" verbs and proverbs exclusively, at the expense of a little polysyllabic gossip by way of linguistic variance.

At the recent W. C. T. U. executive session, held here in connection with the observance of the 36th anniversary of the Ashland unit of the organization, the women's jury bill, to be voted upon in June, was unanimously endorsed. The address of the hour was by Rev. Walter Evans, pastor of the Baptist church, his theme being "Present Day Evils," forcibly depicting the effects of narcotics, alcoholism, unwholesome moving pictures and promiscuous dancing. Mrs. Grace Koehler, wife of the Presbyterian pastor, presented "The Golden Hour in our Public Schools," incident to which topic it was revealed that over fifty million children even in America do not attend Sunday school. The "golden hour" movement championed by the speaker, would provide a brief inspirational service supplementing the educational period for each school every day. The Chau-tauqua salute was tendered Mrs. Ann H. Russell, Ashland pioneer and Christian worker in this locality for over sixty years, whose reminiscences of earlier days were particularly interesting from a historical standpoint.

STILL ANOTHER NURSE RECOMMENDS TANLAC

Oregon Woman Testifies to Powers of This Medicine—Overcome Sufferings of Six Years' Standing and She Has Gained Forty Pounds.

"Although it has been almost two years since Tanlac has relieved me of my troubles and built me up wonderfully, I'm still feeling fine and can testify to both the immediate and lasting results of the medicine," declared Mrs. J. F. Melkie, 393 Francis avenue, Portland, Ore., a trained nurse of considerable experience.

"For six or seven years I suffered terribly from stomach trouble and rheumatism. After eating I would have heartburn so bad that I could hardly stand it, and the gas in my stomach caused awful pains. I underwent an operation for appendicitis that left me in such a badly run-down condition it looked like I would never regain my strength. "Inflammatory rheumatism set in and my arms and joints ached dreadfully. In fact, my hands had to be put in splints for about six weeks to keep from becoming distorted and growing out of shape. My nerves were terribly upset, and at night I was so restless I could scarcely sleep. "After taking seven bottles of Tanlac I had actually gained forty pounds in weight and was enjoying my usual good health. The rheumatism left me entirely, my stomach never troubles me and my sleep is sound and refreshing. I can certainly vouch for the merits of Tanlac, and a number of people have experienced its benefits through my recommendation. "Tanlac is sold in Medford by West Side Pharmacy, in Jacksonville by J. W. Robinson, in Rogue River by W. S. Gray, and by leading druggists in every town. Adv.
